

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

To the Right Reverend J. F. Spalding, S. T. D.:

MY DEAR BISHOP:—In accordance with your instructions I visited thirteen Parishes and Missions in the interest of the Mission Fund, and appealed for subscriptions on the lines of the plan suggested by me to the Council of 1899. It was not possible for me to visit more parishes, as I was appointed to Canon City about the first of February. The parishes of Manitou and Salida undertook to raise the amounts asked without a deputation. The Rev. P. H. Hickman preached missionary sermons in the two churches at Pueblo. The Archdeacon undertook to visit as far as possible or send deputations to the remaining parishes of the Diocese.

I am pleased to be able to report that I met everywhere with a willing response on the part of the Church people. The thirteen parishes visited by me subscribed $1,022.46. Of this amount the sum of $996.30 has already been paid in to the treasurer. The following are the parishes visited by me, with a comparative statement showing the amounts contributed last year, and the sums subscribed this year; also amounts actually paid in this year:

I am sending to the committee the draft of a Canon, which it will be necessary for the Council to pass in order to put the new plan in force.

Faithfully and obediently yours,

GEORGE ROGERS.

On motion of Canon Sibbald the report was received and the thanks of the Council was voted Canon Rogers for his labors.

To the Right Reverend John Franklin Spalding, S. T. D., Bishop of the Diocese of Colorado:

DEAR REVEREND FATHER IN GOD:—I have for the fifth and last time the honor to hand you herewith a synopsis of my official acts as Archdeacon of the Diocese of Colorado, from June 8th, 1899, to May 13th, 1900.

The offerings have somewhat fallen off from the previous year, first, because I took, by the Bishop's and Council's leave, a five weeks vacation, the first for five years, and, added to this fact, I left the Diocese May 14th; that, including the vacation, struck out two months from the year's work. Second, I had handed over the whole Arkansas Valley to the Rev. W. H. Haupt. These are sufficient, besides the fact I held only one "Parochial Mission" outside the Diocese. Such work always means to this Diocese $50 for each term of seven or ten days, and unless such "Parochial Missions" are freely permitted and arranged for, the Archdeacon's offertory treasury must be depleted, as his well-to-do mission stations, the more successful his work is, must pass from under his care to the Missionary in charge. I cannot help, in sending in this, my last report, to say how much I feel leaving Colorado. Ten years in any one place means much in every way, and especially for a Priest. My best wishes and prayers go out for the Bishop, the Clergy and Laity of Colorado. I suppose at this time I must formally ask you to accept my resignation as "Archdeacon of Colorado," and also as "Honorary Canon of S. Johns Cathedral."

With deep appreciation of the treatment I have received at your hands as your Archdeacon, believe me,

In Christ and His Church,

REGINALD SHIELD RADCLIFFE.

See also Appendix J.

The Rev. T. A. Schofield moved that the resignation of Archdeacon Radcliffe be accepted by the Council. Carried.

The Rev. T. A. Schofield read the following report which was received.

REPORT.

Your committee to consider that part of the Bishop's address relating to the increase of the subscribers to the Spirit of Missions and the Western Churchman recommend that the suggestions of the Bishop be carried out in each Parish and Mission by appointing a member of the Congregation as a special agent to forward the interests of the Spirit of Missions. It is suggested that the Secretary of the Womans Auxiliary or Ladies Aid Society might attend to this in most places.

In regard to the Western Churchman, our Local News could very easily be sent from each congregation if one of the congregation were asked to write the notes. This same person could attend to the matter of subscriptions. One of the causes of regret to many people is, that having subscribed, they did not receive their paper because of the negligence of some in the transmission of their name and address.

Respectfully submitted,

T. A. SCHOFIELD,
J. E. CARPENTER,
J. F. PHILPOTT.

The Rev. P. H. Hickman moved that the report of the Committee on the Episcopate Fund be made the special order for this afternoon at 2:30. Carried.

Canon Rogers presented the following

REPORT.

Your committee is of the opinion that a very decided increase in the Missionary offerings of the Diocese, can be secured by putting in force by canon the plan which has to some extent been tried during the past year, of sending deputations to Parishes to preach Missionary Sermons and secure subscriptions. To this end we recommend that the following canon be passed by Council :

PROPOSED CANON ON MISSION FUND.

That Section 2 of Canon XV. be repealed and the following substituted therefor :

(a) A Mission Board or Committee, appointed by Council, shall estimate each year the amount necessary to carry on the Missionary work of the Diocese, and shall present each year to Council an estimate of the amount necessary for the Council year's work.

(b) The amount necessary shall be apportioned by the Board or Mission Committee among the several Parishes and Missions of the Diocese, each Congregation being asked to raise a definite sum.

(c) Between September 1st and December 31st of each year a Missionary Sermon shall be preached to each congregation of the Diocese by a deputation sent by the proper authority, or in case such deputation cannot be sent, by the Rector or Missionary in charge.

(d) When the Missionary sermon is preached, pledge cards shall be placed in the pews and the congregation asked to subscribe thereon. These subscriptions shall be collected within six weeks and sent in to the Treasurer of the Mission Fund.

(e) The names of the contributors to the Mission Fund with the amounts, shall be printed each year in the Council Journal, except when it is the wish of a Rector or Missionary that the names of contributors in his Parish or Mission be not printed.

We also recommend that a committee be appointed by the Bishop to submit to next meeting of Council a canon providing for the creation of a Mission Board or Mission Committee, to be elected annually by Council. Said Board or Committee to have oversight and management of the Missionary work of the Diocese in so far as the laws of the Diocese permit. The canon to be submitted shall also define the composition, duties and powers of said Mission Board or Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. ROGERS,
C. Y. GRIMES,
A. B. JENNINGS,
T. S. WELLS,
A. D. PARKER,
S. D. TRIMBLE.

The Rev. P. H. Hickman moved that we proceed to the immediate consideration of this report. Carried.

Section 2 of Canon XV. was repealed by a unanimous vote by orders, so satisfying the terms of Canon XXVI.

After much discussion upon other proposals of the committee, Prof. Murfree moved the reference of the matter to the committee on Legislation. Carried.

The Rev. T. A. Schofield moved that the committee on Increased Missionary Offerings be continued. Carried.

On motion the Council took a recess until 2 p. m.

THURSDAY, June 7th, 2 p. m.

The Council re-assembled, Bishop Spalding presiding.

Canon Kramer read the following

REPORT.

The Board of Equalization reported as follows:

In addition to the regular per centum assessment for Bishop's Salary, the Council ordered the Board to assess further ten per centum.*

Canon Newton moved that the list of assessments be printed and sent to Rectors and Vestries, with the request that if any changes or abatement is deemed just and necessary, the reasons therefor be stated to the Board of Equalization within thirty days, and that the Board have authority in the matter. The Rev. P. H. Hickman read the following

REPORT.

The Committee to whom was referred that portion of the Bishop's Address alluding to the Episcopate Fund and the appointment of a Coadjutor Bishop, beg leave to report that after conference with the Treasurer of the Episcopate Fund, they recommend that the item of real estate, improved and unimproved, be subdivided, so as to show the status and condition as to receipts and expenses of the improved and unimproved real estate, separately.

After conference with the Right Rev. the Bishop, on so much of his address as refers to a Coadjutor Bishop, the Committee beg to submit the following resolution:

Resolved, that a committee be appointed by the Bishop to report to the next Council, and to the Bishop at his request, the financial ability of this Diocese to support a Bishop Coadjutor.

The committee also recommend that the Treasurer be instructed to print as an appendix to his report, the list of Parishes and Missions still owing coupons to the Endowment Fund of the Episcopate Fund.

Carried.

Mr. Parker offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, that this Council here records the fact of its entire confidence in the integrity of David Rubidge, Treasurer of the Episcopate Fund, and that it cannot in any way consider his resignation. And it is further resolved that the Council recognizes his wise administration, and will continue to have this confidence in the future.

Resolved, that the foregoing resolution be printed in the Denver Republican and the Rocky Mountain News of June 8th.

The Rev. P. H. Hickman offered the following resolution which was adopted:

Mr. Herbert offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, that this Council conveys its appreciative satisfaction to the practical managing executive of the affairs of Wolfe Hall, since January last, by which so healthful an educational and financial condition has been established.

Dr. Brown read the following

REPORT.

Your Committee on the State of the Church respectfully report that the Diocese is to be congratulated on the fact of an important advance all along the line. The increase in the contributions toward the Diocesan Mission Fund is the most gratifying, being more than threefold the amount contributed the preceding year. Owing to this increase the Bishop has been enabled to open new missions and to adopt a policy of expansion and development. The thanks of the Council and Diocese are due to the Rev. Canon G. Rogers, for his important suggestion of the method which has proved of so much value, and for his successful efforts in so largely increasing the Diocesan Mission Fund.

There has been, we are thankful to report, a very marked increase in the number Confirmed, in the number of Baptisms, and in the number of those receiving Easter Communion.

The committee has been unable to prepare any results or recommendations based upon the annual reports from Parishes, for the reason that many of these reports are imperfect, and not readily understandable; and others of them came in so late that they could not be recast into proper form. The committee recommends that there be greater diligence hereafter in furnishing parochial reports in apt time and in having them complete.

We believe that perhaps in no way may the power and growth of the Church be as well promoted as by increasing the efficiency of our Sunday school work, and Sunday school work cannot but languish without associated effort. We therefore earnestly recommend the revival of the Diocesan S. S. Association.

The very frequent changes in the rectorships of Parishes, more particularly outside of the city of Denver, weakens the Church in the Diocese and makes the entire work, both of the Clergy and of the Laity, doubly difficult. There should be changes made only when no other course can be taken. The safe way for a rector and his people to have the best results is for them to work together for years, having plans made for permanent work.

We desire to hereby express our deep sense of the great work accomplished for the Diocese by Archdeacon Radcliffe, and all feel a keen regret at his departure into another field. We pray that he may be as eminently successful in his labors there as he was here.

Respectfully submitted,

E. W. SIBBALD,

V. O. PENLEY,

W. H. WHITEHEAD,

G. E. BROWN.

Canon Sibbald read the following

REPORT.

Your committee on such part of the Bishop's address as referred to the erection and maintenance of a Church House in connection with the State University, beg leave to report as follows:

There are more than seven hundred students in the University of Colorado and its preparatory department. This number is increasing at the rate of from 12 to 15 per cent. per annum. Of these, fully one hundred are from Church homes. The necessity of providing the best Church privileges for this large number of young people, representing all parts of this country, and this Diocese in particular, is most evident. The distance from S. Johns, our only Church in the city, is too great to effect regular attendance, and the seating capacity of the Church is not sufficient for the regular congregation. Our good Bishop, exercising his usual foresight, secured a valuable tract of five acres adjoining the campus on the east.

There is good need of dormitories, reading rooms, and home privileges for the students.

The University offers, in the most cordial spirit, to meet the efforts of the Diocese to properly provide for our students in this respect. They have already promised to extend the irrigation privileges of the campus for these five acres, and they make the following official proposal of affiliation with any system of instruction which the Diocese shall see fit to establish on these grounds.

CO-OPERATION WITH THEOLOGICAL COLLEGES.—PLAN.

1. That in case a Theological College with satisfactory standards of admission and graduation be established and maintained in close proximity to the University, the general policy of the Faculty of Arts in the University in relation to such an institution, will be shaped by the desire to secure such a correlation of studies as will make it possible for a student to take both courses and both degrees—Arts and Theological—in six years, partly by offering such electives as may count in a theological course, and partly by accrediting certain theological studies in the college of Liberal Arts.

2. That in the awarding of such credits, a distinction will be drawn between culture studies and purely theological studies, only the former being allowed to count towards the arts degree.

3. That such courses for which credit may be given will not be listed as electives in the college of Liberal Arts, but that credits will be awarded for such courses in each individual case, by special vote of the faculty.

4. That to the extent that the foundation of a single chair in theology, anticipates the foundation of such a theological college, the Faculty of Arts in the university favor a similar co-operation with the professor in charge in respect to the courses offered by him.

The plan here outlined establishes the same precise relation between the Liberal Arts of the University of Colorado and the Church school as now exists between the College of Liberal Arts, the Law, the Medical and Scientific Departments of the University. Your committee suggests that the Bishop be requested to appoint a committee to draft in detail a plan for the establishment of such a Church House, rectory, dormitories, chapel, lecture room, library, etc., and submit the same to the ordinary, and with his approval to have the same printed and distributed throughout the various Dioceses of the American Church, and to solicit subscriptions for this foundation.

The Rev. G. Lehman read the following

REPORT.

Your committee appointed to consider that part of the Bishop's address relating to the schools, report that there is great cause for congratulation on the strength which has been attained in our Diocesan schools. We have received no official report of Jarvis Hall, but believe that there has been successful management of many of its departments.

We note with especial gratitude the condition of Wolfe Hall, and commend the excellent discipline which has been attained by Miss Kerr. Your committee feels confident that from the assured success which has resulted from the present management, a bright future is in store for the school.

We respectfully urge the people of the Church in this Diocese to consider the great advantages of a Church atmosphere and personal oversight, which can be assured their children in a thoroughly Church school. The education given by Jarvis Hall and Wolfe Hall is equal to that of any other schools in the state, and prepares for seminaries and colleges of the first rank in this country.

The Rev. G. B. Norton read the following

REPORT

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON S. LUKES HOSPITAL AND THE HOME.

It is a satisfaction to us to note the favorable reports of the work being done in the Diocese in ministering both to the bodies and souls of men.

Relative to the hospital we realize the extent of the good that can be accomplished in reaching the spiritual condition through the bodily infirmities of the inmates, and to reach this greater end the means to accomplish it must be provided, and we would recommend that the needs of the hospital be brought forcibly before the different Parishes, in order to show how inadequate the present accommodations are for the constant increase of the work, as well as to emphasize the demands made on behalf of free patients. Were the capacity and contributions larger, certainly the purpose of the hospital could be better fulfilled, and the committee herewith requests that the Clergy of the different Parishes and Missions be requested to make a special appeal for liberal offerings on next Thanksgiving day, in order to help towards that end.

The Home is a very important institution in our midst. The faithful and efficient work it has done is the best testimonial that could be desired. The latest report of the superintendent indicates that daily prayers have been said. We ought to congratulate ourselves on having in our midst an agency for good that would be a credit to any Diocese in the Church. This is a self-supporting work, so far as the Diocese of Colorado is concerned, and we should be proud it is here, and should not only be proud of it, but take steps toward providing a room for invalid Clergy. With this in view, your committee recommends:

That it is the sense of this Council that one special offering be asked in each Parish during this year, towards the endowment of a room in the Home for sick Clergy of the Church.

G. B. NORTON,
J. T. CROW,
A. O. POINIER,
A. FISHER.

On motion it was

Resolved, That this Council extend its thanks to the Rev. Arnold Bode, and the organist and choir of S. Johns Cathedral, for providing music at services of the Council.

The Rev. V. O. Penley read the following

REPORT.

We, the committee, appointed to consider that portion of the Bishop's address referring to the Districts of Presbyters, most heartily concur in the desire therein embodied, to promote missionary zeal in the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese.

We would respectfully recommend that the Clergy keep prominently before their congregations Canon VII., of the Canons of the Diocese, believing that by so doing the end in view would be attained.

Your committee respectfully suggest that a separate account of such services be rendered in their annual Parochial report.

Respectfully submitted,

V. O. PENLEY,
B. W. BONELL,
C. W. DOUGLAS,
H. IVES,
M. LINDSEY.

On motion of the Rev. G. B. Norton it was Resolved, that we are pleased to see the face of the Rev. Francis Byrne and to hear his voice in the ninety-fourth year of his age.

The Rev. W. H. Haupt presented the following resolutions which were adopted:

Resolved, that the Bishop appoint a committee of three Clergymen to confer with Mr. Degge regarding the future of the Colorado Churchman, who with Mr. Degge shall be a Board of Control of said paper, and nothing shall be published in said paper without the approval of said Committee. And be it further

Resolved, that if Mr. Degge agrees to this agreement we shall on our part, endeavor to further the interests of said publication, by reporting items of interest and by endeavoring to increase the subscriptions to said paper. And be it further

Resolved, that if the publisher of the Western Churchman does not accept this oversight, he shall cease to claim the said paper to be the official organ of this Diocese.

The Chairman appointed as such committee, the Rev. Messrs. Haupt, Kramer and Cone.

It was voted that the thanks of the Council be tendered to the ladies who have provided the daily luncheons and other entertainment for Clergy and Delegates.

The minutes were read and approved.

The Rt. Rev. the Bishop addressed words of encouragement to the Clergy and the Laity present, closing with prayers.

The Council then adjourned sine die.

Appendix A.

The Bishop's Annual Address.

My Dear Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

Again we meet in Annual Council in Whitsun week, when we are praying, when the whole Church is praying, for the coming down upon us of the Holy Ghost. He presided in the council of the blessed Apostles. May He be with our Council here assembled, and inspire and guide us in our work, to the glory of God, and the well governing of the Church in the Diocese of Colorado. We have met before in this hallowed season. The Clergy must be away from their Parishes, but still the added gain from the associations of Whitsun week and the privilege we may rightly claim of having the Holy Spirit in our midst, to inform, and lead us, and inspire us in our deliberations and labors, is far more than a compensation. Let us yield ourselves to His blessed motions, and cultivate the wisdom and the peace which He alone can impart.

We thank God that none of our Clergy have been removed by death. Four of our Bishops have passed away. Bishop Neely of Maine was, for many years, the elected Chairman of the House of Bishops. He was a learned Canonist, and a wise and efficient administrator, and greatly set forward the growth of the Church in Maine during the thirty-two years of his Episcopate. Bishop Pierce for thirty years served his peculiarly difficult Jurisdiction, as Diocesan Bishop of Arkansas and Missionary Bishop of the Indian Territory. He was a thoughtful, scholarly man, and earnest in spirit to fulfil his great mission. Bishop Gilbert, Coadjutor of Minnesota, was an eminently faithful, energetic and efficient Missionary, and earnestly and effectually supported his Diocesan, who now succeeds to the work, and is able, at least for a time, to dispense with the service of a coadjutor.

Dr. Jackson, Coadjutor Bishop of Alabama, resigned his office, which was at a recent meeting of the House of Bishops accepted. He is said to have been a very eloquent Preacher, a self-denying worker, and a man of ability. He died of pneumonia soon after the acceptance of his resignation.

The Woman's Auxiliary of Colorado has met with a great loss in the death of its Secretary, Mrs. Frederick J. Bancroft, who has been closely identified with the work of the Church in Colorado since her arrival in Denver in 1869, to be a member of Bishop Randall's family. She was a daughter of Mr. Geo. A. Jarvis of Brooklyn, so well known for many generous gifts to Church institutions. Mr. Lyman Thompson, for nineteen years Senior Warden of Holy Trinity Church, Pueblo, was one of our most devout and faithful Laymen.

I consented to the consecration of the Rev. A. L. Williams, D. D., whom, not long ago, I ordained Deacon and Priest, as Bishop Coadjutor of Nebraska; the William L. Gravatt, D. D., as Bishop Coadjutor of West Virginia; the Rev. Sidney Catlin Partridge, D. D., as Bishop of Kyoto in Japan; the Rev. Charles Palmerston Anderson, D. D., as Bishop Coadjutor of Chicago; and the Rev. Robt. Codman, Jr., D. D., as Bishop of Maine.

On S. Barnabas Day, June 11th, in S. Barnabas Church, Denver, I ordained Deacon Mr. Henry B. Smith, now in charge of S. Pauls, Littleton. On the Feast of the Transfiguration, Aug. 6th, in the Church at Evergreen, I ordained Priest the Rev. Charles Winfred Douglas. On S. Thomas Day, Dec. 21st, in the Church of the Ascension, Pueblo, I ordained William Henry Haupt Priest, and on the Fourth Sunday after the Epiphany, Jan. 28th, 1900, in Trinity Memorial Church, I ordained Benjamin John Fitz, Deacon.

On Wednesday, Sept. 13th. I consecrated Grace Church, Buena Vista, the debt of $1,000 having been paid, largely by the instrumentality of a good layman, Mr. Morley.

I have preached 66 times, made 89 addresses, baptized 4 infants, attended two funerals, and some 35 committee meetings, Guilds, Missionary Teas, etc., and Convocations at Grace Church, Buena Vista; Holy Trinity, Pueblo; Emmanuel, Denver; All Saints, Denver, and Trinity Memorial, Denver.

The noonday services at the Lyceum Theatre on Curtis street, arranged by the St. Andrews Brotherhood men of Denver, for Lent, were well attended daily by about 100 persons, on the average, more of them men than women, giving much encouragement for their continuation. The Clericus, held semi-monthly at the Albany Hotel for the winter and spring, was exceedingly interesting and profitable.

The hospital has been pursuing quietly and efficiently its successful work, its patients generally filling the building. The head nurse, Dr. Jeffrey, resigned her position, which was filled most successfully for over a year by Miss Pridham, until failing health compelled her to leave. The place has recently been well filled by Miss S. L. Rutley, from a church hospital in Duluth, Minn. It is very important that the head nurse should be an earnest Church woman, as she can do much to promote attendance upon the service, and a religious influence in the house.

The guarantee fund of some $3,000 supplements the income. This, with the constant interest and help of friends, prevents its falling behind in its expenses. On St. Lukes Day, eleven nurses were awarded diplomas of graduation. There are eight in the present graduating class.

The Ladies' Aid Society deserves great credit for its efficient assistance in carrying on the work of the hospital. The members are to be congratulated for reducing the mortgage by $1,500, made possible by a gift of $500 from Mrs. Kassler, a member of the board. The mortgage debt is now $17,500.

The Rev. Dan Lewis is the Chaplain, and celebrates the Holy Communion every Tuesday morning at 6.45. He visits the Hospital frequently, at least every week, to attend to the spiritual needs of the patients and bring them spiritual consolation and help. Mr. J. B. Whitehead, the lay reader, holds service every morning at 6:45 and on Sunday afternoons at 4. Since he has been officiating Sundays at Greeley, Mr. Hudston and Mr. Jennens have very acceptably taken this Sunday service. The Hospital is excellently fulfilling its function as a religious and Church Institution. The Home has been visited from time to time. It is a most noble and beneficial institution.

Mr. Coleman still remains in charge as Principal of Jarvis Hall. He takes it at his own risk, employing the teachers, and meeting all expenses. It has kept up in numbers very well, and it seems to be a success financially as well as in other respects. A year ago last January, it was determined to secure for it and Montclair a Pastor. We did not succeed for a year in finding the suitable man. At last, on January 28th, Mr. Benj. J. Fitz, an instructor in the University of Colorado, was ordained Deacon and put in charge. He is received very cordially by the community, and will doubtless ultimately bring the school under his Pastoral care. St. Lukes Church will thus fulfill the purpose for which it was primarily erected, and share the expenses of religious worship and services.

Wolfe Hall has been doing well. In the middle of the year a change became necessary. Mrs. Streater asked to be relieved of the Principalship, and surrendered her lease of the school. Miss Margaret Kerr, of New York, was called to the position. She is showing great ability in managing the finances, as also in directing the educational work. The school is now more than meeting expenses.

Matthews Hall, our Theological School, has had a prosperous year. Messrs. Smith and Fitz have been ordained Deacons, and are, under the faculty of the school, continuing their studies for Priests orders. Messrs. Haupt and Schofield, though ordained, are glad to continue post-graduate studies. Mr. Percival Sargent Smith of Bowen, San Luis Valley, reads service regularly at Monte Vista. He was in Trinity College, Hartford, for three years. The Faculty of Matthews Hall will direct his studies. Mr. Leonard K. Smith, a candidate from Golden, has not of late been heard from.

The Clergy should, from time to time, call the attention of their people to the need of more Clergy, and endeavor to direct their young men to the proper studies, when, if in college, they should take the Classical, and not merely the scientific courses, so that, if they should be moved to study for the Ministry, they may be prepared to become candidates for Holy Orders at once. An occasional sermon on this whole subject would be profitable. Is it quite creditable that our larger Parishes should be doing nothing to replenish the Ministry? Every good Parish should have at least one young man constantly pursuing his studies with this end in view.

Several of our Clergy have taken the daily opening services at the State University, and seem to have given good satisfaction. They are becoming more interested, and are having a good influence on the students. We desire to build an annex or Church House on our five acres of land, which is really a part of the Campus. We have something toward this in land, not money, in Denver, called the Hon. Seth Low trust. I suggest that a Committee be appointed to draw up a statement and appeal, for the means to erect a suitable building.

I pass on now to review the clerical changes. In the Northern and also in the Southern Deanery these have been but few. In Denver, Emmanuel has become vacant, by the resignation of Mr. Schofield, who is called to S. Andrews, Cripple Creek. The Rev. William James Moody, accepting school work in Toronto, gave up S. Peters last summer, and after a short vacancy, the Rev. Joseph DeForest, called from Oregon, became Rector, in November. The Rev. Mr. Bode came as assistant at S. Johns Cathedral last autumn. The Rev. Mr. Fitz took charge of S. Lukes, Montclair, the first of Feb. Two months ago, the Rev. Mr. Henry resigned Trinity Church, Greeley, which is now supplied by Lay-reader Whitehead. S. John's, Boulder, called the Rev. E. W. Sibbald from Canon City in January. The Rev. Dr. Hills was supplying S. Paul's, Central City for six months or more, and left at the end of the year. The Rev. H. B. Smith was sent to Livermore on his Ordination, and in October was appointed to Littleton. The Rev. James Robinson from Ontario, was settled at Central City in February. The Rev. Mr. Heal came from Alamosa to Longmont in the fall. The Rev. Arthur H. Taft, on May 1st, became Rector of S. Stephens, Colorado Springs. All of the Clergy are pursuing their work with success. In the Pueblo Deanery, the Rev. Gustave Lehman has been helping Mr. Newton, at S. James, Bessemer, the whole year. The Rev. Mr. Fleming returned to the Rectorship of Leadville in December, from his Chaplaincy of the first Colorado Regiment in the Philippines, where he won much credit for the Diocese and State. He is resuming his work with much vigor, after his long absence. The Rev. Wm. Taylor Douglas came to Alamosa to take charge of S. Thomas Church and its missions, in November. On the first of December, the Rev. H. C. Eastman was sent to Victor. Last month, the Rev. Mr. Schofield took charge of S. Andrews, Cripple Creek. The Rev. Geo. Rogers, whose health has been restored, after more than a year's residence in Montclair, was elected Rector of Christ Church, Canon City, and assumed charge about the beginning of the year. The Rev. Reginald S. Radcliffe resigned in March and has left us, which is greatly to be regretted. He has secured a Chapel (S. Marys) at Aguilar, at which he has supplied personally nearly all of the services hitherto. He has held occasional services at Walsenburg, where we ought to have a church. These places fall naturally to the Rector of Trinidad, who has not, however, been able as yet, to see his way to undertake to supply them. Arrangements have been made and the funds mostly obtained to build a church at Fort Lupton. This station will be connected with Greeley, as the trains run so that one service can be held every Sunday. Livermore was filled last summer by the Rev. H. B. Smith, now of Littleton. Failing to secure a Priest for three or four months, the Rev. Mr. Crowe, of Fort Collins, will undertake this mission in connection with his Parish work.

The Consecration of Grace Church, Buena Vista, was an event of great importance, made possible by the Rector and interested laymen. They are now building a Rectory on Church lots, secured by me many years ago, in a beautiful situation.

The Rev. Mr. Grimes has paid off a debt on Trinity Memorial Church, incurred some seventeen years ago, of $2,500, so that this Church is now at length free, and could be consecrated. The Rev. Mr. Eastman, in the six months he has been in charge of Victor, has raised $1063.77, and built a four roomed Rectory, introduced electric lights, and choir seats, furniture and other improvements. The Rev. Mr. Penley and his people have beautified the Church and grounds at Golden at an expense of several hundred dollars.

At Canon City, the enlarged Vestry room will accommodate the infant class of the Sunday School, and will serve other good purposes. It is a great pity that the new Church, so much needed and so long talked of, was not built two or three years ago.

Grace Church, Colorado Springs, had two important gifts, an oak Pulpit and a brass eagle Lectern, and the debt on the Rectory property has been entirely liquidated.

Como, and the places in South Park, may be supplied from Breckinridge. The Rev. W. H. Haupt has too many places for one man in the lower Arkansas Valley. It is desirable to secure a man to help him. A church must be built at Rocky Ford, where $1,000,000 is being expended in a beet sugar factory, which, it is said, will double the population of the place, also at Lamar, where lots have been given, and at Holly, and two or three other places some work should be done soon.

I have been able to secure some money for needed Church purposes, though newer missionary jurisdictions must be expected to get most of the help extended by liberal givers. I have given the Rev. Mr. Gunn, for his new church and rectory of brick, at Florence, both very excellent improvements, $300; for the Church to be built at Fort Lupton, I sent Dr. S. Hubbell, Warden, $200; to Grace Church, Buena Vista, towards building a rectory $300; and for the rectory at Victor $25. I have for Rocky Ford $200 and for Lamar $200 to aid in building; also $100 for the Church at Holly.

The District Presbyter System has not been thoroughly tested among us. It is that of placing the missions of a district under the care of the leading Rector. Your attention is called again to Canon VII. Every Rector is to give not fewer than four Sundays to ministrations in his District. Let this be done, and we can then cover more ground, and advance the mission work, supplying mission points, and lay people scattered abroad where no missionary can be supported.

You will note the paucity of our candidates for Holy Orders. I should add a word as to the small number of boys and men in the Confirmation Classes. The fact is truly alarming, if duly considered. There is no reason why as many boys as girls should not be confirmed and be communicants. Boys are just as susceptible as girls to religious influences. They make just as good members for the church. The trouble is that mothers (fathers, too) and Pastors and Sunday school teachers do not sufficiently sympathize with them and do not take pains with them and interest them. Why cannot boys be organized and brought into Church social relations? Why can they not be kept under instruction in classes? Why can't our Sunday Schools be made more interesting to boys and young men and hold them to the Church when grown? Why should not Pastors and teachers keep in touch with boys, and be interested in their studies, pastimes and recreations? A reform, in all these respects will, I am sure, be greatly helpful to boys in their religious life and bring larger numbers of them into living communion with the Church.

The suggestions of the Rev. Geo. Rogers at the last Council, then a Canon of the Diocese of Winnipeg, in regard to an increase of Missionary Offerings of the Diocese were most valuable, and gave an impetus to this important branch of our work which should not be allowed to diminish. The committee on that subject, appointed by the Council, consisting of the Bishop and Messrs. Grimes, Jennings and Rogers, with the Archdeacon, met in August and took action, endorsing the plan suggested, and printed the necessary facts and statistics, to be distributed among the Parishes and Missions. It was agreed that Canon Rogers should visit these, so far as able, and present the facts and needs of our Missions, distributing cards for individual subscriptions. The Archdeacon and Clergy were to be called upon to help him by supplementing his efforts. So far as he was able to visit personally, as will be seen by the report of the Treasurer, the offerings have been more than doubled. Clergymen, who pledged their congregations fifteen and twenty dollars, report fifty and sixty raised. Only one considerable Parish refused the offer of a deputation, (and has done thus far but very little, compared with its ability.) It is to be hoped that the effort will be continued, and that all or nearly all of the Parishes will be visited, by making exchanges of pulpits among the Clergy, and that all may have offered them the opportunity to give for the Missions of the Diocese, thus swelling the volume of the contributions for the greatest of the objects for which we are asked to give. The result of such efforts must be to stimulate the liberality of our people in the support of the Church in all departments. It is a wonderful help in all directions to show the people what they can do, to stir up in them a degree of pride, an "esprit de corps," a spirit of emulation, and, finding that they are not impoverished, but their hearts are enlarged, and their desires to accomplish the good results the Church aims at intensified, they get absorbed in the Church's work, and gladly give more than they had thought possible. Selfish objects are forgotten, and they learn to live for Christ and His cause, and the good they can do in the world. There are some singularly effective examples of this increased liberality in giving for Parish purposes, through the responses for Diocesan Missions, called forth by Canon Rogers instructions and appeals.

There is great need of a much larger Episcopate Fund, especially if we are to have a Bishop Coadjutor. The Treasurer of this fund has shown great skill and ability in its management. The fund has rather increased than suffered impairment. Its income is somewhat larger than ever before, the rentals being better than in former years. But still the income is not sufficient really to support one Bishop. It would be as good a time as any now to make a strenuous effort to secure money subscriptions for this most important object in the Church.

Our Diocesan Board of Missions needs some revision. It is now the Cathedral Chapter, or what might be called the greater Chapter, embracing all of the Chapter Members in and outside of Denver. The intention seems to have been that the lesser Chapter should do all the business of the Chapter so far as relates to the Schools, Institutions and properties, that are, in a sense, local, though of Diocesan importance and benefit, and that the whole Chapter, with full Diocesan representation, should be summoned at least once a quarter to deliberate and act upon the Missions of the Diocese, and other like general objects. Those meetings were to be held at the Cathedral on or near the times of certain Feast days. The Canons of the Diocese were to preach in turn, and the business was to be confined to the consideration of Diocesan Missions, appointments of Missionaries, assignment of stipends, etc. We held one or two such general Chapter meetings, but practically they have not been summoned. The general Chapter meets monthly or oftener, and the business is not distributed as was designed and expected. Practically, there is no greater and lesser Chapter, and the Missions of the Diocese are not much considered or acted on in the Chapter meetings. Has not the time come for the establishment of a real, effective Board of Missions? It should have a large clerical, and especially lay representation, and should meet at least quarterly and as often as needed, and do nothing else but the work of a Board. What relations it should have to the Chapter, whether it can be in a sense a greater Chapter, or should be independent, are subjects for consideration. Our whole Cathedral System, which seemed to be wisely devised, is now in abeyance. Whether it can be carried out, as intended, with S. Johns Church as the Cathedral, and its present Rector as Dean, is a matter of doubt. The Chapter, though now entirely without Cathedral representation, is a most important body, and attends effectively to most important functions and duties. The Chapter might, if so disposed, build and manage a new Cathedral. I suggest that a Committee be appointed to consider and report upon a Board of Missions and its work and relations, as herein suggested, and also upon the Cathedral and Cathedral system.

I desire to say something on the subject of "The Spirit of Missions," the Missionary organ of the whole Church. It is wonderfully improved under the present management. One now finds it interesting and is inclined to read every word.

Cannot something be done to get it into general circulation throughout the Diocese? My impression is that there are not more than twenty-five copies taken in Denver. Probably there are not more than twice this number taken in the whole Diocese. This is not as it should be. Several thousand should be subscribed for. Will not the Clergy make it a point of honor to tell their people how greatly it has improved, what an excellent magazine it is, and how worthy of being circulated and read. Every Church family ought to subscribe for it. It ought to be read by every member of the Church. How can people be expected to support our Missions, unless they are informed about them in detail, and about the whole field, which is the world? The cost is but a dollar a year, and it is worth to every Christian that reads it any number of three dollar monthlies. Take and read these if you like and have time, but don't neglect to read, month by month, this great missionary organ of the Church. Cannot someone be appointed in every Parish, through the agency of the Clergyman, to solicit subscribers? Multitudes will thank us for the suggestion, if it is carried out.

As to the Western Churchman, doubtless its publisher would rejoice to have it generally circulated, and thus to secure the means to make it the organ of Church facts, and Church opinions throughout these Western States contiguous to Colorado. It would be really a great thing to have a good Church paper to represent us. Would it not be well for every friend of the Church to take hold of it, to promote its wide circulation, and to help to prevent its being localized, to write for it and make it what it ought to be, a general, representative Church paper? Mr. Degge has done exceedingly well, considering the conditions and environment here in Denver.

The past year, we have had, notwithstanding few confirmations in some places, and none in others, a considerably increased number in all. I have been enabled to visit most of the congregations. The four or five nearest Bishops will doubtless visit and confirm for me, as has been done by Bishops Graves and Leonard, should I find it necessary to ask them, but I hope for the present to go on with the work. We lament the departure of the Archdeacon. The laity were mostly fond of him; the Clergy regret his leaving us, and also the reasons for the same, so far as known. May he find, where he has gone, a field, where he can accomplish more for Christ and the Church.

And now, in conclusion, let me urge the Clergy and the laity also, so far as in them lies, to be more earnest in their work, more diligent in visiting, more sympathizing in their intercourse, more loyal and loving to the Church, bought with the blood of Christ. I cannot expect to be with you many years longer. Growing infirmities give me constant warning. Supplement my lack of service by intensifying your own. Your work is good and effective—let no one defame it. It is Christ's work, and He will prosper it, according to your faith and love and loyal endeavors for Him.

REPORT OF THE HOME.

Rt. Rev. Bishop and Members of the Council:

The Home has during the past year been quite as successful as in any year of its existence. No new buildings have been added, but an ice plant has been added with a capacity of 3,500 lbs. a day, thus adding both convenience and economy. There have been repairs and refurnishing at large cost, and the demands in the line of sanitation must always be heavy, so long as the Institution does the work in the manner in which it is purposed to be operated. There is no institution in the country where the same thorough fumigating, sterilizing and cleaning are practiced. This is not my opinion, but is the testimony of many men who are connected with institutions in our country. The same order and cleanliness are practiced in the coal and boiler rooms as in the kitchens and dining rooms.

The number of guests has been greater for a longer period this year than before, and the dining room and kitchen need very much to be enlarged to meet the increased demands.

The financial condition is very satisfactory. There are no outstanding bills, although the overdraft is considerably larger than last year. This has been fully met since the first of May by two friends, although the gifts came too late to appear in the report.

The Maintenance Fund has not increased, but there is encouragement for a considerable enlargement this year.

No effort has been made for the Chapel, for my hands have been full, and I have had all I could do. For five months I was separated from my work; although I was in it, I was hardly of it, because of the severe illness which I suffered, and of which you all have knowledge. It was a very great source of help and comfort to receive, as I did, the many words of sympathy from almost all of the clergy, and to know that day by day through it all, so many of you presented your petitions to God before the altar for me. It was all a blessing to Mrs. Oakes and myself, and we were profoundly grateful. Since my return to my work I have found many demands, more than I have sometimes had strength to respond to.

Daily Prayer has been said at The Home. Full Morning Prayer and Sermon each Sunday, and a celebration of the Holy Communion each second and fourth Sunday morning.

The number of deaths has been considerably larger this year than last.

There has been a greater satisfaction in the work, and a greater thankfulness that God has permitted me to minister to the sick. Not all have returned to give thanks, but enough have done so to make me feel it has been blessed. And since renewed life and strength have been mercifully granted me, my desire is that with renewed spiritual life I may serve Him and His in the place He has been pleased to place me.

Yours obediently and sincerely,

FREDERICK W. OAKES.

DENVER, COLO., June 1, 1900.

To the Annual Council, Diocese of Colorado:

We have the honor to make the following report of the work done by S. Lukes Hospital for the fiscal year ending October 1st, 1899:

Patients remaining in Hospital October 1st, 1898...	46
Patients admitted during the year.....	893
Non paying patients	167
Part paying patients.....	82
Males, 591; Females, 348.....	939
Churchmen	72
Denominations and unclassified	867
Cost of free patients $8,642.94.

Our equipment has generally been taxed to its full capacity, and we cannot expect to do much more with our present accommodations. The demand for a larger number of moderate priced private rooms seems as great as ever, and we have been obliged to turn away many a patient who would have been glad to find a haven in our hospital. This state of affairs naturally diminishes our income and thus necessitates a curtailment of our charity work.

Our financial standing is better than it was a year ago. Mainly through the efforts of the Hon. Moses Hallett, a guarantee fund is being raised, subscribers to which pledge themselves to pay a certain stated amount annually for three years. It has been a gratification to the Executive Committee to be able to pay off accumulated debts and to be assured that possible excess of expenditure over income will, in some measure at least, be provided for. It is hoped that the Guaranty Fund may be largely increased, in order that we may have the money for much needed repairs and improvements, which continue a greater necessity from year to year in the natural wear and tear of the hospital.

Much praise is due to the Ladies' Aid Society for their work. The Ladies have, by their efforts, raised funds for the payment of the interest on the Hospital Mortgage of $19,000; have furnished many needed supplies and, in innumerable other ways, have been of great assistance.

In February, the Young Ladies' Guild of S. Johns Cathedral endowed a Free Ward Bed. We have also received, from Bishop Spalding, a donation of eleven lots in Schinners Addition, which will be held until such time as they can be sold to advantage.

The work of the Training School for Nurses has been satisfactory, and there is a perceptible advance, both in the character of the work done and the personnel of the workers, who show a constantly improving individual interest in their duties. Under the new rules, nurses will be required to serve for three years, instead of two years, as heretofore, before obtaining their diplomas.

Only those in close touch with the Hospital can appreciate the large amount of gratuitous work done by the members of the Medical and Surgical Staff and the value of their advice in matters pertaining to Hospital affairs.

In conclusion, we sincerely hope, that more general interest will be taken in S. Lukes Hospital during the coming year; and that an increase in available means will allow the Managers to largely augment the good work of the institution.

For the Board of Managers,

E. A. PETERS, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE VEN. R. S. RADCLIFFE, ARCHDEACON.

I have visited 54 different places, 108 times, 277 services, baptisms 30, confirmations 8, burials 6, marriages 2, Parochial Missions 1, obtained for the Diocese $576.40, travelling 10,300 miles. Have written 674 letters and 588 postal cards, made 1,314 house-to-house calls, attended and took part in two ordinations, visited and addressed four public schools. Have taken part in several Missionary Teas. Gave addresses four times to the Brotherhood of S. Andrew, in different parts of the Diocese, to the A. O. U. W., W. of W., K. P., Odd Fellows, Free Masons and Loyal Mystic Legion of America. I have been able to be present and assist at five G. A. S., Eucharists and Vespers, presided at many Parish and other meetings, present at three meetings of the Cathedral Chapter. Through a mistake in dates, made by the S. Andrews Brotherhood Committee, I was unable to take my three days at the noon-day meetings in Lent. Never before has the Diocese seemed to me so ripe for a "forward movement" as now. May God, who ordereth all things in heaven and earth, abundantly bless this portion of His great Vineyard of the Church, is the devout prayer of one who prays for Colorado's greatest good.

Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary.

The Sixteenth Annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary was held in S. Johns Cathedral Tuesday, June 5, 1900. Morning Prayer was read at 9 o'clock by the Rev. Arnold Bode. A most inspiring sermon was preached by the Rev. George Rogers of Canon City, lately Archdeacon of Winnipeg, from Mark 14: 8: "She hath done what she could." He showed how much woman owed to Christianity, illustrating this by comparing the condition of woman in heathen countries with what it is in Christian lands. He congratulated our Colorado Auxiliary on the money raised by them last year, which was about one-third of all that was raised by the Board of Missions in the Diocese. He said that the amount given for Diocesan Missions in this Diocese was entirely inadequate to the needs. That in the Diocese in Canada from which he had come, they appropriated $22,000 annually for Diocesan Missions, while our Bishop has only $3,000. But that he had never seen such magnificent results from such a small expenditure of means as in Colorado. The sermon made one feel that it was a privilege to belong to the Woman's Auxiliary, and that every one must press on to greater things for the extension of our Church.

Bishop Spalding celebrated the Holy Communion, assisted by the Rev E. P. Newton of Pueblo, and the Rev. George Rogers. After the services were over and before luncheon, the time was occupied by most interesting addresses from the Missionaries of the Diocese who were present, and who at the Bishop's request, told about the work in their various Missions. The Rev. W. T. Douglas spoke of his work at Alamosa and many adjoining towns in the San Luis Valley. The Rev. J. T. Crowe spoke of the Mission at Livermore, which he was carrying on in connection with his work as Rector of S. Lukes, Fort Collins. The Rev. Gustav Lehman spoke of S. Marys Mission among the colored people at Pueblo; and the Rev. W. H. Haupt spoke of his numerous Mission points, La Junta, Las Animas, Manzanola and others, far too much work for one man. The Rev. H. C. Eastman gave a most encouraging account of the work at Victor, where a Church and Rectory have been furnished since he went there. The Bishop said he had received a telegram saying the Rev. James McLaughlin of Pennsylvania, would take this important work, which Mr. Eastman was obliged to resign on account of his health, the altitude being too great for him to remain.

The Rev. J. W. Gunn gave an equally encouraging report from the Church at Florence, and the Rev. J. W. Heal spoke of the work at Longmont, and the Rev. Benjamin Fitz of the prospects for S. Lukes, Montclair.

The Rev. J. H. Edwards of Chicago, then made a short address, and this very interesting meeting closed with prayer and the Benediction by the Bishop.

A bountiful luncheon was served by the Cathedral ladies in the Crypt.

At 2 p. m. the members of the Auxiliary assembled in the Chapel to hear the Annual Reports and transact other business. Mrs. McCrillis acted as Secretary pro. tem. The roll was called and 116 members representing 15 Parishes and 7 Missions, responded. There were also a number of the Clergy and several visitors present.

Minutes of the last annual meeting were read by Mrs. Milo A. Smith and approved.

Mrs. Spalding made a most interesting address welcoming all most cordially. She alluded tenderly to the three faithful members who had "entered into rest" during the past year. She reported that in 1884, $78.36 were raised and six boxes filled; and in 1899 and 1900, $533 and boxes to the amount of $1,000 were given and the contributions to the United Offering was $347. The pledges, $566 for the last year were paid, the actual amount received being more than this.

It seemed desirable that some changes in the Constitution should be made, an altar department added, $1.00 per year being paid from each Guild.

In the "Babies' Branch" she recommended that the money be divided between General and Diocesan Missions, and the Diocesan share be for a cot at S. Lukes Hospital.

S. Lukes Hospital is in a very prosperous condition, but some additions are very much needed; viz.: a laundry, nurses' home and an additional wing for patients.

The California Auxiliary noted for its strength, zeal and members, has a central fund and special pledges made in addition to this. The Spirit of Missions should be read constantly and faithfully by all.

The report of the monthly meetings during the year was read by Mrs. McCrillis, who had kindly taken the work of Mrs. Streeter after her resignation January 1, 1900.

There were eleven monthly meetings and three special ones, making fourteen in all, so that all the Churches but one in Denver were represented.

The Treasurer's report was read and approved, followed by the Corresponding Secretary's report which was approved.

The reports of the Junior Auxiliary and the "Babies' Branch" were next read by Miss Brent, and by Mrs. Oakes; and last, that of the Church Periodical Club by Mrs. Higby, all showing an increasing interest in the work.

Then the pledges for the coming year were made, amounting to $500, and several Parishes have not yet reported.

The following amendments to the Constitution were proposed and adopted, viz.:

ARTICLE 2. Amended to read "the Missions of the Church" Diocesan, Domestic and Foreign.

ARTICLE 10. There shall be an Altar Department whose object shall be to give Chancel Furnishings for any Church needing such articles. For this purpose every Altar Guild in the Diocese is asked to contribute $1.00 yearly.

ARTICLE 11. Every Parish branch shall make an Annual Pledge for the Bishop's Auxiliary Fund for Diocesan Missions and central expenses, the Bishop's Auxiliary Fund not to be less than $500 annually.

ARTICLE 12. After the stated pledges are provided for, special pledges for other objects may be given.

ARTICLE 13. An Auditing Committee of two persons, to be appointed by the President shall examine the accounts and vouchers of the Diocesan Treasurer, and report result at the annual meeting.

ARTICLE 15. In case of vacancy in any office by death or removal, the same may be filled by the Board of Managers until the next annual meeting.

ARTICLE 16. This Constitution shall only be amended at an annual meeting and by the advice and with the consent of the Bishop.

The election of officers was next in order.

The President appointed a Nominating Committee, Mrs. Bell of Manitou, Miss Comstock of Denver, and Mrs. Marbourg of Pueblo, who reported the following ticket, which was unanimously elected, and the Secretary cast the vote.

President, Mrs. J. F. Spalding, 2011 Lincoln Avenue, Denver.

A letter was read from Miss Emery, General Secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Reports of work in various Parishes were made.

Mrs. Robison of Canon City, told how the ladies raised money there for Missions by baking cakes and other dainties every Saturday.

Mrs. Bonell of Manitou, told of the work in the Girls Guild there.

Mrs. Fulton of Boulder, and Mrs. Crowe of Fort Collins, also gave a pleasant talk about the work in their respective Parishes. After this the Benediction was most impressively pronounced by Father Byrne.

Respectfully submitted,

ANNA M. WILLIAMS,

Recording Secretary Woman's Auxiliary.

REPORT OF JUNIOR AUXILIARY.

Before presenting the report of work accomplished during the past year by the Colorado Branch of the Junior Auxiliary, it might be well to sketch very briefly and imperfectly an outline of what that work is meant to be.

Above all, it is distinctly Missionary, each Parish branch under the direction of its Rector is entirely free to choose its own line of work, whether it be Domestic, Foreign or Diocesan, and to do it in its own way, the only restriction placed by the Board of Missions being that it must be Missionary work, and of necessity Episcopal Missionary work. At the close of the year each Parochial Branch sends through its Secretary a report to the Diocesan Secretary, who in her turn, reports to the Board of Missions in New York.

In many Parishes in the west, where the Church is struggling to maintain a hardly gained foothold, it seems that all that can be given, either in money or work, is so urgently needed at home that it is almost an impossibility even to find interest in outside wants. In regard to this, the General Secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary writes thus: "The primary motive of Mission work is an unselfish love going out to serve others, and the upbuilding of one's own Parish or Mission brings to us the very vital necessities of our own spiritual life. I think being Auxiliary to the Board of Missions, it is our duty to keep the line between Parochial and Missionary work quite distinct. If on that account we are unable to report as large results it is perfectly immaterial. Of course, in a poor Mission the people have to bend their chief energies to the development of its life, but it will be an added blessing to them (which they cannot afford to lose) if at the same time they remember those in other poor, weak or heathen places, in their thoughts, their prayers and such gifts as they can make."

Owing to a recent decision of the Board of Missions, the Sunday School Auxiliary (which was organized in Colorado through the influence of the Woman's Auxiliary,) can no longer report its work, through the Junior Department, but begins an independent life of its own and has its own report. However, it seems only just to report this year the work (with the exception of the Lenten offering,) accomplished by two Parishes, both of which organized under the name of the Junior Auxiliary.

Of the branches reporting, it is only fair to state that the Sunshine Circle of Epiphany, Denver, has only been organized very lately, and though the members have been working for an Indian school, they have no finished work to report.

S. Georges, Leadville, reports that for good reasons they have not been able to carry on the work of the Junior Auxiliary but promise better things for next year.

S. Johns Cathedral, Denver, reports a Sunday School Auxiliary as does S. Andrews, Cripple Creek.

Turning to the future, it seems reasonable to hope that another year may find in every Colorado parish a branch of the Junior Auxiliary, each doing earnestly and prayerfully its part in the extension of Christ's kingdom.

REPORT OF CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB.

The work of the "Church Periodical Club" is so vast and the immense field over which it might be extended and the good to be derived so great, that it is almost appalling and at times discouraging. Yet, in looking over the past few years and understanding its growth, there is something of an encouragement to begin this new year with renewed zeal. We often feel that there is little interest taken in this work among our church people; it must be simply because they know nothing about it. Can there not be awakened interest this year? Why can it not be recognized more fully as a part of the great missionary work of the church? To be sure, it is a little more trouble to fold, address and mail paper or magazine than to toss it into your waste paper basket, but the object is such a good one—to supply clergy and missionaries in remote parts of our country with such periodicals and other literary matter as might be useful to them in their work. For nearly twelve years the literature from this club has been a great boon in many a home, a constant feast. We hear of a few who have banded together for the purpose of circulating good literature by writing on the margin of a periodical, "Do not keep this after reading; pass on to some friend, with the same request."

The late Mrs. Mortimer Fargo, founder of the Church Periodical Club, felt the great need of this work while spending some time in the west, and made a solemn promise that on her return to the east she would gather and distribute literature among the clergy and people of the west who were starving and suffering for it. As she said to a friend, "God put me there to see it; what can I do but strain every nerve to relieve it." Think of a clergyman who has not had a new book for years; any reading matter must be of value. Another acknowledged a package sent whose only writing paper was two old newspaper wrappers neatly cut to the regulation size.

One point of great importance in this work is sending the periodicals regularly. Sometimes they are sent for two or three months, then dropped for the same length of time or for the remainder of the year, which is most discouraging.

On New Year's eve our dear librarian of S. Johns Cathedral, Mrs. Anna Palmer, was taken from us who loved her. Always true and faithful to her church, ever ready with heart and hand for any work which came from it to do, so in this work of the Church Periodical Club she took a deep interest, grieving that she could not do more. In January, at one of the meetings of the Cathedral Aid Society, Mrs. Henry Sewall was appointed to fill the place as librarian.

The following is the list of periodicals sent from this diocese:

 M. J. RULAND.
 DR. M. J. BURNHAM.

Mr. S. F. Rathvon read the report of the Finance Committee.

REPORT.

The Committee on Finance beg leave to submit the following concerning the several reports submitted to them:

FIRST. Concerning Jarvis Hall they find that there is an indebtedness in the sum of $10,500 for interest accumulated, and that The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company is entitled to charge interest on this sum. In addition there is a note of $1,300 due the bank, made by the Bishop and Chapter, bearing interest at 8 per cent per annum, representing money borrowed to pay the interest on the mortgage indebtedness of $35,000 for the past year. The Jarvis Hall property is exempt from taxation and under contract with Canon Rogers the sum of $1,500 will be paid as a yearly rental for the school property, which sum of $1,500 will be applied to the payment of interest on the mortgage of $35,000. This mortgage bears interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, making an annual interest charge of $2,100. The $1,300 loan bears interest at eight per cent, making an annual charge of $104; the insurance charge is $200 per annum. During the five years contract with Canon Rogers therefore, there will be an annual deficit of $904, for which there is no provision under the contract with Canon Rogers, nor any resource in possession of the Chapter. Your committee therefore recommend that the Council take action to raise funds to meet this annual deficit of $904. It is believed that if the Council will raise $5,250, The Mutual Benefit Company will accept that sum in full payment of the indebtedness of $10,500 accumulated interest, and we therefore recommend that the Council take the necessary steps to raise this amount, viz: $5,250, and it is the opinion of the committee that unless this is done a condition of insolvency seems impending over the Hall.

SECOND. Concerning the Jarvis Endowment Fund for Theological Education. Your committee reports that this fund is entirely invested in real estate, the greater part of which is unimproved and unproductive. In consequence, this fund is accumulating an annual deficit of about $500, which is gradually eating up the principal of the trust. The income of this fund amounts to about $1,280, while the expenses, consisting of taxes, $1,574.98; repairs $138; commissions, $69; insurance, $24, make a total expense charge of $1,844.98, or an annual deficit in the fund of $525.98. Your committee would recommend that the real estate belonging to this fund be sold and the proceeds invested in a way that would produce an income instead of a deficit. We regret further to report that this fund has an indebtedness in the sum of $8,966.09, of which amount $1,700 is due the trust known as The Diocesan Library Fund, and $5,477.15 of bills payable held by Bishop Spalding. Both these sums, amounting to $7,177.15 have been bearing interest, due and unpaid, amounting up to this time, to a very considerable sum, but how much your committee has been unable to ascertain.

THIRD. The committee is pleased to be able to report that the Seth Low trust, although invested in property that is mortgaged to the extent of $24,000, yields a net annual income of about $800.

FOURTH. The Church Sites trust bears an annual liability of $68.30 for taxes without any resource to meet the liability.

FIFTH. Concerning Wolfe Hall's finances. Your committee beg to say that the report made yesterday to the Council by Mr. A. D. Parker was so full, satisfactory and encouraging, that they do not deem it necessary to go into the matter any further.

SIXTH. Of the Episcopate fund your committee are gratified to report that there has been no impairment of the endowment fund during the past year, notwithstanding there has been gross neglect by the Missions and Parishes in the payment of their annual assessment. Of a total assessment of $2,414.40 for 1901, but $634.07, a little more than one-fourth, has been paid up to May 1st. Moreover on that date there was still unpaid of the assessment of the preceding year $578.28, making a total of unpaid assessment on May 1, for the years 1900 and 1901, $2,358.61. In consequence of this the Treasurer of the Episcopate fund was unable to pay more than $4,500 of the Bishop's annual salary of $6,000, which amount however, the Bishop accepted in full for all arrearage of salary, which amounted to something like $15,000.

It appears to your committee from a careful examination of the several reports submitted that one fund only, viz.: The Seth Low trust produces an income in excess of the annual expense charge of the said several funds. In comparing the reports of the Bishop and Chapter of this year with that of preceding year, your committee was unable to find in this year's report any mention of the five acres contiguous to the Campus of the University of Colorado at Boulder which was enumerated in last years report under the head of "Statement of Properties held in Trust by the Bishop and Chapter of the Cathedral of S. John the Evangelist, Denver, Colorado."

The Secretary read the following report of the committee on that part of the Bishop's address relating to a Bishop Coadjutor.

REPORT.

The committee on that part of the Bishop's address with reference to a Coadjutor, respectfully report that they are all agreed that the Bishop should have the help of a Coadjutor; and they feel, when they remember Bishop Spalding's long and arduous labors, his present illness, and in the midst of it, his solicitude for the progressive life of the Diocese, that a Coadjutor should certainly be provided this year. The principal difficulty seems to be the providing of the Coadjutor's salary, and as the solution of this matter is in the hands of another committee, we can only urge the Council to act at once on any favorable recommendation that may be made.

J. H. HOUGHTON,
E. P. NEWTON,
BENJ. BREWSTER,
A. D. PARKER,
S. F. RATHVON,
D. RUBIDGE.

And

Resolved, That the delegation of this Diocese to the General Convention be instructed to submit this action to the Convention.

The resolution was adopted.

The Rev. E. W. Sibbald submitted the following resolution:

The President read the following telegram from the Bishop:

My thoughts, best wishes and prayers for the Council.

Mr. W. H. Whitehead made the following report for the Committee on Legislation:

REPORT.

The Committee on Legislation report as follows:

As to the resolution referred to the committee, recommending a change of the Canons, whereby Parishes delinquent in the payment of their assessments shall forfeit their representation in the Council, the committee deem it expedient that such change be made, inasmuch as the power already exists in the Council to deny such representation as occasion therefore may arise.

As to the matter of assessments for the support of the Bishop of the Parishes at Greeley and Fort Collins, and the recommendation to relieve them from such assessments for the future, as well as to remit those already unpaid, your committee reports that Mr. Hunter, formerly of Greeley, and a representative from the Parish of Fort Collins, appeared before the committee and made statements relative to the circumstances under which lump payments were made from these Parishes.

The committee finds that so far as Greeley is concerned, no bargain or contract was made to relieve that Parish from future assessments. As to Fort Collins the committee believes that that Parish should be relieved from assessments in the future by payment of a lump sum, which was paid in fulfillment of such an understanding between the Bishop and Vestry. While it may be, that strictly speaking, such an understanding is illegal, in so far as it would attempt to permanently bind the Council, yet the equitable feature of the matter appeals to the committee. As a settlement of the claim made by these two Parishes, the committee recommends that the present unpaid assessments upon them be remitted upon condition of the agreement on their part that such remission shall be a final settlement and satisfaction of their claim of immunity from assessments by reason of lump sums paid in the past; and that the respective Vestrys of these Parishes communicate to the Secretary of the Council their acquiescence in the settlement above mentioned.

A. B. JENNINGA, Chairman.

The report was accepted.

The Rev. Benj. Bonell read the following report for the Committee on Unfinished Business.

REPORT.

The Committee on Unfinished Business find that the committee appointed to provide a new form of Parochial Reports has been unable to do so, and the committee asks to be continued with power to have said forms provided for use.

B. W. BONELL,

E. P. ARTHUR.

Mr. A. D. Parker moved that the report be not accepted, that the committee be relieved, and that the Rev. E. P. Newton be appointed a committee of one to superintend the printing of the new Parochial Reports. Carried.

Mr. A. D. Parker submitted the following resolution:

Inasmuch as in accordance with Article XX. of the Constitution, the following amendment was submitted at the Council of 1900: It is hereby

Resolved, That Section I., Article IV., of the Constitution, be amended by substituting the words "April 30th" for the words "Easter Monday," so that the article shall read "the conciliar year shall end on April 30th."

The resolution was adopted.

The Rev. F. F. Kramer read the following

The Rev. W. H. Haupt reported as follows for the committee on that part of the Bishop's Address relating to the Western Churchman.

REPORT.

The Committee on that part of the Bishop's Address relating to the "Western Churchman" desires to submit the following report:

The conditions submitted to Mr. Degge were cordially received by him, and the committee has endeavored to make the paper a credit to the Diocese. A more cordial support on the part of the Clergy and Parishes would have made it possible to have given much better results.

That this support may be given the "Western Churchman," we desire and would move that this Council empower the Chairman to appoint a committee with authority to accept the absolute control of the "Western Churchman," editorial and financial, upon such terms as they and Mr. Degge may be able to agree, provided that this Council shall not be responsible for any debts against the "Churchman," past or future.

W. H. HAUPT,
F. F. KRAMER,
BENJ. BREWSTER.

The report was adopted.

The Rev. W. H. Haupt moved that a committee of three be appointed to consider the publication of the Western Churchman. Carried.

The Chairman appointed the Rev. Messrs. Haupt, Ohl and Fitz.

The Rev. George Rogers moved to reconsider the motion of the preceding year in regard to the Episcopate Fund. Lost.

The Rev. George Rogers moved that the Treasurer of the Episcopate Fund be instructed to pay the Bishop on account salary, all the net revenue of said Fund, until the salary reaches the amount of $6,000.

The Rev. P. H. Hickman moved that the motion of Canon Rogers be laid on the table. Carried.

Rev. P. H. Hickman moved an adjournment to the next morning at 9:30. Lost.

The Rev. V. O. Penley read the report of the committee on the State of the Church.

REPORT.

The Committee on the State of the Church respectfully report that in their judgment there is encouraging advance in most lines of the Church's work.

The absence of the Bishop of the Diocese, whose illness we all so deeply deplore, does account for certain of the conditions which might be more satisfactory.

The aid rendered by the visiting and Right Reverend Bishops—Leonard, Graves and Williams, has been most acceptable to the Diocese and we very gratefully acknowledge their invaluable services.

The Baptisms and Confirmations are about as in former years.

A most gratifying reduction of mortgage indebtedness amounting to over $12,000 is reported.

S. Albans, Florence, merits our congratulations in ceasing to be a mission and rising to the dignity and responsibility of self-support.

The example as set by S. Albans is a precedent we hope and expect to be followed by other missions during the coming year.

The report from the schools—Wolfe Hall and Jarvis Hall—is very gratifying, and we most heartily commend the work done and the moral, intellectual and physical standard thereof.

It would seem that the time is propitious for united effort to lift the debts upon these institutions, freeing them thereby from harassing anxiety and developing their life and usefulness.

We note with regret that instead of there being an increase in Sunday School attendance there has been an appreciable falling off, and we urge upon the Rectors and Parishes to turn the tide the other way.

Your committee having been requested to ascertain the status of the Home as related to the Church, would respectfully state that the Home is deeded to the Bishop and Chapter in trust as a home for consumptives, the Rev. J. W. Oakes to be Superintendent for life.

We consider that the Church is not responsible for the administration of the Home, and a solution of this problem might be the reverting of this fine property to the present management, and we especially invite the consideration of the Council to this question.

We believe the principal work of this Diocese now is to secure adequate means for the support of a Coadjutor Bishop to relieve our present beloved Diocesan in the hour of his old age and infirmity.

We urge upon the people a concentrated effort to bring about this desirable condition.

V. O. PENLEY,
M. B. COLT,
A. O. POINIER.

The report was accepted.

The Rev. J. W. Ohl made the following report for the committee appointed to consider the Western Churchman:

REPORT.

It is the opinion of your committee that if the clergy in all Parishes and Missions will promise their hearty co-operation in the way of securing subscribers and furnishing news items for the columns of the "Western Churchman," that the same may be made a success as the organ of the Diocese, and we recommend that the Council endorse this as the official paper of the Diocese, and continue the present corps of writers, with Dr. Kramer as editor-in-chief. And we ask that the several Rectors and Missionaries pledge their support, and thus show their willingness to further what can be a most admirable aid in Diocesan work.

W. H. HAUPT,
J. W. OHL,
B. J. FITZ.

The recommendation of the committee was adopted.

The Rev. C. H. Marshall read the following

REPORT.

The committee appointed to consider the subject of deceased members, desire to report that they deeply regret the death of the Rev. Thos. Bakes and the sense of our loss is the more accentuated by the remembrance of that regard and affection in which our deceased brother was so widely held. We are naturally in loving sympathy moved to note the increase of death in the ranks of the Church's sons and daughters to express our feelings in the prayer—may the souls of the faithful in the mercy of God rest in peace.

C. H. MARSHALL,
V. O. PENLEY,
J. H. HOUGHTON.

Mr. Arthur Ponsford read the following

REPORT.

Your committee appointed for the purpose of considering whether it would be practicable to hold one or more missionary meetings in this Diocese in the Fall, inviting for such purpose its returning delegates from the General Convention, reports that such a plan is feasible, and recommends that this committee be continued with power to enlarge its membership and with instructions to carry out the plan for which it has been appointed.

H. MARTYN HART,
JOHN H. HOUGHTON,
E. P. NEWTON,
ARTHUR PONSFORD.

On account of my illness and absence of the last few months, the work of Matthews Hall, the Theological School, has been interrupted, but I hope next year, we can carry on that work as it should be done. Professor Hickman has instructed the students periodically. Professors Lewis, Kramer and Jennings have met them and taught them individually. They will do this hereafter in class.

I had thought seriously of asking at this time for the election of a Coadjutor Bishop. Consulting the Standing Committee, to whom I had committed the Diocese, and they thinking it wise to defer this for a year, I concluded to do so in order that a fund for the support of such Bishop might first be raised.

I commend to your consideration the Church Endowment Society, Rev. E. W. Hunter, Secretary. Through this society, if not by direct subscriptions, it would seem possible to secure such a fund as is necessary. I trust the subject will be discussed and action taken in this Council.

I have transferred the Rev. H. C. Eastman to California, and have received into the Diocese the Rev. A. George from the Jurisdiction of Sacramento, the Rev. L. M. Idleman from the Diocese of Southern Ohio, and the Rev. Frederick Carmen from the Diocese of Minnesota.

Bishop Leonard ordained the Rev. Benjamin J. Fitz, Priest in All Saints Church, Denver, on the First Sunday after Easter, April 14.

I regret very much not being able to be with you at the Council, but I confidently hope to return in the autumn refreshed and reinvigorated for the work of the Diocese.

I am profoundly grateful to Bishops Williams, Leonard and Graves, who have so kindly taken my work, and may the God of Peace be with you in all your deliberations and actions through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

JOHN FRANKLIN SPALDING.

Report of the Home.

To the Bishop of Colorado, and Members of the Council:

Another year has passed and added its history of The Home to the years gone before. It has been the most successful year in the life of The Home, from the standpoint of what The Home was built for. From Oct. 1st to May 1st, the buildings were used to their fullest capacity, and more men and women have recovered to such a degree that they are able to return to their homes than in all other years put together. And on the whole the most worthy class of people have been here of any year. There have been a few of most unworthy men and women, who have sought the comfort and convenience there for a selfish motive. Mostly, however, have been such as to cause the work to be a blessed privilege thus to serve before God.

The year has been an unusually expensive year. Insurance to almost $2,000 in premiums has been renewed. The entire buildings repainted at a cost of $1,000. And the heating plant has been enlarged. The furnishings have been replaced to a very large extent, for after five years and over of constant service, much has been required. The coal strike and high prices of food, etc., in general have increased expenses. And the constant attention needed has been more of a tax than I can well tell you.

I have been at my post since last July, with the exception of ten days; constantly, and have endeavored to make up the work lost by my long sickness. I feel the year not only compares well with the former, but certainly is one of much advance.

The general condition of the place is in every respect equal if not superior to when first opened. And nearly every one marvels that after six years hard service, it all looks as though it were new.

The Chapel is still a hope, and while some small effort has been made for it, no results as yet point to its immediate erection. Many prayers are said daily, and the privileges of the Holy Communion are given every second Sunday. The religious life has been manifest and in some cases remarkable; and in several instances the awakened souls have made it a blessed privilege to serve. It is very hard however, to be the business man with all its requirements in such a work, and at the same time, be ready to respond as the priest at any call and anytime of day or night. I have, however, been always glad that I had the strength to do it, and in all cases I have responded with the best wisdom I have had, and the work has been, and is, one of blessed privilege.

Asking your earnest sympathy, co-operation and prayers,

I am,

Yours in Christ.

FREDERICK W. OAKES.

There is not much to add to what we have said on several former occasions.

Our equipment has generally been taxed to its full capacity, and we cannot keep abreast with the times with our present accommodations, we cannot stand still, we must move onward, or fall behind. Our equipment and size are not nearly equal to our demands.

We need more general interest in hospital affairs, and we need money to make such absolutely necessary changes as will enable us to remain an up-to-date hospital, and to continue to hold the enviable reputation we have gained among the Medical profession and our patients.

For the Board of Managers,

Report of Charles Y. Grimes, Archdeacon, from November 1900 to June 1901.

TO THE RIGHT REVEREND JOHN F. SPALDING, BISHOP OF COLORADO.

Right Reverend Father in God:

I submit herewith the following report:

I have visited Parishes and Missions 58 times. Have worked for one month in the Parish of S. Peters, Denver, filling the interim between the rectorates of the Reverend Joseph De Forest and the Reverend Frederick Carmen. I also spent five weeks in the Parish of S. Thomas, Alamosa, filling the interim between the going of the Rev. W. T. Douglas and the coming of the Rev. W. C. Wise. Such work now seems important in the Parish of Trinity, Trinidad. I have conducted 142 services with 94 sermons, 28 celebrations of the Holy Eucharist, 8 burials, 4 marriages, 8 baptisms, 501 calls, 15 Sunday School addresses and 22 miscellaneous meetings and addresses. I have written 625 letters, raised in Pledges for Missions $425.00 and collected in cash for Missions $125.00.

The great want in the Mission Work of our Diocese is the means whereby we can put men to work in many places and sustain them until they can build up self-supporting congregations. This is done by the denominational bodies with great success resulting in their advancement and our displacement in many towns throughout the Diocese.

We should be able to put clergymen in the towns of Creede, Crestone, Rocky Ford, Sugar City, Las Animas, Lamar, Aguilar and Walsenburg, and other places as well.

The appropriation from the Board of Missions for the Diocese of Colorado is $1,200 per year. This, with our own strenuous efforts amounting to $2,400 more, is barely sufficient to help out with very small stipends the priests now at work, and all thought of going in and taking possession of new places and of occupying vigorously old ground, must remain in our minds simply a desire. We may possess the vim and vigor, but success in occupying the missionary field demands the outpouring of means.

Obediently your son in Christ,

CHARLES Y. GRIMES.

He was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, in 1856, graduated from Dartmouth in 1884; M. A. 1887. Ordained Deacon in 1887 by Bishop Paddock of Massachusetts and priest in 1888. He was assistant minister at S. Annes, Lowell, Massachusetts 1887-90; Rector S. Lukes, Fort Collins, Colorado, 1890-96. In 1896 he went to Grand Junction and from there to Sidney, Nebraska, where he remained until September of last year. He was taken ill in Idaho Springs when in charge of the parish.

Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary.

The Seventeenth Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary was held in S. Johns Cathedral, Tuesday, June 4, 1901. Morning Prayer was read at 9 o'clock by the Rev. W. H. Haupt of La Junta. The Rev. W. W. Ayres of Canon City, preached a very able sermon from I Chron, 29:9: "The people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they offered willingly to the Lord." David's example and Mary with her box of precious ointment have moved this great society to its gifts and manifold services for the spreading and strengthening of the Church, which is the kingdom of God in the world. True benevolence and beneficence spread abroad and outward from within. We must welcome individuality in this work and should not fail in loyalty to the Church in our zeal for the society, we must begin with our neighbor and parish, and then foreign missions will have their place, if we stand on a firm basis and give willingly and joyfully unto the Lord. For "we give Thee but thine own, what 'er that gift may be."

Dean Hart celebrated the Holy Communion assisted by Rev. Messrs. Ayres and Haupt. After the services several of the clergy made five minute talks. Rev. C. Y. Grimes, Archdeacon, told of his work at White River and South-western Colorado, to the people who need the Gospel preached to them and have not the advantages that city people have.

Dean Hart spoke of charity to homeless people, invalids in our own city which kept at least $300 per month at the Cathedral from going outside, either to Missions or other work.

Mr. Schofield said Cripple Creek was not a Mission, but a flourishing parish, but Gillette had a Mission of interest and and the Church work at Victor was in very vigorous shape under Rev. James McLaughlin. Mr. Hickman followed, saying there was always a cause behind Church work and the condition at Evergreen was due largely to the earnest interest and generosity of Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Bancroft, our much lamented secretary. He said Prayer Books were good missionaries, and that work and funds should be concentrated.

Canon Newton talked of his Mission work among the cow boys in the Huerfano Valley, and now he rejoices to say there is a pretty stone Church there ready to be consecrated.

The Auxiliary then adjourned to the Chapel at 11 o'clock for an informal meeting. Canon Newton had a few words to say concerning the Triennial Council at California in October, that Bishop Leonard of Salt Lake had already arranged for a large gathering in that city, and for delegates to speak there, on their way to San Francisco in the Autumn; and that we ought to have a similar Missionary meeting or meetings here. He inquired how many in the audience had paid railroad fare to this meeting, and ten responded. He said if fifty people had come, rates might have been obtained. He thought a reception committee should be appointed to arrange for such an affair, and he favored one central meeting.

Mrs. Humphrey of Grace Church, Colorado Springs, talked very pleasantly about the work done there. She modestly mentioned that the first branch of the Woman's Auxiliary was started there in 1881, and that they were the first to ask for mite boxes for the United Offering. That it was $75 three years ago and that it was more than $147 now, and she hoped it would be more than that.

Mrs. Pugh of Boulder, said that their Auxiliary had 19 members and the Guild 25. A report was sent from Boulder, showing what good work had been done, raising their pledge of $15 and $3 to S. Lukes Hospital, and other work in their Parish. A report was brought by the Rev. W. W. Ayres from Canon City, telling of the earnest work the ladies have done, filling their pledge of $30 and nearly raising the Church debt, which five years ago amounted to $1,500, besides helping with repairs and improvements. There was no time, we regret to say, to read these reports, but we trust next year that the meetings will be so arranged that a report may be read from every parish that has no delegate present. An earnest effort will be made to have this plan carried out, and also we desire to have every parish not represented send a report in season.

Mrs. Schofield reported that Cripple Creek had an active Guild, and had added two rooms to the Rectory, costing $377. They had Missionary teas the first of every month with a Missionary study class, and had raised the pledge of $20 and had a Junior Auxiliary and Babies Branch.

Mrs. Curtis of Littleton, said the Guild there paid organist, janitor and water bill, and that there could be no services without its aid. They greatly desired a visit from the Arch-Deacon.

Dean Hart talked of "The Spirit of Missions," how much it had improved and that every one should read it.

Mrs. R. R. Williams also said a few words about "The Spirit of Missions" and "The Churchman" and "Living Church," really a necessity to keep up a lively interest in Church matters and Missions. Through an oversight "Our Western Churchman" was not mentioned, with its able articles by the editor, Rev. Mr. Kramer, and other contributors and clippings of great interest from other periodicals. One dollar a year pays a subscription and sends it to some one else outside the Diocese.

Sister Hannah read a letter from Mrs. Morrison, wife of the Bishop of Duluth, desiring the better observance of Ascension Day, putting it on a level with Christmas and Easter Day, as it is an equally high festival, and expressing the hope that suitable cards might be designed in future years.

At twelve, a delicious luncheon was served by the Cathedral ladies in the Crypt.

The members of the Auxiliary assembled in the Chapel at 2 p. m., for the business meeting which was opened with a hymn and prayers by the Rev. J. H. Houghton. Over 90 members representing some 20 Parishes and Missions, responded to roll call, and 10 Clergymen and several visitors were present.

Minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved.

For the first time since the organization of the Colorado Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, 17 years our presiding officer, Mrs. J. F. Spalding, was absent, and her report was read by Mrs. N. G. Burnham, Vice President.

This was followed by a condensed report of the monthly meetings for the year.

Mr. Du Pont Parker spoke for five minutes about Wolfe Hall. The school is graded and well disciplined, and has an excellent corps of teachers. It is well and carefully managed, the earnings are in excess of expenses and there is some surplus. It is a much needed school for girls outside the city, and its success is due absolutely to Miss Kerr.

Canon Newton then stated that he had made inquiries in regard to rates, etc., to the Triennial Council in October; the round trip would be forty dollars from Denver.

Dean Hart, at the request of Judge Hallet, spoke of S. Lukes Hospital and its needs.

The Vice President expressed regret at the absence of the Treasurer, Mrs. Milo Smith. Her report was read by Mrs. M. J. Wolfe, and approved.

The Corresponding Secretary's report was read and approved. Miss Brent then read a most interesting report of the Juniors. Mrs. Oakes' report of the Babies Branch was read by Mrs. R. R. Williams, and Mrs. Higby's report of the Church Periodical Club was read by Mrs. Thos. Hamilton. These were approved.

Mrs. McCrillis read the report of Mrs. Langworthy, Director of the Altar Department, which was only formed last year. Nearly every Altar Guild or Altar Branch had contributed its dollar as the plan was, and it seemed a good showing for a single year. There were two petitions read for Altars, one from Golden and one from Las Animas. It was moved by Mrs. McCrillis and seconded by Miss Brent, that this matter be referred to Mrs. Spalding.

A vote was taken in regard to the disposal of the United Offering for 1904, which will be decided at the Triennial Council in San Francisco, October 3, 1901. Mrs. Spalding suggested that it should go for schools and hospitals, and the Board of Missions through Miss Emery, proposed that one-half should go to General Missions, and one half to Women Workers, which resulted in adopting Mrs. Spalding's suggestion.

The Secretary was instructed to convey to Bishop and Mrs. Spalding, the greetings of the Colorado Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, together with an expression of deep regret for their absence at this time, and most sincere hopes for the Bishop's speedy recovery.

The Secretary was also instructed to send letters of regret and sympathy to Father Byrne and Mrs. Milo A. Smith, for their unavoidable absence.

A letter from Miss Emery was read, in regard to the United Offering and Triennial meeting, also an article was read concerning the Church Missionary exhibit at the Triennial Meeting. Mrs. C. D. Cobb, 1922 Grant Ave. is the Chairman of this exhibit, and it is very earnestly desired that every one will take an interest to have it a success.

Pledges for the coming year were made amounting to nearly $500, and several Parishes have not reported as yet.

It was moved and carried by an unanimous vote that the old board of officers be retained the coming year.

President, Mrs. J. F. Spalding, 2011 Lincoln Ave., Denver.
Vice Presidents:

Mrs. N. G. Burnham, 1357 California street, Denver.

Mrs. Joseph Humphrey, Colorado Springs.

Mrs. Fulton, Boulder.

Mrs. Nowland, Leadville.

Mrs. B. T. Morley, Buena Vista.

Mrs. W. W. Roller, Salida.

Mrs. E. P. Arthur, Cripple Creek.

Treasurer, Mrs. Milo A. Smith, P. O. Box 847, Denver.

Secretary Junior Auxiliary, Miss E. S. Brent, 1231 Humbolt street, Denver.

Secretary of Babies' Branch, Mrs. F. W. Oakes, 2903 Fairview Avenue, Denver.

Correspondent of Church Periodical Club, Mrs. Antoinette C. Higby, 1665 Sherman Avenue, Denver.

Director of Altar Department, Mrs. J. N. Langworthy, 331 Broadway, Pueblo.

A committee to act with a committee appointed by the Council, composed of Mrs. Milo A. Smith, Mrs. Edwin McCrillis, Mrs. Moses Hallet, Mrs. N. G. Burnham, was chosen to make arrangements for a special Missionary meeting and reception, to be held in Denver the last of September, with addresses by Eastern Bishops and Clergy en route to California.

Let me close in the words of our devoted Vice President, to whom a vote of thanks was offered. "How satisfying to know that we have aided by our influence and example even in a small way, in furthering the Holy cause we have espoused, and constantly endeavoring to teach by presenting it as a living principle, by our earnestness and belief in the faith once delivered to the Saints." We ought to accept it as a blessed privilege, a fulfilment of a desire, which giveth cheer to the heart and because of it, let us renew our obligations to the Master's service, and pray for willingness and strength to grasp every opportunity which may unfold before us. In these days of numerous Charity Organizations, Woman's Societies, in and out of the Church there are many demands upon our time, strength and means, but in no other work is there more to encourage, no larger field for usefulness than in the Woman's Auxiliary. The results of such work will strengthen the mystical tie which binds our hearts in Christian love and sympathy, and if we will yield to the promptings of the Holy Spirit, endeavoring to be victorious and on the alert to perform deeds of mercy in elevating humanity, the harvest field will be greatly enriched and the gleaners abundantly rewarded.

"The field is ripening, let us not falter, but grasp our possibilities believing that the Heavenly Father will give the increase."

Benediction was pronounced by the Rev. Mr. Houghton.

Respectfully submitted,

ANNA M. WILLIAMS,

Recording Secretary Woman's Auxiliary.

Mrs. J. F. Spalding's Address.

My Dear Friends, Members of the Auxiliary:

It is not necessary for me to say how deeply I regret not being with you today, for I am sure that you know this already, and I am thankful indeed that the work does not depend on anyone individual, but is in Higher Hands than ours, Which will never fail to provide for the work of the Church.

The reports of our efficient officers show the work that our Auxiliary has accomplished this year, and although we wish it had been more, yet we can give thanks that we have done so much, and take courage to go on to greater things. Surely there can be no department of woman's work more worthy of our highest efforts, than to do our part in extending Christ's Kingdom upon earth.

We now have the Junior Department well started under Miss Brent's zealous guidance, and branches established in many Parishes. We may not be able to show quite as large results in figures, since all the Sunday School Missionary Offerings are required to be credited to the "Sunday School Auxiliary," but the Juniors are showing how much work can be done by busy little fingers, for S. Lukes Hospital and places needing their willing assistance. The "Baby's Branch" is flourishing and members are constantly being added to it, and their pennies will show how interested they are, when the tiny boxes are opened on Whitsunday. Mrs. Oakes and her assistants are looking well after this Department. The Church Periodical Club has an efficient Librarian in Mrs. Higby and I hope this most excellent branch of our Auxiliary will receive all the attention and interest it deserves. Our "Altar Department" was only added to our Auxiliary last year, and the report shows that Mrs. Langworthy is doing what she can to make it all that we hope for it.

Already we have had an urgent appeal for an altar from one of our Missions, which shows how much good we can do through this Department, while the assessment from each Altar Guild does not make it hard to raise the needed funds and will probably be most gladly and cheerfully given. This is the year for the United Missionary Offering and for the credit of our Diocese, we must do all in our power to make it equal to the Offering in 1896, and should exceed it. Mrs. Smith, our efficient Treasurer, is looking after this, and it is hoped that every member of our Auxiliary will contribute something, no matter how small, that the offering may be worthy of our Diocese.

Miss Emery's circular letter will be read to you all, and you will be asked to send to her, suggestions, if you have any, for the object of the United Offering of 1904. Personally, I should like the following to be adopted, but of course you are at liberty to suggest something else, should a majority decide against it.

"The Colorado Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, realizing that the Church has no more powerful agencies for Church extension than our Schools and Hospitals, would suggest that the United Offering of 1904, be divided among such Church Schools and Hospitals in our own and foreign countries as the 'Board of Managers for Domestic and Foreign Missions' may at their discretion judge needy of assistance."

Last year we made another addition to our Constitution by a provision for any funds we might raise beyond the $500 pledged to the "Bishop's Auxiliary Fund" for Diocesan Missions. I fear that this part of our Treasury will be empty, as our pledges now seem just able to meet the one of $500, which has been appropriated by the Bishop to the Archdeacon's salary. I had earnestly hoped that we could do more than this, so that when we receive, as we often do, an urgent appeal for "a suit of clothes" for some Missionary in immediate need, we might be able to order one at once from our emergency fund. Such an appeal I have just received from a Missionary's wife, who wrote to me of her husband's great need, and whose income was so limited that when she wrote to the Bishop she confessed that they had but fifteen cents in the house! Surely we ought to provide a generous fund for such sad cases in a Clergyman's family.

Our United Auxiliary Meetings in Denver have been kept up regularly with great interest and enthusiasm and we have been able to meet in nearly every Parish, by having these meetings twice a month. It is a most gratifying proof of the interest taken in Missions that no Parish wants to miss having one of these United Auxiliary meetings. Through the Diocese, also, the Monthly Missionary Teas have become the custom in nearly all the Guilds, and the monthly Sunday for Missions is, I hope, kept up regularly in all our Sunday Schools. As members of the Auxiliary, we must feel our responsibility to help continue all these ways of interesting everybody in Missionary work, by diffusing knowledge about the great work of the Church all over the world.

The President regrets that she has only been able to make one visit out of Denver, but this was a most delightful one at Boulder, where much interest was shown in the Auxiliary and a Baby's Branch most successfully organized in addition to their other departments. Other visits had been planned, such as to Longmont, Fort Collins, etc., where the President had been cordially invited and had hoped to visit after New Year's, but was prevented by the Bishop's sudden illness.

I must not close without again thanking you all for your most welcome gifts to S. Luke's Hospital, and begging you all to visit it while in Denver at the Council. The demands for sheets, pillow cases, towels, etc. are unceasing and I earnestly hope that you will continue your donations year by year, for there is no work of the Church more blessed than this which ministers to the sick as did our Lord when on earth. A visit to the Hospital will show you how we are trying to do this, and let us all pray that our Lord will inspire those who have the means to help us increase our present buildings, and so add greatly to our good work.

May the coming year see us more faithful in our work, more generous in our pledges, and more deeply interested in extending our influence in all its departments, and may we all be spared to meet each other for our renewed efforts.

Sincerely your friend,

L. D. S. SPALDING,

S. Pauls Rectory, Erie, Pa., May 20, 1901.

Christ Church, Canon City, Librarian No. 10, Miss Wester. No report.

Grace Church, Colorado Springs, Librarian No 11, Mrs. Williams. Number of persons contributing 4. Periodicals sent 7.

Our Church Periodical Club work goes so slowly in this diocese that the report given seems only a repetition of a year ago, but even if there be only one new periodical sent out each year we are assured of a blessing in that one home. I feel that I can better reach the hearts of those present and perhaps stir up a more lively interest in this work by making a few quotations from recent meetings held in New York: Dr. Van Antwerp says in his address on January 10th at the meeting in Calvary Parish House "that this club stands for two ideas that are very material and instructive, true Christian economy and Christian helpfulness. We are learning how to economize. The C. P. C. utilizes every book and periodical. It gathers up what would otherwise be throw aside and forgotten and sends it out again to those who are destitute. It gathers up the fragments of our literature, sending out to poor clergy on the frontier, to prove to them that they are not isolated, but friends of all those who labor for the Lord.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

Mrs. Chapir, General Secretary, told of the use to which even torn prayer books and hymnals could be put, of a certain lawyer in New York who goes to a police court and gives away one or two leaves of such books to a prisoner. These can be concealed in the dress and privately read. The Rev. Dr. Greer, Rector of S. Bartholmews Church, at this same meeting, said: "The C. P. C. needs no advocate, no argument to commend it as a good work. All that is required is a larger knowledge of it." His church would give $150 toward the work this year. He says there is a peculiar value about a book, "that when you read it, and get out of it all you can, it is just as good for the next person as for you." Books do really over and over again clothe the naked and feed the hungry as no other clothing and food can do. The C. P. C. has only a book, a paper, but with that, it too, can bring water out of the rock, and make the wilderness blossom as the rose. It stands for something little, but it stands for something large, and it is the little after all that does the large work.

Mrs. Chapir in her report on April 11th said: "Our work is increasing rapidly. Everything except the money we receive." She thought every diocese ought to give at least five or ten dollars yearly. At this meeting it was recommended that the club become affiliated with the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions. A movement that will be taken up at the Triennial next October.

ANTOINETTE C. HIGBY,
Correspondent of the C. P. C.

Report of Junior Auxiliary.

The opening of the new century finds the Colorado Branch of the Junior Auxiliary awakening to a sense of its great responsibility, and although the number of branches is not greatly increased, yet the interest and activity of those already existing is most encouraging and must in time arouse in others something of their own enthusiasm.

There are now nine branches reporting active work, three having been organized during the past year, viz: S. Andrews, Cripple Creek, St. Johns Cathedral, Denver, and Emmanuel, Denver. In addition to working for Missions these branches also study about Missions and in connection with this the making of Missionary Scrap Books has been found most helpful as well as interesting.

The Epiphany Branch though greatly interested in working hard to raise money towards the building of their new church, and helping in other pressing parish needs, has given some time to making pillow cases and scrap books for S. Lukes Hospital, Denver. To S. Agnes Guild, of S. Marks Church, belongs the honor of instituting the first United Missionary Meeting for the Juniors which was held in S. Marks Chapel on the afternoon following Ascension Day. The service was well attended, thirty-five being present from Emmanuel alone. Prayers were said by the Rev. Canon Houghton. Missionary Hymns most heartily sung by the children and interesting addresses given by Canon Houghton and Rev. Mr. Idleman. At the conclusion of the service the S. Agnes girls invited all present to adjourn to the Guild room where refreshments were served and a pleasant social hour was spent. Altogether the meeting was most successful and it is hoped that it may be repeated each year.

The Junior Auxiliary, like any other organization, to be successful must be conducted in a systematic and business-like manner. Each branch should send a list of officers to the Diocesan Secretary. All money—as long as there is no treasurer—should be sent through her, and all boxes sent should be promptly reported to her in order that she may keep a full and correct report of all work done.

In a diocese where parish needs are so pressing as in Colorado, it is perhaps a little difficult to direct interests and energies to outside work, but while those duties which lie nearest are the duties which have the first claim; let us not stop there. From all about us comes the cry for help. China, Japan, Alaska, far-away Africa, the colored schools in our own South, the Indians at our very door, all unite in a prayer that we extend to them some of our privileges. Shall we turn a deaf ear to their appeals?

There are still five Parishes to be heard from: Canon City, Florence, Cripple Creek and S. Stephens, Colorado Springs, but through an oversight no notice was sent to S. Stephens. They were sent to all the other Parishes.

No money will be collected until September 1st unless the Parish Secretaries prefer it otherwise, and I hope all will try and have it by that time, as another report will have to be made out.

I trust we may get some more Parish Secretaries this year. All of our churches ought to be represented. The Secretary from S. Andrews, Manitou was compelled to resign. I hope some one will take her place. I will send a notice to each secretary as soon as I return and then any needing boxes will see that they get them.

S. JOHN'S CATHEDRAL, DENVER, COLO. }
WEDNESDAY, January 8, 1902. }

A Special Council of the Diocese of Colorado met pursuant to the call of the Bishop in S. John's Cathedral, Denver, on Wednesday, the eighth day of January, 1902.

At 10 a. m. the Holy Communion was celebrated by the Bishop. The Rev. Benjamin Brewster read the Epistle and the Very Rev. H. M. Hart read the Gospel.

At the close of the service the Clergy and Lay Delegates assembled in the Cathedral. The Bishop took the chair and called the Council to order.

The Secretary read the following call under which the Council had assembled:

DENVER, COLO., October 29, 1901.

To the Clergy and Congregations of the Diocese of Colorado:

For some time I have been seriously thinking of asking you to grant me some relief in my duties as Bishop of Colorado. My health is such that I cannot perform my duties either acceptably to myself or to the Diocese. Having the welfare of the Church at heart, I feel compelled to seek relief as afforded me by the Canons of the General Convention.

I, therefore, hereby, call a Special Council to meet in St. John's Cathedral, Denver, Colorado, on Wednesday after the Epiphany, January 8th, 1902, at 10 o'clock a. m. The business of this Council shall be:

1. Providing a salary for the support of a Bishop Coadjutor.
2. The election of Bishop Coadjutor according to the Canons of the General Convention and of this Diocese.

Lay delegates should be elected to this Special Council according to the provisions of Article VI, Section 3. Unless such delegates are elected, the lay delegates elected at the last Easter election for the last Annual Council shall be the delegates to the Special Council.

Attention is especially called to the provision of Canon XV, Section 4.

JOHN F. SPALDING,
Bishop of Colorado.

DENVER, COLO., October 30, 1901.

In accordance with Article VII, Section 1. of the Constitution of the Diocese of Colorado, written notice for a Special Council has been sent the undersigned and the call by the Rt. Rev. John F. Spalding, S. T. D., Bishop of Colorado, for such Special Council, is herewith enclosed.

A. D. PARKER,
Secretary of the Standing Committee.

The roll was called and 33 of the Clergy and Lay Delegates from 25 congregations were present and took their seats.

His Honor, Chancellor Stone, the Treasurer of the Episcopate Fund, Mr. David Rubidge, the Treasurer of Diocesan Missions, Mr. W. M. Spalding, and the Treasurer of the Council, Mr. C. D. Cobb, ex officio members of the Council, were also in attendance.

A constitutional quorum being present, the President declared the Council open and ready for business.

The Secretary nominated as his assistant the Rev. E. L. Eustis and the nomination was approved by the Council.

The Bishop read the following address:

My Dear Brethren:

This Council is called for the sole purpose of electing a Coadjutor Bishop and providing for his support.

I propose to give over to the Coadjutor Bishop all the duties of the office, reserving only the matter relating to Candidates for Holy Orders and Ordinations.

The Diocese of Colorado will raise $6,300 a year, $3,000 of which would be for my support, and $3,300, and as much more as may be fitting, for the support of the Bishop Coadjutor.

I should like, if possible, to remain at Matthew's Hall, and wish that some generous friend would present to the Diocese a residence for the new Bishop.

The chair appoints the following committees:

I. ON PRIVILEGE.

The Rev. E. P. Newton.
F. F. Kramer.

Mr. Thomas Withers.
Lyman Robison.

II. ON SALARIES OF BISHOP AND COADJUTOR BISHOP.

And now, praying for the blessing of God on the work of this Council that a wise choice may be made, and that the Holy Spirit may give us a right judgment in all things, let us proceed to the business of the Council.

JOHN FRANKLIN SPALDING,
Bishop of Colorado.

It was moved that the Council remove to the Crypt.
Carried.

Canon George Rogers read the following

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SALARIES.

Your committee appointed to consider the salary of the Bishop, and the salary of the Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of Colorado, respectfully reports as follows:

We are of the opinion that the net revenue for the support of the Episcopate will, during the life time of our present Bishop, be at least $6,300 per annum. This amount we expect will be realized from the following sources:

Net revenue from the Episcopate Fund.....	$3,500
Contributions of Parishes to the Episcopate Fund....	1,300
Revenue from the Dyer & Potter Trust.....	500
A personal annual subscription to the salary of Bishop Spalding to continue during life.....	1,000
Total.....	$6,300

As your committee are of opinion that the Council can safely rely on this amount of annual revenue, we beg to recommend that the salary of Bishop Spalding be fixed by the Council at $3,000 per annum, and that the salary of the proposed Bishop Coadjutor be fixed at $3,000 per annum with an additional $300 for travelling expenses.

Your committee therefore give notice that in due order they will move the following resolutions:

1. That the salary of the Right Rev. Bishop John F. Spalding, S. T. D, be and is hereby fixed at the sum of $3,000 per annum.

2. That the salary of the Bishop Coadjutor, to be elected at this Special Council, be and is hereby fixed at the sum of $3,000 per annum, and $300 yearly for travelling expenses.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

GEORGE ROGERS,
WM. W. AYRES,
DAVID RUBIDGE,
CHAS. RUTER.

Canon Rogers moved the adoption of the report.

Canon Houghton moved to amend the report by inserting the words "at least" before the words "$3,000 per annum and $300 yearly, etc."

Canon Rogers accepted the amendment and the report as amended was unanimously accepted.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PRIVILEGE.

Your committee on privilege find that the following parishes are in arrears on assessments for Bishop's salary. S. John's Cathedral, S. George's, Leadville, and The Ascension, Pueblo. George's, Leadville, S. Andrew's, Manitou, The Ascension, Pueblo, and recommend that they be given until 1:30 p. m. to present proper credentials. We find that the

E. P. NEWTON,
F. F. KRAMER,
THOS. WITHERS,
LYMAN ROBISON.
Committee.

It was moved that the report be accepted.

It was moved to amend the report by including in the roll all parishes which have presented proper credentials. Carried.

The report as amended was accepted.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE ELECTION OF A COADJUTOR BISHOP.

Your committee respectfully recommends:

First. That after the prayers by the Bishop, the first ballot be the nominating ballot.

Second. That the Secretary be instructed to call the roll slowly and that the delegates go forward to vote, one at a time.

Third. That silence be observed during the actual balloting.

ARNOLD BODE,
NEWTON E. BARKALOW,
FRANK A. ELLIS, JR.

The Rev. F. F. Kramer moved to amend the report by striking out the words "the first ballot be the nominating ballot" and inserting the words, "nominations shall be in order for Bishop Coadjutor and the nominating speeches shall be limited to five minutes." Carried.

The report as amended was accepted

THE CRYPT OF S. JOHN'S CATHEDRAL, }

REPORT.

The Standing Committee makes the following report for the conciliar year ended April 30, 1902:

1st. It has concurred in and expressed consent to the Diocese of Minnesota for the transfer of the Right Reverend Samuel Cook Edsall, D. D., from the Missionary jurisdiction of Northern Dakota to become Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Minnesota.

2nd. It has given its consent to the consecration of the Reverend Frederick W. Taylor, D. D., as Bishop Coadjutor of Quincy, Ill.; of the Reverend Fredrick Burgess, D. D., as Bishop of Long Island; of the Reverend Charles Sanford Olmsted, D. D., as Bishop Coadjutor of Colorado; of the Reverend Alexander Hamilton Vinton, D. D., as Bishop of Western Massachusetts, and of the Reverend Alexander Mackay-Smith, D. D., as Bishop Coadjutor of Pennsylvania.

3rd. It has recommended to the Bishop as a candidate for Priest's Orders Mr. Percival S. Smithe, and for the ordering of Deacon Mr. Henry Charles Stone and Mr. George H. Symington. It has also recommended for Priest's Orders the Reverend Henry Brownlee Smith.

4th. Under the provisions of Title 1, Canon 15, application was received from the Reverend Richard de Bary for reception into the Anglican Communion. Under Title I, Canon 19, Section 12, the Standing Committee, acting as Ecclesiastical authority, accepted such application under date of August 6, and referred Mr. de Bary to the Archdeacon for Lay work until the time of probation was ended, when the Bishop would accept his declaration.

5th. In accordance with Article 17, Section 1, of the Constitution, the Secretary of the Standing Committee received notice from the Bishop of the Diocese to call a special Council for the election of a Bishop Coadjutor, and under the provision of such notice the Secretary, on October 30th, sent out such circular calling the special Council.

6th. After the return of the Bishop to the Diocese on November 18th, the Standing Committee was again notified to take charge under Title I, Canon 19, Section 12, and from that date until the consecration of Bishop Olmsted on May 1st, the Standing Committee has acted accordingly. It has placed Mr. D. E. Fulweider, postulant for Holy Orders, under the charge of its President. The President was authorized to confer with the Archdeacon and the Treasurer of Diocesan Missions in regard to filling vacant Missions, and that in all matters during the recess of the Committee the President, in conference with the Secretary, should act where it was deemed by them unnecessary to call the Committee together.

7th. A question having arisen regarding the Canonical provisions for the election of Lay delegates to the Special Council on December 4th, the Standing Committee sent out circulars whereby amicable settlement was made under the provisions of Article 18 of the Constitution.

8th. By appointment at the Special Council the Standing Committee was made a Committee of Notification to inform the Reverend Charles Sandford Olmsted of his election as Bishop Coadjutor and sent out the following letter, dated January 9th:

DENVER, COLORADO, January 9th, 1902.

THE REV. CHARLES S. OLMSTED, D. D.,
Bala, Pennsylvania.

*"Rev. and Dear Sir:—*At a Special Council called January 8th, 1902, for the purpose of electing a Bishop Coadjutor you were chosen on the 26th ballot and the Council then made the election unanimous.

"We, therefore, the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Colorado, who were appointed by the Council as the committee to notify you, take great pleasure in doing so. We feel that in the great possibilities of the west, Colorado will take the foremost place among the Dioceses of the Church. Our Bishop, nearly seventy-four years old, is broken down through hard work, and he relinquishes the whole jurisdiction to the Coadjutor in these words: 'I propose to give over to the Coadjutor Bishop all the duties of the office, reserving only the matters relating to candidates for Holy Orders and Ordinations.'

"The salary of the Diocesan has been $6,000.00 per annum with Matthews Hall, a large and comfortable house as a residence. This house is the Nathan Matthews Trust, and by permission of the donor the Bishop has made it his residence, the provision of the gift being that it shall be used as a theological school when one is established.

"There is an Episcopate Fund carrying a value of $100,000.00 which yields an income of $4,000.00 per annum. Bishop Spalding retains Matthews Hall and $3,000.00 per year, and the balance, $3,000.00, with $300.00 for traveling expenses, is given the Coadjutor.

"The unanimity which was occasioned by your name being placed in nomination was so evident, and the intense satisfaction that the election caused, lead us to hope that you will consider the call most favorably. In order that you may be fully satisfied and look over the Diocese yourself, we invite you to come to Colorado before mailing your decision, and upon advice from you, either by telegram or letter, will forward $150.00 to defray your expenses.

"The Diocese has been practically without Episcopal supervision for two years, and hence it is earnestly requested that you make your decision as early as is convenient.

Faithfully yours,

CHARLES H. MARSHALL,
President.

A. D. PARKER,
Secretary."

To which was received the following acceptance:

"MATTHEWS HALL, 2011 LINCOLN AVENUE, DENVER, COLO. }
January 28th, 1902. }

TO THE REVEREND CHARLES HUGHES MARSHALL, THE REVEREND JOHN H. HOUGHTON, THE REVEREND BENJAMIN BREWSTER, AND OTHERS:

"Dear Brethren:—In the fear of God and with deep love for his faithful people in the Diocese of Colorado, I accept the office of Bishop Coadjutor to the Bishop of the said Diocese, to which I was elected at the Special Council held in the Cathedral Church of Saint John the Evangelist, Denver, on the eighth day of January, 1902.

"May the Great Head of the Church sustain me in this awful trust, and grant me a merciful judgment at the latter day.

Faithfully your servant, for Christ's sake,

CHARLES SANFORD OLMSTED."

The Committee sent out to the Standing Committees of all Dioceses, the Canonical forms for consent to Dr. Olmsted's consecration, and has, at the date of this report, received consent from fifty-nine Dioceses, leaving only one to hear from, namely, the Diocese of East Carolina.

The Committee on March 5th, when it had received consent from the major number of Dioceses, certified to such consent to the Presiding Bishop and his assessor, and action was taken, and Dr. Olmsted was consecrated Bishop on the feast of S. S. Philip's and James' Day, May 1st, 1902.

9th. The Committee accepted the resolution of the Parish of S. Stephen's, Longmont, creating a parish from a mission.

10th. The Committee has received from the House of Deputies, in compliance with the requirements of Title 3, Canon 1, Section 3. The notice of the alterations of the Constitution as proposed at the General Convention held in the city of San Francisco, in October, 1901, and which must be acted upon at the convention to sit in the city of Boston, in October, 1904.

11th. On March 10th, it received notice from the Right Reverend William Lawrence, D. D., Bishop of Massachusetts, of the deposition from the Ministry of the Reverend Alfred Buel Nichols, which was voluntary on his part, and for causes which do not affect his moral character, 12th. On the morning of March 10th, the Committee received notice of the death of the Right Reverend John Franklin Spalding, D. D., Bishop of Colorado, which occurred in Erie, Pa., on the evening of March 9th, 1902, at the residence of his son. The Committee on March 10th, sent expressions of condolence and sympathy to Mrs. Spalding and other members of the family.

13th. On April 12th, upon receipt of notice from the Board of Managers of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society that it was necessary to apportion a certain amount to every Diocese to carry on their work (the amount apportioned to Colorado being $3,495.40), the Committee sent the following circular:

DENVER, COLORADO, April 12, 1902.

To the Clergy and Congregations of the Diocese of Colorado:

"The Board of Managers of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society found it necessary to apportion a certain amount to every Diocese to carry on their work. The amount apportioned to Colorado was $3,495.40.

"The General Secretary of the Board has notified the President of the Standing Committee that the Treasurer of the Board has received $195.70 from September 1, 1901, to March 1, 1902, leaving still due from the Diocese $3,299.70, which should be paid before September 1, 1902. In order to obtain this amount, the Standing Committee, acting as the Ecclesiastical Authority, and desiring to relieve the Bishop, when consecrated, of this added anxiety, earnestly request each Congregation in the Diocese to send as much as possible to Mr. George C. Thomas, Treasurer, Church Mission House, 281 Fourth Avenue, New York City. They suggest that assessments be made on the basis of $1 per Communicant; provided, however, that where there is more than one Communicant in one family, the first to be assessed $1 and each other Communicant 25 cents.

By order of the Standing Committee."

CHARLES HUGHES MARSHALL,

President.

A. D. PARKER,

The Committee on the State of the Church made the following

REPORT.

It is the intention of this Council, that this committee shall present to it in concise form, the results to be gathered from the reports from Parishes and Missions; together with all other sources of information concerning Church matters.

Your committee at the outset would recommend the adoption of a much simpler form of report; out of the mass of figures, many of them irrelevant to this purpose, and some reports not in evidence.

Your committee find that there has been some slight decrease in baptisms and confirmations. This, of course, cannot be wondered at, considering that the Diocese was deprived of the stimulating presence of its Bishop, because the infirmities of age gathering rapidly upon him, incapacitated Bishop Spalding from traveling.

The report of the very efficient Archdeacon, describing large areas out of reach of any pastoral care; church people living on ranches and in the numerous small communities wholly deprived of the ministrations of their own clergy; appears to justify the opinion that the Church has been laggard and unable or unwilling to occupy new vantage ground. But it must be remembered, that in point of numbers, our Church is now the eighth on the list; that seven other Christian bodies can count more adherents, in proportion to the population than we can; that if half the population be written off as "Caring for none of these things," it will be seen how hopeless it is ever to expect that these thinly scattered Church people can have regular ministration supplied to them when they elect to live in such places; they must consider it one of the disabilities of their lot, that they can at best only hope for the occasional visit of one of their own Clergy to administer to them the sacraments; for their regular worship and instruction they must look elsewhere.

Your committee feel that the only outlook for the relief of this situation is the employment of more Archdeacons, so that by proper organization these outlying communities might be visited at regularly stated periods, and so be taught to expect at definite times the blessings and benefits of that mode of spirited sustenance which they value.

Your committee note with pleasure the very gratifying revival which has occurred in several parishes, and the whole outlook of established churches is satisfactory.

Of the Church Institutions; Wolfe Hall has been able to hold its own, and pay its current expenses; although despite the ablest of financial management, the school was unable to earn money enough to pay the interest of the mortgaged debt; that is to say, if the debt can be paid, so that the Institution can have its premises rent free, it gives promise of being able to care for itself; but if it be considered the wisdom and the duty of the Church to maintain a girl's school at low rates, it would appear from past experience, that the Institution will always need to be subsidised.

The Jarvis Hall Trust has been extinguished; and your Committee, remembering the almost impossibility of successfully competing with an excellent public school system, and the long record of expense and anxiety that has for thirty years attended the attempt to educate boys in that Institution, feel that the loss of this school is not an unmitigated evil.

S. Luke's Hospital is at this moment in the throes of a crisis. But the well known financial ability of its Board of Directors and the encouragement they have received from a sympathetic public, bid fair to secure the new wing, and renovate the existing buildings, without which, it is said to be impossible to carry on its work.

The Home for Consumptives, rides on the crest of a huge financial wave. The Church without effort or anxiety, receives the property, and rejoices in a glory which is shed upon her, by the sole energy and capability, which amounts to genius, of one of her sons.

The report of the Clerk of this Chapter must have been a revelation to many of the Council. It will ever redound to the glory of the memory of Bishop Spalding, that by remarkable financeering and by persistently holding on to property, through the upheaval of the severest of financial panics, he and his unpaid lieutenant, managed to conserve to the several Trusts, the enormous sum of over $900,000.00.

This sum, since it takes no account of the value of Churches and rectories, by no means represents the value of the property belonging to the Church in Colorado.

After this summary, your committee may well feel justified in concluding; that the financial foundations having been so broadly and solidly laid, the new captain of the ship may set all sails to catch the heavenly breeze; and the stretch of the voyage before us, is brighter than ever before, with the glow of that beckoning light which guides us to the land bright with the glory of God and of the Lamb, "The fair haven" to which may God in his mercy, bring us all.

Thus submitted,

REPORT.

The committee appointed to consider that portion of the Bishop's Address relating to the condition of Sunday Schools and their actual relation to their several Parish Churches beg leave to report as follows;

We respectfully recommend the appointment of a Commission or Committee by the Rt. Rev. the Bishop, who shall minutely acquaint themselves with the work of the Diocesan Commissions of New York, Massachusetts, Ohio and California, and of such other Commissions as may now or later be existent; who shall investigate the condition of Sunday Schools in this Diocese; who shall stir up interest in the reformation of our methods and the improvement of facilities; and who shall make such recommendations to the next Council as their investigation and study may warrant.

We recommend also, that Friday morning of Council week next year, be set apart for the discussion before the Council assembled for that purpose, of Sunday School matters in accordance with a programme to be arranged by the Commission.

In the mean time we not only urge the recommendation of the Bishop as to Church attendance on the part of the Sunday School, but also ask the Clergy to gather statistics for the Commission, as to the proportion of children attending church.

Resolved, That in accordance with article XX of the Constitution of the Diocese of Colorado, Article X of the Constitution, subject, Business of the Council, shall be amended in Section 3 by the omission of the words, "provided that in this case Missions shall have no vote, but only Parishes," and the substitution in the same place of the words, " provided, that two or more Missions under the charge of one Missionary shall have but one vote."

It was moved to refer the resolution to the Committee on Legislation. Carried.

The Rev Benj. Brewster read the following report of the Committee on the Apportionment for General Missions:

REPORT.

The committee, to whom was referred the matter of the apportionment for the General Missions of the Church, laid upon this Diocese by the Board of Managers of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society, beg leave to report that they consider this action of the Board of Managers, asking for a definite sum from the several Dioceses of the Church, to be a step in the right direction towards putting the finances of the Church's Missions upon a systematic and business like basis. It is very possible that the apportionment may seem to be a heavy one, in special cases. It is easy for us to point to the Missionary needs of our own Diocese, and to the difficulty found in raising the assessments for the Episcopate Fund. But your committee feel that to respond to the request of the Board of General Missions with such pleas would not be a worthy answer for the Diocese of Colorado to make, until a general and energetic effort has been exerted to meet as much of the apportionment as possible.

The suggestion made by the Standing Committee, before the Consecration of our Bishop, that the different Parishes and Missions raise the amount by contribution on the basis of $1.00 per Communicant, has been followed by one Parish at least. Others have made special Sunday offerings, but the response has not been at all general.

Your committee recommend,

First. That the Board of Equalization determine the amount which should be raised by each Parish and Mission for this purpose in order to meet the Diocessary apportionment; and Second. That this Council put itself on record as urging upon every minister the duty of presenting this matter before his congregation in a definite manner, and in the light of an obligation. Thus our people generally will be impressed with the principle that they all have a responsibility for the aggressive Missionary work of the whole Church and we believe that the arousing of the Missionary spirit in the whole Body will benefit the special work of the several members.

It may be further pointed out, that if the recommendations offered by another committee, reducing the assessments for Bishop's salary, be adopted, it will be practicable for Parishes to divert this money thus saved to Missionary purposes.

(Signed) BENJAMIN BREWSTER.

The report was accepted.

The Rev. F. W. Oakes read the following report of the Committee on an Episcopal Residence:

REPORT.

Your committee appointed to report on that portion of the Bishop's address referring to an Episcopal residence reports, viz.:

It is with gratification that they note what was said in the Bishop's address, regarding the willingness to give up the idea at present of a new Episcopal residence and to adapt himself and family to the existing conditions; even the inconvenience, in order that the efforts put forth may be for the lessening of the Diocesan debts, rather than for the enhancement of his personal comfort. We feel that this is magnanimous on his part, and also feel that the Council should know the present condition of the house we have to offer as an Episcopal residence. This house has been in service constantly for twenty-one years, and almost nothing has been done to it. The present occupants have lived there at great inconvenience and discomfort; and it will be quite impossible to offer it as an Episcopal residence in the present condition. In order to make it acceptable and proper, a new system of plumbing, heating and lighting must be placed in the house, and various other repairs be made, such as the refinishing of the floors, resetting the tile, and putting in another bath room. Also to build a porch, paint the house, and to make the Bishop's study and private chapel acceptable.

The Chapter has already taken steps to provide a suitable Episcopal residence and your committee recommend that the Bishop appoint from this Council, a committee of two, to act in conjunction with the committee appointed by the Bishop and Chapter.

And that that part of the committee, appointed from the Council, have for their special purpose, that of interesting the entire Diocese in the Episcopal residence, that they may feel a direct and positive interest in the comforts and welfare of the Bishop of the Diocese.

FREDERICK W. OAKES.

OTIS S. JOHNSON.

cil for the Rev. Messrs. Newton and Oakes and they were declared elected.

The Committee on the Extra $1,000 for Diocesan Missions made the following

REPORT.

Your committee appointed to consider that part of the Bishop's address in which he asked for an additional $1,000 to be raised among our Parishes and Missions for the Diocesan Mission work, beg to report, that in view of the general prosperity of the Church in the Diocese as shown by reports made to this Council and owing to the further reason that the assessments for Bishop's salary have been reduced one-half, we believe it thoroughly feasible to plan for the raising of this additional amount asked for by our Bishop, and we recommend therefore:

First. That the sum of $1,000 be added to the whole amount heretofore asked for from the Diocese for the work of Diocesan Missions, and that the total amount so stated be apportioned pro rata among the Parishes and Missions on the basis of their respective communicant lists.

Second. That to aid and encourage the Parishes and Missions in securing their respective apportionments the present excellent method of having Clergy under the Bishop's appointment visit Parishes and Missions other than their own to preach missionary sermons, and, where it is desirable, to receive pledges, be continued.

Third. That we call especial attention of the Clergy to the provisions of Section 2, Canon XV, and we urge a more strict obedience thereto; and we suggest that in order to unify our thought and effort in arousing zeal for Diocesan Missions that the days on which the offerings for Diocesan Missions are taken, under the Canon, be made uniform, say the first Sundays in February, May, August and November.

J. WALLACE GUNN,
OTIS S. JOHNSON.

It was moved that the first recommendation of the committee be adopted.

The Rev. T. A. Schofield moved to amend the first recommendations by striking out the words "and that the total amount so stated be apportioned," etc., and inserting the words "and that the extra $1,000 be raised on the appropriation plan, based on the same ground as the other Diocesan assessments." Carried.

The first recommendation of the committee was adopted as amended.

It was moved that the second recommendation of the committee be adopted. Carried.

The Rev. T. A. Schofield moved that the third recommendation of the committee be laid on the table. Carried.

The Committee on Legislation presented the following

REPORT.

Your Committee on Legislation to whom was referred the proposed amendment of the Constitution of the Diocese, whereby mission stations should be entitled to a Lay vote in Council, under the restrictions set forth in proposed amendment, would respectfully report that they have considered the proposed amendment and refer the matter without recommendation to the consideration of the Council.

A. G. H. BODR.

The report was accepted.

The Rev. F. F. Kramer moved that the amendment in regard to the representation of Missions in the Council be laid upon the table. Lost.

It was moved that the amendment be accepted to be voted upon at the next Annual Council. Carried.

Mr. David Rubidge read the financial report of S. Luke's hospital. (Appendix I.)

The Committee on Finance presented the following

REPORT.

The Committee on Finance respectfully report that they have examined and considered the reports of the several Trust Funds of the Diocese as printed in pamphlet form for the use of the Council. They find these funds to be in an encouraging condition, comparing favorably with their condition in the past.

Your committee have learned with satisfaction of the action of the Chapter in deciding to sell unproductive real estate, and invest in income producing property. This course will be of especial benefit to the Jarvis Endowment Fund. In regard to this fund, it is proper to point out that the $40,000 comprised in the last two items of the statements of assets (page 7 of the pamphlet), stands for property that is not marketable (being connected with the Cathedral Close, and available for general Diocesan purposes, as, for example, the Diocesan House suggested in the Bishop's Address).

The financial condition of Wolfe Hall is particularly satisfactory, as shown in the report submitted to the Council yesterday, and if action can be taken, according to the suggestions of the Bishop, to take hold of the mortgage debt, and reduce its principal year by year, this property will be a very valuable asset.

Your Committee makes no recommendation regarding the Episcopate Fund, there being a special committee appointed on that subject.

BENJAMIN BREWSTER,
THOMAS S. WELLS,
S. F. RATHVON.

The report was accepted.

The Secretary read the following report from Father Byrne.

My Reverend Brethren, and Brethren of the Laity:

Your first thought in coming here to-day must be about your late Bishop, whose venerable form you miss from this Council. His Episcopate will be memorable for the depth of of its self sacrifice, for the magnitude of its labors, for the largeness of its vision. My own acquaintance with Bishop Spalding was made in January last, when I spent four days with him, and found him full of solicitude for the Diocese. Impelled by his desire to have it speedily visited by the new Bishop, I have gone to all the principal parishes and held Confirmations, trying to carry out his wishes that I should go over as much ground as possible before the meeting of this Council. We commend to God's loving mercy his departing servants, and to that mercy we leave the soul of our Father-in-God, to whom our Heavenly Father will grant his rewards in due season.

My own first thought in coming here to-day is the remembrance of that wonderful day—the festival of Saint Philip and Saint James—when in the Cathedral of Saint John the Evangelist I was consecrated a Bishop in the Church of God. I shall never cease to recall with gratitude that care of my Clergy and people to make it a memorable day in the history of our Church here in the West. I knew that if the consecration of the new Bishop could be had in this splendid city, and be carried out with the majesty befitting his office, the Diocese of Colorado and this great commonwealth, the influence of it would be felt among us for many years to come. Certainly no city in this country could have exceeded ours in giving to the world a service, which for real and true dignity and glory has probably seldom ever been equalled.

As I have spent so much of my time in the visitation of Parishes, I have not found an opportunity to go much into the details of our Diocesan institutions and Trust funds. Of St. Luke's hospital I am as yet quite unable to give any impressions, further than to say that the time is ripe for a forward movement in its upbuilding, in order that it may maintain its prestige, and do its work more efficiently.

Wolfe Hall cannot but appeal to the Bishop's heart. I must ask the Council to act with me in the appointment of a committee to raise the amount of its indebtedness at the rate at least of ten thousand dollars a year. The school is a missionary agent of the best sort for the Diocese and must be put on the securest foundation possible.

I spent two mornings at the Home and inspected the books of that institution. The Diocese may well be proud of this unique place, and grateful to its founder for putting it in our hands. It carries out the purpose of those who gave their money for its building and equipment, and fulfils a peculiar and valuable mission.

The following is the record of my Episcopal acts since May first:

May 1st. Presided at a missionary meeting in the Cathedral.

May 2d. Confirmed a sick member of the congregation of the Church of the Redeemer.

In May, I transferred the Rev. Percival Hickman to the Diocese of Los Angeles.

June 2d. I received into the Diocese from the Missionary District of Duluth the Rev. Wm. H. Eastham, now in charge of Golden.

I have baptized one adult and confirmed 307 persons.

I have celebrated the Holy Communion 5 times.

I have received as a postulant Mr. Carlo LeRoy, of Pueblo, formerly a minister among the Lutherans.

The most important work which confronts us in this Diocese just now is that of Diocesan Missions, and in order that this work may be effectually carried on, we must have a strong Board of Missions. There has been a tentative scheme which has not altogether commended itself to my mind. I propose, however, that a Board of Missions be constituted by the Council. This Board shall be composed of one Clergyman and one Layman to be elected by the Council, and of one Clergyman and one Layman to be elected by the Northern Deanery, and of one Clergyman and one Layman to be elected by the Southern Deanery, which persons, six in all, with the Treasurer of Diocesan Missions and the Archdeacon or Archdeacons if there are any, shall, with the Bishop act as a Board of Missions for the Diocese. This will give us a Board not so large that it cannot easily be gotten together, yet large enough to secure wise counsels. If possible, we must raise this year at least one thousand dollars more for Diocesan Missions than we have raised heretofore. There must be put into the field at once at least three more men to fill places not hitherto occupied with resident pastors and this will mean more money.

We are about to lose the services of Archdeacon Grimes, who has made friends all over the Diocese, and whose work has been faithfully and prudently done. It will be hard to fill his place, but it must be filled in some way.

It is sometimes the desire of the Clergy, or their people, to build Churches somewhat beyond their means. I shall not set myself against all indebtedness in the Diocese—as it is sometimes a necessity—but I am quite unwilling to have a Parish burdened for years with the payment of heavy interest in order that a handsome church edifice may be built. We have no right to cripple the energies of a Parish for years to come for the sake of a tower or a chancel. Let us build in this Diocese wisely and prudently, and see to it that our first obligations of giving our Clergy a righteous stipend and our Diocesan and General Missions a fair support, be attended to before we tile our floors and chisel our altars.

My first thought on coming into the Diocese about the Bishop's House was that the people should build a new one, and that Matthews Hall should be made over into a Diocesan House. It was said to me by one who represents many that if I must have the new house I should have it and then I felt strongly a fear that the building of a new house might divert attention from the payment of the Wolfe Hall and S. Luke's Hospital debts, and I have decided to occupy the Hall as my predecessor has done for so many years. I am glad to say the Chapter is to put it in proper repair and a strong committee is at work on the matter. Since I decided to occupy the Hall I have thought that after all it might not lend itself so well to the purposes of a Diocesan House as there could be in it no great hall for general gatherings and that it may be quite possible for the Cathedral authorities and the Chapter to build in common a great house in the Cathedral close which could be used for the purposes of the Diocese and of the Cathedral Parish together. This is a matter to be thought out carefully, and if it can be brought about without diverting the gifts of the people from the payment of the indebtedness above spoken of, it would prove a great benefit to the Cathedral Parish and the Diocese.

I have long studied the question of Sunday Schools, and am convinced both of their usefulness and of their danger. I have found them to be in a multitude of instances a substitute for the Church. It is pathetic to see a hundred children leave the Parish House after the school is over and under the sound of the bell which summons the parishioners to service, go home and leave it to the older members of the Parish to join in the worship of God. I am profoundly set against this perversion of the Church's purposes. If it is not possible to bring young children to both places, bring them to Church and teach them to worship God among His saints and on His holy day. Make your Sunday Schools a help to the Church, and I am heartily in favor of them, but do not let them obscure the services of God's House and the sermons of His ordained servants and ambassadors. The Clergy are careful about their catechizing—or they ought to be—but do we take that care of our young communicants that we should? Few of the Clergy seem to have communicant classes. Few of the communicants seem to meet together from time to time after confirmation as they did before. So the young people after confirmation often drift away and lose their interest in the Church. If the Church does not grow as it should it is due, I fear, in a majority of cases to the fact that we do not keep our eye upon the children who have already been confirmed. Why cannot each Parish have its communicant class meeting every month—say on a Friday evening—for instructions and devotion and spiritual songs? And one evening in the year—say on that of Maundy Thursday—why cannot the Parish Priest bring all his confirmed people together for a sweet, simple service of devotion, trying to make them realize their place and privilege in the Kingdom of God? If you will see to this, you will be doing much for God's glory.

May the Good Spirit be with us in all our deliberations!

CHARLES SANFORD OLMSTED.

"God's Workman."

A Sermon Memorial of the Late Rt. Rev. John Franklin Spalding, D. D., Bishop of Colorado, Delivered by the Rt. Rev. Boyd Vincent, S. T. D., Bishop Coadjutor of Southern Ohio, in St. John's Cathedral, Denver, at the Annual Council of the Diocese of Colorado, June 4th, 1902.

St. John ix: 4. "I must work the works of Him that sent me, while it is day; the night cometh, when no man can work."

These, let us remember, are the words of our Blessed Lord Himself. And as we study them and try to get at their inmost meaning, there seem to be four things of which He is especially conscious here: First, of His own distinct character as a worker; next, of a ceaseless compulsion in His work; then, of a divine mission to it; and, lastly, of the limited time for it. "I must work," He says: "I must." But why? Why, because the work is not his own, but God's, and he is sent to it by God; and then too, because it must be finished "while it is day;" the night cometh, when no man can work."

Hardly had the young Jesus of Nazareth opened His eyes to the meaning of human life, and particularly of His own life, before He declared that He must be a worker:—"Wist ye not," he said, "that I must be about my Father's business?" He had come to reveal God to men, and men to themselves. He had "come to bear witness to the truth." But that truth was to be the truth of life and of love. It was to be embodied in His own Person and wrought out in His own Life of obedience, service and suffering. It must be translated for men in actual deeds of love—in deeds of healing and salvation for their bodies and their souls—

He was to work; and the compulsion of this thought never left him for a single moment. The strenuousness of His spirit was forever breaking out in such words as these: "My Father worketh hitherto and I work;" "I must finish the work which He hath given Me to do." Into that compulsion there went always the recollection of the divine character and so the sacred obligation of the work. It was God the Father's work; and God had "sent" Him to do it. That fact was His inspiration, His authority, His strength and His assurance of success in it all. God—the Almighty God—was behind Him and with Him and in Him. But that same fact was always the sufficient reason, too, for His self-effacement. "For I seek not Mine own glory," He said, "but the glory of Him that sent Me." And, then, besides, there was always that other pressing thought of His limited opportunity. Human life, even at its longest, was all too short. Yet He Himself had but three short years in which to fulfil Himself and also to save a world. He could not afford, therefore, to lose one moment of His working day. The work must be finished. Not all at once. Its ultimate outworking was to be world-wide and age-long. Others would carry it on and out after His own hands were stilled in the night of His human death. But at least the lasting foundations of it all must be laid now, while He had His day. That was His work.

It was in such a spirit, we see, that even the Master's life work was done—under the constant stress of recollection at once of its origin, its character, its obligation and its end. Its accomplishment would be both His Father's glory and also His own sufficient joy and reward. And so His life becomes to us the type of the faithful redemption of the time of every human life.

Here, in this lofty Ideal, we find, I am convinced, the real inspiration and explanation of the other life we are now trying to estimate. In the light of that ideal let us now consider our subject: First as a Man, next as a Priest and lastly as a Bishop.

I. Bishop Spalding, then, was above all things a worker; consciously such, I think. How could this help being so? In his veins ran the blood of the best New England stock for two hundred years—the blood of pioneers, of farmers, of statesmen, and of soldiers—strong men and workers, all of them. That blood told even in his magnificent physique, in his six feet two of bone and muscle, in his handsome face and noble presence. It told again in his strong, logical mind, in his manly self-reliance, in his Puritan strength of conviction and tenacity of purpose. Add to this the equipment and discipline of a complete collegiate and seminary training; and we can hardly wonder at the man's conscious strength—his sense of power to do. For strength must assert and realize itself; it must put itself forth in deeds, in results.

And yet let us not misunderstand him here. He did not work for the mere sake of working. He did love to work. As some one once said of Sir Walter Raleigh: "He could toil terribly," and he did. There was in him much of the gaudium certaminis—the joy of the fray. But all this was, nevertheless, dominated and directed in him by one lofty purpose, which ennobled and sanctified it all. That purpose was work for His God and Master—work for the Church. For he believed profoundly in Jesus Christ as the God-Man, His Saviour and Lord. He believed profoundly in the Church as a divine institution and in the apostolic character of her Ministry. Those of you who have read his solid volumes on "Jesus Christ the Proof of Christianity" and "The Church and its Apostolic Ministry," can never question that. But his faith was not merely a theological one. Those of us who came close to him know how intensely personal, too, his faith was. Simple and trustful, indeed, as a little child's; yet strong and overmastering, too, with a man's gratitude and sense of endless obligation to the Person and service of his Saviour and Lord. And so with regard to his official ministry; as truly as the Father sent the Son to work a work upon this earth; as truly as that Master-Worker in turn sent His apostles to carry on His work; so truly did this man believe himself, standing in that same apostolic line, "sent" to the same work by God and for God. Yet he never allowed the merely temporal concerns of his work, in which he was necessarily so much engrossed, to interfere with his spiritual vision.

night, inviting and of course attracting to the services of the parish church. The whole city was astir over it all. Soon these neighborhood meetings began to develop into local missions; and at length, at the end of ten years, instead of a dead and alive parish with a handful of indifferent, self-absorbed souls, there was a living, working parish of earnest Christians, with a beautiful church building and four mission chapels of its own, with 600 communicants and 1,000 Sunday School scholars. It was a sight to be remembered as, on a bright Easter afternoon, all those congregations and children gathered for their annual service at the Parish church. Surely, all this was full warrant for writing a book on "The Best Mode of Working a Parish." It is still in use in some of our seminaries.

But while there was always this tremendous aggressiveness about him in practical work, Spalding never failed to do the other duties of his priestly office just as faithfully and effectively. All the while he was preaching the strong, stirring sermons and delivering the scholarly, instructive lectures, afterwards embodied in his two other books already referred to. He was not a great scholar, but he was a good one. He was a constant student and reader along the lines of his profession and outside them. He had a well balanced and well disciplined mind, a clear, vigorous expression and always a masterly grasp of his subject. He was as forceful and direct in his sermons as he was in his character and work. He preached from conviction and so was always effective. He never rambled. He was never misty or mooney. There never was any uncertain sound in him. If he lacked grace of manner in the pulpit, he redeemed it by his championship of the truth: and his people, who believed in him, listened to what he said and believed that, too.

He was, in the fullest sense of the word, a pastor to his people. He did his whole duty in his Sunday School and by his confirmation classes. He was an ever-welcome guest in the homes of his people. He was their universal counsellor and friend, in health and happiness as well as in suffering and sorrow. He knew no distinction among them of rich and poor. To him they were all alike Christ's people and his people. Witness one little incident, when once, on returning from a month's absence at General Convention, he went straight from the railway station to the bedside of one of his sick poor, before going even to his own home!

What wonder that the people of his old parish revered and loved him so! What wonder that thirty years after when, by such a strange Providence, he died in their midst, the old fountains of affection and gratitude, never closed, should have poured themselves out again in such a tribute of love and devotion over his remains, as if he were only their's still, as if he had never gone from them.

Even while so occupied with his own Parish work Spalding was almost as devoted and active in the work of diocesan missions. As Dean of his Convocation he not only inspired and directed others, but he was also frequently in the field himself, preaching and building and raising funds. Many a parish in that Convocation to-day owes its existence or prosperity largely to his origination or timely encouragement. And if the Diocese of Pittsburgh had been then divided, as was sometimes urged, he would undoubtedly have become the first Bishop of Erie.

It was during this period of his life, too—his Erie rectorship—that Spalding seems to have initiated a movement which has since become very general in the Church. This was in connection with organized woman's work; and was undoubtedly the outcome of his own successful experience of such work, in his own parish. In a pamphlet on the subject prepared by Mrs. Twing in 1880, she says distinctly: "In looking up the matter in the Journals, I found that Bishop Spalding's recorded interest in it dated some years back, as he offered a Resolution on the subject of Organized Woman's Work during the session of the General Convention in 1868, and another during the session of 1871, which seems to have introduced the idea specifically to the Church, as they were followed up by tolerably full reports to the House of Deputies, of which he was then a member, and afterwards by still more interesting discussion and action in the Board of Missions." The subject had originally been introduced in the House of Bishops in 1862 and then lost sight of. But Mrs. Twing's pamphlet shows plainly that it was Dr. Spalding's resolution in '68 and '71 which really brought and kept the subject to the front. In 1872 appeared Bishop Potter's volume on "Deaconesses and Sisterhoods in the Church." Meanwhile a joint committee, of which Dr. Spalding was a member, had formally recommended (1) the establishment of training schools for these Orders and (2) the erection, by the general missionary authorities, of the "Ladies Domestic Relief Association," then existing in a few parishes, into a "Woman's Auxiliary Missionary Society," "with branches in every parish in the land." Those recommendations were adopted; and on the strength of them, in 1872, the Woman's Auxiliary was organized. So that if Dr. Spalding did not wholly originate, he probably did more than any other man to establish that admirable institution, now everywhere the promoter of missionary intelligence and zeal among us, and which, besides all its annual contributions, turns in $100,000 triennially to our general missionary treasury. Surely such an important piece of history is worthy of record here; and this is meant to be a fair statement of it.

III. By this time Dr. Spalding and his remarkable parish work were, of course, well known to the entire Church; and when, in 1873, she wanted the right man to succeed Bishop Randall, she knew where to look for him and she found him.

Bishop Spalding was consecrated and came out early in 1874. Colorado was territorially an empire even by itself; but when to this enormous jurisdiction were added Arizona and New Mexico on the one hand and on the other Wyoming also, the newcomer must have felt, like Bishop Kemper of old, as if he were literally "The Bishop of all out-doors." To be asked to develop and organize such a field was a tremendous burden to have laid on any man's soul. But his soul was equal at least to undertaking it. Indeed the spirit of the man rang out clear again in the text of his very first sermon among you viz.: "To preach the gospel to the regions beyond."

He was as good as his word. He plunged instantly into the work of his vast field. And he seems like an heroic figure, indeed, as we think of him now in those far off days, still strong and energetic and confident, traveling over those great territories by stage or on horseback, through sandy deserts and along mountain trails, preaching in mining towns and Indian camps, sleeping on the ground and eating by the roadside, holding steadily aloft before the eyes and hearts of his hearers the banner of the Cross, winning everywhere respect for his message and for himself.

When he came to the field he found in it only ten clergy. There were but seven Episcopal churches in Colorado—only two of them self supporting. Wyoming had but two clergy, New Mexico none. Soon, however, new chapels were being built, parsonages erected, parishes organized. Gradually, as the Church could provide for the other territories, he was relieved of their care and so enabled to give his whole time and strength to Colorado. As a result, this was shortly erected into an independent diocese. Population was now fast pouring into the state, railways being built, the vast mining and grazing interests being developed, towns springing up every where and Denver rapidly giving promise of being what it is to-day—the metropolis of the Eastern Rocky Mountain Slope, Meanwhile, looking at all this with the eye of a statesman, Bishop Spalding had forecast the brilliant future of his see and diocese, and with the judgment and skill of a first-rate financier had begun to put his diocesan affairs on a firm financial basis. The buildings occupied by the School of Mines in Golden were wisely sold and provision made for securing and reducing the large indebtedness of the diocese. Large tracts of then cheap but now valuable property were bought in more promising Denver. Permanent funds for the endowment of the episcopate and for theological training were thus established.

Believing, as every thoughtful and experienced churchman must, not only in the best secular education but also in the advantage of daily religious and churchly teaching for our children, Bishop Spalding built Wolfe Hall for girls and rebuilt Jarvis Hall for boys. Believing under his circumstances, in the training of his own clergy under his own eye and in the field where they were to work, he built Matthews Theological School. Believing rightly that every bishop, like every other clergyman, ought to have his own church where he can preside by right, where the Gospel can be most impressively preached and the highest and most attractive ideals of worship can be realized; believing that every diocese ought, for its own good, to have such a center of unity and mission work; believing also, for the sake of the whole Church, that in every see city there should be this visible symbol of the episcopate, so fundamental to our polity as a constituent part of Christ's Church Catholic; believing all this, he founded and organized ideally S. John's Cathedral, now one of the glories of Denver. And, seeing the needs of a great city population and the growing popularity of Colorado as a sanitorium, he was largely instrumental in the establishment of your noble S. Luke's Hospital and of your beautiful Home for Consumptives.

In short, with your co-operation, he very largely made Colorado in strength, in organization, in property and in endowments, what it is to-day—one of the foremost dioceses of the Church. There are now more than 100 Episcopal churches in Colorado. The number of communicants has increased from 500 to 5,000.

IV. You know all this history, of course, much better than outsiders. You, too, thus learned to respect and love your Bishop for what he was in himself; and looking back now at the whole course and results of his episcopate, must appreciate more and more what he did for you and be accordingly thankful. Others of your fellow citizens, as shown by your local press, have rightly regarded him as at once one of the great pioneers and civilizers who have made your city and state what they are to-day. But it is doubtful whether you here even yet realize how high an estimate is put by the Church in the East on his very marked character and manifold labors. For instance, I remember once, when still a missionary bishop, he hesitatingly offered in the House of Bishops some resolution, it was enthusiastically seconded by one of our greatest diocesan bishops, with these words: "I hardly feel worthy to stoop down and unloose the shoes of a man who is doing such work as his." We see all things at last in a true perspective. And some day, if it be not even now, the name of John Franklin Spalding, Bishop of Colorado, will be written high on the list of the missionary heroes of the Church, as one who served his Divine Master faithfully and did his whole duty.

Of course no such intense and effective life as his is ever lived, except at enormous cost to the man himself. Into all such devoted service must go, necessarily, the very best life blood of the servant. And so it was here. No servant of God could ever say more truly, "The zeal of thine House hath even consumed me." Yet how steadfast and self-reliant and persevering he was in it all! How faithfully he remained at his post, laboring on through the years, developing and using his own resources, instead of exploiting the East for outside help! How he ever bore so long the great strain of effort and, above all, the great burden of financial responsibility and anxiety which were his, is inexplicable. But he never complained or drew back, while strength was left him. He "endured hardness" with all the fortitude of "the good soldier of Jesus Christ." There was in him the stuff of the true martyr. His character in this respect was well sketched by one of yourselves in these words, when he was described as "resourceful, indomitable, unsparing."

But his work is done. The day ended. The night came. And if, looking back now at his whole ministry—at its aim and at its end—we were to try to sum it all up in a single word, that word should be—accomplishment! Like his Divine Master to the Father, he, too, could have said to that Master and to the Church: "I have finished the work which Thou gavest me to do." This thought was his constant inspiration from the beginning, his legitimate satisfaction in the end. It was his true joy and his sufficient reward.

May a double portion of his spirit now rest upon his successor!

APPENDIX TO MEMORIAL SERMON.

FROM "THE WESTERN CHURCHMAN."

Bishop Spalding came of an old and patriotic American family, of Puritan stock. He was born in Belgrade, Kennebec county, Maine, August 25, 1828. In 1619 two brothers, Edmond and Edward, came to this county from Lincolnshire, England. Edmond settled in Maryland and Edward in Virginia, first, then went to Massachusetts making his home at Braintree. Some years later he and his son, Colonel John Spalding, with others incorporated the town of Chelmsford, Colonel John Spalding figured prominently in King Philip's war, and had a son, Joseph, who followed the martial path of his father and became an officer, a lieutenant in the Revolutionary army. A brother, Hon. Simeon Spalding, was a member of Washington's staff and afterwards a statesman of no little eminence in the commonwealth of Massachusetts. Jesse, son of Lieutenant John, engaged in farming at Chelmsford. Although a very young man at the time of the Revolution he bore arms under Washington.

The father of Bishop Spalding, John, son of Jesse, removed from Chelmsford to Maine, settling on a tract of land lying on the Kennebec river, and holding the office of selectman of Belgrade. John Spalding had four children by his first marriage, John Franklin, the late Bishop being the eldest.

The future Bishop of the Diocese of Colorado fitted himself for college at Camden, Kent's Hill, Maine, Wesleyan Seminary and North Yarmouth Academy. He entered Bowdoin College in 1849 and graduated in 1853 with the degree of A. B., later receiving the degree of A. M. and D. D. He was a classmate of Melville Weston Fuller, now chief justice of the United States, and a warm friend throughout life.

Young Spalding taught school after his graduation as principal of the East Pittston, Maine, Academy for one year, and preceptor of Dennysville Academy in the winter and spring terms of 1854. In October of that year he entered the General Theological Seminary of the Protestant Episcopal Church, New York City, from which he graduated June 24, 1857. July 8th he was ordained deacon of S. Stephen's Church, Portland, Maine, and August 1st was appointed missionary to S. James' Church, Oldtown, Maine; July 14, 1858, ordained priest by Bishop Burgess in Christ Church, Gardiner, Maine; August 1, 1859, appointed rector of S. George's Church, Lee, Massachusetts; November 1, 1860, became assistant minister of Grace Church, Providence, Rhode Island, of which Bishop Clark was the rector; November 1, 1861, he dissolved his connection with that Church and April 1, 1862, became rector of S. Paul's Church, Erie, Pennsylvania, where he remained for twelve years, and of which his son, Rev. Franklin S. Spalding, is now the rector.

It was in Erie that the energy characteristic of Bishop Spalding became noticeable. In 1865 he secured funds for the erection of a church at a cost of $65,000. He was a member of the Board of Missions of the Church for the Diocese of Pittsburg. In 1866 he organized S. John's Church of Erie, and in 1867 built the church, costing $5,000. In 1868 he was a member of the General Convention, meeting in New York. In October, 1871, he was a member of the General Convention that met in Baltimore. In the meanwhile he had built the Church of the Cross and Crown and Trinity Chapel in Erie.

September 28, 1873, he was unanimously elected, and December 31st, was consecrated Bishop of Colorado, Wyoming and New Mexico, succeeding Bishop Randall. He reached Denver February 27, 1874, and at once entered upon his duties. He was the second Missionary Bishop to this state, and was also provisional Bishop of Arizona and New Mexico.

In Erie Bishop Spalding had married Lavina Spencer, who was born there. She was the daughter of Judah C. Spencer, a native of Connecticut, and, like her husband, a descendant of Revolutionary ancestors.

In 1881 New Mexico was taken out of the field, and in 1887 Wyoming was formed into another Diocese.

Bishop Spalding built the Wolfe school for girls and Jarvis Hall, recently burned down, also Matthews Hall theological school, and was instrumental in the erection of S. Luke's Hospital and the Home for Consumptives in North Denver.

The diocese, owning property valued at $56,000, was in debt. If in anything Bishop Spalding excelled it was as a financier. At the time the Bishop began his task of freeing the diocese from debt the Church owned the buildings occupied by the School of Mines at Golden. The institutions in Denver were first relieved, the missions given rectors. The Episcopate fund, which now is $125,000, was established. The Theological Endowment Fund was established. Other trusts, all valuable, go to swell the aggregate Church property that has placed the Colorado diocese as nearing fifth in wealth in the United States.

There are now more than 100 Episcopal churches in Colorado. More than half are credited to the Bishop's efforts. The number of communicants has been increased from 500 to 5,151.

This is a remarkable record when it is taken into consideration that in 1874 there were but seven Episcopal churches in the territory. But two, S. John's of Denver and S. Paul's of Central City, were self-sustaining. In Wyoming there were only two Episcopal churches. New Mexico had none. One of Bishop Spalding's first successful endeavors was to establish the Indian boarding school at Lander, Wyoming.

Bishop Spalding in his trips through the mountains made no enemies, only converts. Indians, gamblers, men who gloried in the reputation of being "bad," respected him. The famous chiefs, Washakie of the Shoshones, Ouray, Colow, made him welcome and came to hear him preach. In after days the Bishop dwelt upon the friendship of Mrs. Jessie Benton Fremont, wife of General Fremont, who established the first Episcopal Church in Arizona at Prescott.

Bishop Spalding has been honored by his Church. Three times he has gone to London to attend international conventions of Bishops.

The degree of D. D. was conferred upon him by both Bowdoin and Trinity Colleges. He published "The Church and Her Apostolic Ministry" (1886); "The Best Mode of Working a Parish" (used in the Syracuse, New York, Theological Seminary) "Jesus Christ, the Proof of Christianity" (1889), and numerous pamphlets and magazine articles. He was a member of the Sons of the Revolution, elected as its first president, serving for two years; also of the New York Society of Colonial Wars, and the Colorado society, of which he was president for two years.

In point of service Bishop Spalding was next to the oldest Bishop west of the Mississippi. For some time he has been failing gradually in health, due, in great measure, to the hardships and rigors of his early life in the West. He went to Erie to visit his son, Rev. Frank Spalding, who was ill, and died while there.

Bishop Spalding leaves a widow and four children. Frank Spalding is a graduate of Princeton and Rector of St. Paul's Church, Erie; William, also a graduate of Princeton, is engaged in business in Denver; Elizabeth and Sarah were given splendid advantages, Miss Elizabeth being well known in New York for her art work. Miss Sarah is a graduate of Vassar. A fifth child, John Edward, died in Erie.

The origin of the foregoing fund was a gift of $10,000 in the fall of 1870, to Bishop Randall by Mr. George A. Jarvis of Brooklyn, N. Y. The amount to be invested until it amounted to $20,000. On the 9th day of November, 1872, Bishop Randall reported to Mr. Jarvis, that the fund amounted to $14,134. He died on Sept. 28, 1873. On the 23d day of May, 1874, Bishop Spalding reported the fund to be about $20,000. There is therefore an increase in the permanent fund of over $100,000, under Bishop Spalding's management. In addition to this gain in permanent fund, income amounting to 80 per cent of the original gift has been paid toward the education of young men for the sacred ministry.

The Seth Low Trust was created by Mr. A. A. Bowhay in 1895 as follows: In October 1894 it appeared to the Bishop and Chapter, that Wolfe Hall and Lots 5, 6, 7, Block 129, East Denver, would be lost to the Diocese owing to the disastrous effects of the panic of 1893, Wolfe Hall then having a large current indebtedness for plumbing, etc. at Wolfe Hall in addition to the mortgage debt of $60,000.00 and of $21,200.00 due the Jarvis Endowment Fund. Mr. Bowhay as committee and agent of The Bishop and Chapter, went to New York in November 1894 to secure a larger loan to pay off all the indebtedness. Owing to the prejudice aroused against Colorado in New York at that time, no financial concern would consider any loan in Colorado.

In this emergency the financial condition was laid before the Hon. Seth Low, then President of Columbia College. He judged from the facts laid before him, that if $22,000.00 could be secured there would be no need of the increase of mortgage debt, and generously offered to be one of ten to give $22,000.00, provided he could be assured, that the amount given would not be lost. During the year 1895, total gifts in money and real estate were secured of $22,000.00 on condition that Lot 7, Block 129, East Denver, be sold to the Jarvis Endowment Fund for $21,200.00 to cancel the debt and conditionally that Lots 5 and 6, Block 129, East Denver, be a separate trust to be known as the Seth Low Trust.

Mr. Bowhay after some months of work paid the money to The Bishop and Chapter on October 12, 1895, and had deeded to the Chapter the other real estate now in the Seth Low Trust, said trust being defined in the Council Journal of 1900.

Addenda to the Report of the Bishop and Chapter of the Cathedral of S. John, the Evangelist, Denver, Colorado.

In submitting the report of the Chapter, attention is called to some items not shown in the receipts and disbursements. Gifts have been made, which were not paid directly to the account of the Chapter, among them being a gift of $2,000 to Bishop Spalding by Dr. W. A. Bell of Manitou and a New York friend, the amount being applied by Bishop Spalding toward payment of $3,600, borrowed from the the Denver National Bank on account of Wolfe Hall.

The late Bishop Spalding also cancelled $5,477.15 of notes given by the Jarvis Endowment Fund during the years 1896 to 1899, and paid $1,300 of notes due by Jarvis Hall to one of the banks for a number of years. Jarvis Hall was destroyed by fire last year. The insurance was not enough to pay the loan upon the property, so a proposal was made to the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co. to sell and deed them the land in cancellation of the remaining indebtedness, which they agreed to and the deed has been delivered.

In the Bishop and Chapter's report which has been printed for your inspection and information, are full financial reports showing the status of each Trust fund for which the Chapter is directly responsible. There is a trial balance showing the current accounts, the bills payable accounts, and the real estate accounts. All the assets and liabilities are stated in full.

As the assets consist chiefly of real estate the Real Estate Committee's valuation is attached to each piece of property. According to these valuations, the assets of the Jarvis Endowment Trust amounts to $132,643.59—over one hundred thousand dollars of this amount has been added to this fund while under the management of the late Bishop Spalding.

The County Assessor's valuation of these assets amounts to over $80,000, and does not include two pieces of non taxable property, which the Chapter's committee value at $40,000.

The following figures show the net assets of the other trusts in real estate alone:

Wolfe Hall.....	$137,254 10
Seth Low Trust	30,866 62
Dyer & Potter Trust	41,400 00
Church Sites Trust.....	17,000 00

Diocesan Mission Trust.....	$ 6,575 00
Church School Building Sites.....	525 00
The Home.....	184,680 80
The Episcopate Fund.....	71,700 00
Matthews Hall.....	24,000 00

There is a gross total of real estate of the value of $741,812.48; from this you must deduct an indebtedness of $89,840.11 of which $87,080.45 has been borrowed on account of Wolfe Hall. The indebtedness of the other funds, practically amounts to nothing, and is chiefly for the current taxes.

By these reports you will find that the net real estate assets alone of the several Trusts in the Chapter amount to $351,972.37.

This does not include the Maintenance Fund of "The Home" amounting to over $100,000, or the new Adams Memorial Trust of $30,000; the Jessup Trust of $6,000; the Eddy Trust of $5,000; the Rochefort Trust of $5,000. The aggregate totals including these will make the assets of the various Trusts in the Chapter amount to over $900,000.

This amount it must be distinctly understood does not include the property of any Parish Church or organized Mission Trust.

At the regular Chapter meeting in November, 1901, the late Bishop Spalding being present and consenting, the Chapter fixed a price on all the saleable property of these Trusts not income bearing, and during the coming year much of the unimproved property will be sold.

During the past ten years the financial affairs of the Chapter were a source of great anxiety to the late Bishop Spalding, but the Chapter is gratified to report, (that if we except the fire of Jarvis Hall) that not only have there been no losses, but a very substantial increase in all the Trusts of the Diocese, for not even in the best years preceding 1893, did the Trusts equal the amount they do to-day. The credit for this is very largely due to our late Bishop Spalding and to the many friends of his who have aided him by frequent and generous gifts.

Respectfully submitted. The Bishop and Chapter, etc., by

ARNOLD A. BOWHAY.

Right Rev. Bishop Olmsted and Gentlemen:

Another year closes its pages in the history of The Home, and the year has been more filled than ever before, if possible, with the direct evidences of the present favor and pleasure of God. The work has been enlarged and protected in a marvelous degree. The year that has passed has seen the commencement, and almost the completion, of three new enterprises in connection with its work.

Last summer, my health seemed to demand that I absent myself from the work for a season or suffer seriously, therefore, through the summer I rested and at the same time studied the Sanitorial work as it is being done in Germany and England. Although The Home was never intended to be a sanitarium, still much that is most important in all work for the sick is brought into use here. THE CHURCH HOME is all this work planned to be, but to possess all that is important in the sanitary line, and to possess the means of accomplishing the greatest good for the greatest number; therefore, with eye and ear wide open, I visited with greatest interest, the most famous Sanitoria in the world, probably, for the care and treatment of the tubercular patient, those at Falkenstein, Konegstein, Rupertsheim, and in the Black Forest, the most famous, at Nordrach Dorf and Nordrach Colonie, the latter being the most interesting; also, the famous Hospital and Sanitorium at Ventnor, on the southern shore of the Isle of Wight, which I have for years been most anxious to visit.

The day was when Germany possessed the ideals for such works for the world, especially the American World, and the ideal talked of by so many, because it was far away, and they could tell you what Germany had, etc., and they never quite knew whether it did possess them or not, and certainly the listeners would not know. That day has passed; the greatest ideals in sanitary work, in Hospitals and Sanitoria, are now in America; for all the advantages possessed by the others, we have, and have greatly enlarged upon them.

It is not proper for the American people to rest and say "See what great things we have done," but it is proper and wise to have a just appreciation of what we have, and to understand in truth how wonderfully God has blessed the efforts put forward in behalf of the sufferers who are here in our country. I do not say it boastfully, but I humbly believe that The Church Home in Colorado is doing as much for the bodily and spiritual welfare of Consumptives, so called, if not more than any other institution in the world. It is not exactly working in the same line; that is, it has no physician in charge of the medical work, because this was not the purpose. It was not an effort to house in a Sanatoria the consumptive, under sanitorial restrictions, but the rather to demonstrate the blessings of the HOME LIFE for those who were health seekers, seeking health in a place far from their own homes.

Of course much may be said for and against all methods of meeting apparent needs, especially those of the sick. The purpose of the founders of this Church Home was to meet the needs, as seen by them, of the homeless. It has not been a perfect demonstration that it is altogether the best method, but we feel that the greater part of the evidence is decidedly in favor of the enterprise. Its constant demand, its enlargement, its results, speak encouragement to us, and seem to fully justify the means and the methods in use.

The condition of the buildings is perfect; not one thing has been allowed to drop or deteriorate. The grounds are beautiful and kept in a pleasing condition. The kitchens have been seven years in constant use, and are just being renovated, new floors, ranges, etc., etc., at a cost of nearly a thousand dollars. The bath rooms and halls to them have all been done in white tile. The buildings have been painted at a cost of $1,000. A new sun porch is being built in front of Heartsease. A revolving sun chamber built, and a new creamatory and sterilizer, for all the floor sweepings, refuse matter, and sputum is being built, planned and built by Frederick W. Field of Syracuse, New York, late of the U. S. Army, and whose methods have found the greatest favor of the Government. There will be no apparatus more complete and effective in the world. This brings the sanitary arrangements to as nearly a perfect state as at present is known. These are each and all the individual gifts of those who for years have been friends of the Church Home. Beside these a remarkable blessing has been added in the shape of a cottage for families, who coming for health and with limited means, must rent a furnished house, and these are expensive and difficult to secure, having proper sanitary conditions and proper comforts. This cottage is in memory of a noble, christian woman, "Abby Sherwood Jesup," given by her son, Morris K. Jesup of New York, and is to bear her name, and to be rented for a sum sufficient only to keep it in repair and in perfect condition. The inestimable blessing and comfort of this will be only apparent to those who have known such families struggling for the comforts of home under these conditions. This cottage will be ready for occupancy about July 1st.

Another acquirement has been the recent purchase of a Nurse's Home, a house of nine rooms, with sufficient ground to add to as may be required in the future. This was the gift of Mr. William D. Sloane, whose wife built the "Emily House," and whose interest has been inspiring and helpful from the very inception of The Home.

And now I have to tell you of perhaps the most remarkable addition to the possibilities of the great effort to meet the needs of all classes of these sick. They come to us from all classes and with all degrees of ability to help themselves. The Home proper is for those who can afford a greater degree of comforts, but there are many who can pay but little, and it has been the prayer and effort of those directly interested in The Home to know how to meet the needs of those who are less able. This has been met through God's goodness and by His direction. One Mr. Charles L. Adams, who in memory of his beloved, deceased wife, has given the large sum necessary for the building and furnishing a new Home, to be known as the "Mrs. Charles L. Adams Memorial Home." In this Home, to be run entirely separate from The Home proper, the purpose is to give a simple but comfortable home, nourishing food, and the needed care for the sum of $25.00 per month. This building is to have its own kitchens, dining room, parlor and office, and will be opened for the reception of guests on September 1st, D. V. This same gentleman is to also set aside a sufficient sum of money to assist in the care of a limited number of destitute sick, on condition that a certain sum be realized to supplement this gift by September 1st. This Home will be for those who give the knowledge that they cannot pay a larger sum, and who bring credentials properly endorsed.

The purposes of The Home in toto have been placed before Bishop Olmsted. The entire belongings have also been placed in his hands, and he possesses every data respecting The Home from its very beginning, and he is conversant with every detail, so far as it has been possible so to do, of which I presume he will speak in his first official address to this Diocese, as he makes it before the Council.

Bishop's Spalding's love, sympathy, and uninterrupted interest were always of the truest and most helpful sort. His pride in this Church work he was never slow to express, both in private and public, and through his interest came great help from time to time. He kindly consented to apply for the purchase of the grounds on which The Home stands, a part of property placed in his hands for "The extension of the Church work in Colorado," which was of great help and blessing to the work, and I trust may ever serve as a blessing indeed to this class of sick strangers whose cause should appeal to every Christian mind and heart.

It may be of interest to note from what sources the guests have come.

Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary.

The first service of the Eighteenth Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary was held in S. John's Cathedral, Monday evening, June 2, 1902, consisting of Evening Prayer, and a most earnest sermon by Bishop C. S. Olmsted from Rev. 2: 19.

"I know thy works and charity, and service and faith, and thy patience and thy works, and the last to be more than the first." God knows our work better than we do ourselves, and it should be spiritual to bring men to the knowledge of God, with a true deep motive, having charity for all. Personal service, love, faith and patience. We expect much of these women. All these things shall grow apace and bear good fruit if earnest prayers are offered. The end will be peace and righteousness forever."

Tuesday morning Holy Communion was celebrated at 10 o'clock by the Bishop, assisted by Rev. J. W. Gunn and Rev. F. F. Kramer.

At 11 a. m. the Auxiliary met in the Crypt to listen to the addresses from the Missionaries of the Diocese, and reports of the various Guilds.

Archdeacon Grimes read his report for the year. He had made over 1,000 calls and written over 700 letters. He said those in cities had no conception of the hunger and thirst of those outside for the Church and the word of God.

Mr. Haupt of La Junta who has charge also of Rocky Ford, Manzanola and Nepesta, had tried to hold the ground.

Mr. Gunn said Florence had suffered greatly by the removal of the railroad shops and closing down of mills. It is improving but still needs help.

Mr. McLaughlin said Victor had a most flourishing Guild, but needed the spiritual tide developed.

Mr. Lehman of Pueblo told of his work at S. James' and his colored mission.

Mr. Schofield said Cripple Creek was in excellent condition although quite a number had moved away, but they had gone to some other place which would be greatly helped and encouraged by them. That they had a Woman's Auxiliary, and had filled their pledge. All who had been at Gillette had moved away but paid their pledge of five dollars before going.

Mr. George was not present but greatly desired to have the Auxiliary take an interest in Empire.

Mr. Reedy, who is doing mission work in Northern Colorado, told of Mrs. Stowell's work at Magnolia, that she had a most interesting Sunday School there.

Mr. Sibbald of Boulder said that mission work ought to be done at Erie, Berthoud, Louisville and Lafayette.

The gift of an altar, by a member of S. Stephen's Church, Colorado Springs, to Rocky Ford, was reported by Mrs. Spalding.

Mr. Smith told of the earnest work done by Epiphany Mission.

Mr. Symington, formerly of Las Animas, now of S. Luke's, Montclair, spoke encouragingly of his work.

Mrs. Goddard reported for S. Stephen's Church, Colorado Springs, a goodly amount of Missionary work, pledge paid, work done for S. Luke's Hospital, amounting in all to $258.50.

The report from Canon City showed the pledge of $30.00 paid and much good work done.

Mrs. Schofield reported a study class during the year, on Japan, at Cripple Creek. The Junior Auxiliary there had made 102 towels and some pillow slips for S. Luke's Hospital.

Golden reported by Mrs. Eastham that Calvary Church had paid its pledge of $10.00

Littleton reported good work done by the Guild and Girl's Friendly Society.

Mrs. Milo Smith gave a verbal report of work done at the Cathedral, several boxes having been sent and money raised.

Mrs. Marshall of S. Barnabas' reported one box of very choice things sent.

Mrs. Burnham reported that S. Mark's had sent a box valued at $60.00 and some smaller Churches had helped some. They had also worked for S. Luke's Hospital during Advent and paid their pledge, as had also S. Stephen's, Emmanuel and Epiphany, besides working for S. Luke's.

Mrs. Milo Smith told of the pleasant trolley ride given by the Woman's Auxiliary to the visiting delegates on Monday afternoon, and afterwards the delightful reception given by Mrs. N. G. Burnham, First Vice President, at which some two hundred were present.

A letter in regard to the Missionary apportionment from Miss Emery was read by the Recording Secretary, and one of greeting from her, by the Corresponding Secretary.

Benediction was pronounced by Rev. Father Byrne.

Mention of the Girl's Friendly Society was made by Miss Elizabeth Spalding who is the Diocesan head of the work in Colorado.

At one o'clock luncheon was served to the Auxiliary in the Crypt.

The business meeting in the Chapel at 2 p. m. was opened with prayers by Bishop Olmsted, and singing. The Bishop made a short address, asking for help in sustaining his work. He looks to the Woman's Auxiliary for it, and asked God to bless it, and all its works.

Minutes of the last Annual Meeting were read and approved, and a resume of the meetings of the Denver branch for the year were read. The Treasurer's report was read and approved. Every Parish that had promised had paid its pledge. $273.00 had been sent in October 1901, to the Triennial Council for the United Offering.

A letter was read by the President from dear Father Byrne enclosing $5.00 for the Woman's Auxiliary.

Alban's, Florence, therefore it was moved by Mrs. Milo Smith and seconded by Mrs. Goddard, that the money contributed by the Guilds to the Altar Department, $37.00, be given for an altar to S. Alban's Church, Florence. This resolution was carried.

Mrs. Milo Smith requested on behalf of all the members of the Woman's Auxiliary that an expression of appreciation of the help given us so many years by our beloved President be spread on the minutes, and moved that Mrs. Spalding be made Honorary President. Church Periodical Club's Report.

The year seemed a very short one, when asked again by our President of the Auxiliary for another report of the Church Periodical Club work. A marked interest has been shown among our church members during the past year and which it is believed will continue to increase as the work becomes better known. First on the list is the Cathedral report. The work of our efficient librarian Mrs. Fulton. Number of senders, 19. Periodicals, weekly and monthly 36. Money contributed $1.25. A box of 58 books, including an Oxford Bible was sent to Dakota for people who live in "claim shanties" on the prairies.

A box of 20 books containing a Bible, two of Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress, and 20 magazines, was sent to the jail, and 50 new Prayer Books and 50 new Hymnals, four with music, were sent to a mission in Utah.

Fifty-seven Easter Cards freshened with new ribbons were taken to S. Luke's Hospital on Easter Even.

In the Churchman of May 24th, Mrs. Chapin, Gen Sec. of the C P. C. speaks of a letter from a Virginia clergymen, who writes: "The Churchman lies on my breakfast table every Saturday morning like a ray of sunshine." She says they receive not only such letters of thanks, but many pathetic and beseeching appeals from those whom it has not yet been able to supply through lack of funds and material.

I am glad to report the organization of three new parish branches during the past year, St. Peter's, Trinity Memorial, and St. Barnabas'; of these the latter has been formed only within the last few weeks and has no finished work to report; however the members meet one afternoon in the month for missionary study, which they find most interesting. S. Mark's also reports missionary study classes, as well as auxiliary meetings during the year when children from other parishes were present. The Epiphany branch felt this year that their work must be devoted towards the needs of their own parish and report an organ purchased for the new church. They too, have given time and thought to the study of missions.

I am afraid none of us fully realize the tremendous importance of Junior work. Now is the time to inspire the children with love for their church and with missionary zeal; in a few years their hands will control the future of the Church and State and it is our responsibility to sow the good seed that in due time it will surely bring forth much fruit, so that when we, the women of the auxiliary to-day, shall answer the summons to leave our place, and lay down our work in this earthly life, they will take up our unfinished and imperfect task, and with broadened intellect, widened sympathy, and a fuller understanding of the two great commandments, "Love towards God, love to man, bring it to a glorious completion."

Respectfully submitted,

EDITH J. BENT,
Secretary for Colorado Juniors.

In the absence of the Treasurer of Diocesan Missions, Mr. Bowhay read this report. (Appendix J.)

The Secretary read the following communication from the Diocese of Milwaukee, on the subject of Extra Diocesan Courts of Appeal:

WHEREAS, Recent events that have been widely published and discussed in the public press, have illustrated anew the grave evils resulting from the neglect in this Church to make canonical provision for extra-diocesan Courts of Appeals in cases of the trial of a clergyman; a neglect that renders both the minister who may be defendant, and the Bishop who may act as trial judge or may pronounce sentence after trial, liable to the gravest injustice or suspicion of injustice, by reason of the impossibility of granting or receiving a new trial upon appeal to a higher court; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Diocese of Milwaukee, which has happily been free from any instances of the trial of any of her clergy for a long term of years, earnestly petitions General Convention to grant some form of relief, by provision for extra-diocesan Courts of Appeals, for the protection alike of the Bishops and the other clergy of this Church; and

Resolved, further, that such relief can, in the opinion of this Diocese, be most satisfactorily effected by means of a wise provision for the grouping of Dioceses and Missionary Districts together in a Provincial System designated to embrace the whole country, by due provision of Canon, according to the terms of Article VII of the Constitution; and

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Council be and is hereby instructed to communicate this action to the Secretaries of the several Diocesan Councils, Conventions, and Synods of the Church in this country, with the request that it be brought to the attention of each of the said Diocesan bodies; and that this Diocese earnestly requests the co-operation of each of such bodies, if it shall seem good to any of them, in presenting to the General Convention of 1904 a body of petitions from every Diocese embodying the preamble and the first or the first and second of these resolutions, or others of like import, at their own discretion, to the end that the mind of the Church at large on this important and pressing matter may be distinctly shown; and this Diocese would appreciate the courtesy of any other Diocese that would inform their Secretary what action, if any, might be taken therein under this invitation.

The minutes as corrected were approved.

The Rev. Mr. Haupt then read the following report of the Committee on the Woman's Auxiliary:

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

Your Committee would voice the sentiment of the Council of the Diocese, that its appreciation of the work of the Woman's Auxiliary is well nigh beyond expression.

If it were not for the faithful, the self-sacrificing and never wearying devotion of the women of the Church, the work of the Church would be so seriously impeded that the burden laid upon the Clergy would be too great to be borne.

Recognizing, as we heartily and thankfully do, the great value of the Woman's Auxiliary, we urge that every woman communicant be personally solicited to become a member of the Auxiliary; That every device be adopted to keep every woman in living touch with the work of the Auxiliary, and we pledge ourselves to do our utmost to fill the ranks of this army of workers, so that every woman may find a name and place in its organization

The Rev. J. W. Heal read the following report of the Committee on the Clergy Relief Fund, and moved the adoption of the resolution contained in it. The resolution was adopted.

REPORT.

The Committee to which was referred that portion of the Bishop's Address which deals with the subject of Clergy Relief, beg leave to report, That in its judgment it is inexpedient for this Diocese to raise and administer a separate fund for this purpose; That the interests of our own clergy and of those of the Church at large would be much better served by the consolidation of our local fund with the General Clergy Relief Fund of the whole Church in the United States. It would therefore move the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Diocesan Fund for the Relief of Aged and Infirm Clergy be, and is hereby abolished; and that the Treasurer be instructed to turn over all monies he may have belonging to that Fund to the Treasurer of the General Clergy Relief Fund of the Church in the United States.

Respectfully submitted,

The Rev. W. W. Ayres read the following

REPORT OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE.

The Finance Committee desires to submit the following report concerning the several reports submitted to them:

The Committee finds much to encourage them in the several reports. During the past year the Chapter has sold property on account of the Jarvis Endowment Fund, amounting to $11,500; On account of the Dyer & Potter Trust, $3,900; and for the Diocesan Mission Trust, $1,108.12.

The Committee notes with pleasure that the Jarvis Endowment Fund have bought the two lots adjoining the Boston Building from the Seth Low Trust, which will bring in a net income of $500 next year, and is to sell its unimproved property to complete the payments on the same. The Seth Low Trust has realized the sum of $26,000 from the sale, $10,000 of which has been paid, and $16,000 is to be paid during the coming year. The $10,000 received by the Seth Low Trust has been paid to the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co. for the purpose of reducing the Wolfe Hall debt from $60,000 to $50,000. There is still due from the Jarvis Endowment Fund and the assets of the Seth Low Trust enough to reduce the Wolfe Hall debt to $30,000, which is expected will be done during the next year.

The Diocesan Mission Report shows a decided gain in receipts over last year of $1,130.87, the sources of the gain are as follows:

$108 from Parishes and Missions; $200 from the General Missionary Board; $568.04 from the Woman's Auxiliary, and $300 from miscellaneous sources.

The Episcopate Fund shows an increase in interest and rent receipts.

The receipts of the Home are about the same as last year, amounting to the large sum of $70,000. The Mrs. Charles L. Adams Memorial Home is a new work built during the past year, the building and furnishing of the Home costing $52,651.34. The Diocese is to be congratulated on securing this new Home through Mr. Oakes, and which is designed entirely for consumptive patients

Respectfully submitted,

LYMAN ROBINSON,
H. A. MCINTYRE,
A. A. BOWHAY.

The Rev. E. W. Sibbald read the following

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE ERECTION OF A CHURCH HALL AT BOULDER.

June 3, 1903.

Your Committee on the erection of a Church Hall in connection with the State University of Colorado at Boulder, beg leave to report the following:—

In this project there are involved important issues, far-reaching, which will have enormous influence upon the future of the Church in this Diocese, in all the Middle West, and the Pacific Coast.

The Regents of the University have made generous overtures to encourage the affiliation of Schools and Theological Colleges with our eminent State University. The texts of these overtures were read to the Council during its session of 1900, and may be epitomized by stating that they offer to establish certain Chairs in the University in subjects necessary for a theological course; allow special elective subjects in the course for degrees for theological students; and provide that the Theological Schools shall have a voice in the affairs of the University itself.

This will present itself forcibly to every reasonable friend of the Church as the very best means of attaining an efficiency of theological training, such as no denominational college can hope to afford. It is the order of the day in our great educational institutions, both on this Continent and in Europe. It offers a thorough, liberal training at a less cost than any other system we can suggest.

Your Committee does not imply the necessity of immediately founding an extensive school. We should begin with a very moderate outlay. We should combine with the Theological College, a Diocesan Boy's Military School to replace the late Jarvis Hall. This would become the means of securing many students for the Theological College. We would also draw fit students from the University and the State Preparatory School; thus preventing the drifting away to other spheres, men eminently designed for the sacred ministry. In this manner we would obviate the sad dearth of candidates for the ministry, of which we have too many sad evidences. We must follow our young men in their University course with the best influences, if we hope to deter them from rushing into the maelstrom of secularism, or even expect them to have much interest in religious affairs after they go forth to their several spheres. Here lies an answer to one of the most momentous questions of the present day.

We have a Fund amounting to $140,000 or $150,000 for the educations of young men for the ministry. With a judicious administration of this Fund, a great work could be accomplished for the Church at large. In no other way could the work be so economically and effectively accomplished as in affiliation with the State University. For a nominal sum the best course in Art and Science can be obtained in conjunction with the Theological Course, which we could not hope to maintain independent of the State University. This is the best course to fully prepare and equip our men for their sacred calling, which is more essential to-day than ever.

On the other hand, the influence of such a school, in affiliation with the University upon the University itself, will be inestimable.

While one of the important elements of theological education should be to bring our young men into contact with life in other professions and places; so also it will be of immeasurable benefit to the University students to come into contact with teachers and students of religious truths.

We observe with the great interest the valuable suggestions of the Right Reverend, the Bishop, in his annual address, but we fail to see how it may be consummated. The appointment of Chaplain for the University is merely a temporary matter, and may cease at any time. To provide lectures and sermons on Church topics would be of great value, but would conflict with the position of a State University in relation with Christian bodies other than the Church.

Your Committee would, therefore, commend to the serious and favorable consideration of the Council, the overtures made by the University, whereby the Church may avail itself of advantages otherwise impossible, and the exercise of influence, which no other condition could offer.

There is a place for such a Theological School in this State. We have no such College or Seminary within a great radius in this Middle West and Pacific States, and the establishment of it, in affiliation with our University, would assure its great usefulness and success. It would inevitably become one of the chief factors in the stability, influence, and extension of the Church, not only in this Diocese but in others contiguous with us. The course to pursue is plainly open to us, if we proceed with faith in God's promise.

The proposition made by the University to purchase the five acres of land adjoining their Campus and held in trust for the erection of a Hall, has been taken into consideration by your Committee. We agree with the Right Reverend, the Bishop, that if we can secure the value of the same, we should accept their offer.

We would, therefore, ask the Council to authorize your Committee to treat with the University authorities concerning the disposal of this property, and the securing of an eligible site for such building in some other locality.

Respectfully submitted,

E. W. SIBBALD,
R. S. WHITELEY,
W. B. OGDEN,
R. T. FULTON.

The Rev. Mr. Sibbald moved the adoption of this report. Carried.

The Rev. D. I. Hobbs read following

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON APPORTIONMENT.

Your Committee on that portion of the Bishop's address relating to the Missionary Work of the Diocese desires to recommend: That to raise funds for the support of the work during the ensuing year, an apportionment be levied upon each parish and mission equal to five per cent of the current expenses during the year past.

Your Committee further recommends that if this apportionment should seem too hard for any parish or mission owing to existing conditions that the Board of Missions be asked to consider such conditions, and if in their judgement these conditions justify, this Board be authorized to make such reduction as will bring the amount the ability of the parish or mission so burdened.

The Rev. Dr. Kramer then read the following report of the Committee on the Proposed Change of Name of the Church:

REPORT.

Your Committee appointed to consider that portion of the Bishop's Address relating to the change of name of the Church, recommends the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That in the opinion of the Diocese of Colorado, any change of name of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America at this time would be inexpedient.

FREDERICK F. KRAMER,
H. MARTYN HART,
V. O. PENLEY,
THOMAS WARD.

The following minority report was also read by Dr. Kramer:

REPORT OF MINORITY OF COMMITTEE ON CHANGE OF NAME OF THE CHURCH.

The undersigned members of your Committee beg respectfully to dissent from the report of the majority and are of opinion that the time has come for a change of name. They receive with gratification the words of the President on the subject.

We object to the name Protestant Episcopal as inadequate in describing our historic Church. We believe our Church to be one and continuous with the Church founded by Christ and His apostles.

We know of no Church in our sense of the word which is not Episcopal. The title Episcopal therefore is redundant and unnecessary.

While the Church still protests against all errors, whether of the Church of Rome or of modern religious bodies, we object to the word Protestant in her title as covering only a small and late period of her existence, as recognizing Division as a permanent condition of the Church, and as appearing to support a modern sectarian principle unknown to the Church for 1500 years.

The minority therefore recommends the following resolution to this Council:

Resolved, that the time has come for a change in the Name of this Church; and

WHEREAS, the Church has at various times of her history assumed territorial titles to designate her different parts, as for example: The Church of Jerusalem; The Church of Alexandria; The Church of Rome; The Church of England; The Church of New Zealand; The Church of South Africa

Resolved, that this Church follow precedent and call herself the Church of the United States.

A. G. H. BODE,
N. G. BURNHAM,
DR. G. E. BROWNE.

Dr. Kramer moved the adoption of the report of the Committee. The Rev. J. T. Foster moved the substitution of the minority report for the majority report. Under advice from the Chancellor the question was divided into two parts: (A) The desirability of a change of name now; and if so, (B) What name.

The hour of noon having arrived, the Bishop called the Council to prayer. After prayer for Missions and Church Unity, on motion the Council took a recess until 2:00 p. m.

Your Committee on Privilege begs to report:

First, That the credentials from Parishes and Missions as submitted to the Council, and on file with the Secretary are correct.

Second, That we concur with the report of the Board of Equalization in its recommendations with reference to those Parishes and Missions found delinquent in paying their assessments under the provisions of Canon XV.

Carried.

The Discussion of the change of name was then resumed.

The vote on the Substitution of the Minority for the Majority Report resulted in a division in both orders: the Clerical vote standing, AYES, 14, NOES, 14; Laity: AYES, 5 Parishes, NOES, 5 Parishes.

The Rev. Dr. Kramer read the Report of the Board of Equalization, and moved its adoption. Carried.

REV. F. F. KRAMER,
REV. I. W. OHL,
CHAS. RUTER,
Committee.

The Very Rev. H. Martyn Hart read the following Report of the Committee on Legislation and moved its adoption. Carried.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON LEGISLATION.

That in their opinion it would be inexpedient to petition the General Convention of 1904 to create either a general Court of Appeal, or several such courts, for such Provinces, or Ecclesiastical districts, as may hereafter be created by the coalition of several Dioceses and Jurisdictions.

It is the opinion, that the canons already in existence, expressing the deliberate wisdom of many generations of Churchmen, are fully adequate, to deal with every occasion. That whatever failure of justice may have occurred, or whatever scandal may have been caused to the Church, was not due to the inefficiency of the wishes of judiciary provided by the Canons, but to the fact that their operation has been relegated to men untrained in legal procedure, and unskilled either in the presentation of evidence, or even in deciding what is, and what is not, admissible as evidence, and in exceptional cases, to the influence of local bias or prejudice. Your Committee believe that this serious flaw in Ecclesiastical Judiciary would be obviated by the creation of an office, by the General Convention to which it should elect a lawyer of eminence. The office should have appended to it such a salary or such a fee as would command the services of a lawyer of national reputation. This official might be styled "The High Chancellor."

It should be competent for any Bishop, or Priest, or Vestry to ask any question or make any complaint to him. If in his judgment the complaint was of a serious nature, he should proceed to the locality to gather what information he thought necessary, he would collect what was pertinent evidence from each party, and in the vast majority of cases, without publicity his advice would settle the dispute. But if he found the complaint of such graveness as to demand a trial, he would direct the process of the Canon, sift, prepare and present the evidence, and with a professional hand he would guide the litigants within the clear lines of the Law.

The advice of such an authorized official would be hailed with relief by Bishops, especially Missionary Bishops doubtful how to deal with the Church's property to the best advantage. Following such advice the grave responsibility of many decisions would be alleviated, and the whole Church would know that its property would be conserved and under the direction of the most approved Counsel.

Your Committee therefore, not without diffidence, venture to recommend that the Council of Colorado do petition the General Convention to the foregoing effect.

H. MARTYN HART, Chairman
REV. JAS. McLAUGHLIN,
WILBUR F. STONE,
NEWTON E. BARKALOW,
S. F. RATHVON,
W. H. WHITEHEAD.

The Rev. Chas. H. Marshall read the following report of the Committee on Wolfe Hall and moved the adoption of the resolution contained. Carried.

REPORT.

Your Committee appointed to consider that portion of the Bishop's Address relating to Wolfe Hall desire to report as follows:

The Committee note with pleasure that during the past year the Wolfe Hall debt has been reduced from $60,000 to $50,000.

The Committee, further find that sufficient assets still remain in the Seth Low Trust to reduce the debt during the coming year to $30,000.

The present interest rate on the loan is 5 per cent; when the debt is reduced to $30,000 the rate will be 4 per cent.

When this debt is reduced to $30,000, the Seth Low Trust will be at an end, and the state of the Wolfe Hall Trust will be this: The Diocese will own Wolfe Hall School subject to a debt of $30,000 drawing interest at the rate of 4 per cent, making the annual interest to be paid amount to $1200. This $1200 will have to be met and this Committee feels that provision should be made by this Council for its payment.

CHARLES H. MARSHALL, Chairman.
A. A. BOWHAY,
WILBUR F. STONE,
GEORGE E. BROWNE.

The Committee therefore offer the following Resolution:

Resolved, The various Parishes and Missions of this Diocese be hereby assessed in the same manner as now prevails for Diocesan Council Expenses to secure $1200 for the Wolfe Hall interest.

The Rev. E. W. Sibbald read the following

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON DECEASED MEMBERS.

Your Committee appointed to consider the subject of deceased members desires to report that they feel profound sorrow at the death of the Revs. John Edwin Carpenter, William C. Wise, who had well and faithfully served the Church in their sacred vocation; and one of the strongest and most loyal sons of the Church, the late Hon. Thos. Wells. During many years he served the Church in his Council as well as in every office in his Parish. We pray that God may raise up many like sons of the Church in this and other Dioceses.

Respectfully submitted,

E. W. SIBBALD,
H. R. O'MALLEY,
E. P. ARTHUR,
FRANK A. ELLIS, JR.

This report was adopted.

The Report of the Treasurer of the Council was then read by Mr. A. A. Bowhay. (Appendix I.)

The Rev. A. G. H. Bode, having voted in the negative, moved to reconsider the proposed amendment to Article XV, Section 1 of the Constitution. The motion to reconsider was carried, and on a vote by Orders the Amendment was adopted: The Clerical vote stood 24 AYES, 3 NOES; Lay vote, 11 AYES, 1 NO.

The Amendment as adopted, reads:

ARTICLE XV.

SECTION 1. At each Annual Council there shall be elected a Treasurer of the Episcopate Fund and a Treasurer of the Board of Missions and a Treasurer of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund, who shall be Lay Communicants of the Diocese; they shall be ex-officio members of the Council, but shall not have a vote, or a Trust company authorized by the State to care for trust funds, may be elected as treasurer of any fund of the Diocese.

The Rev. Benj. Brewster then read the following REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Your Committee has examined the parochial reports from twenty-four of the twenty-six parishes in the Diocese, and from sixteen missions. These reports indicate an increase of about seven per cent in the number of baptisms for the year, and practically the same number of communicants enrolled as last year. The number of confirmations remains stationary, being 415 this year as against 418 reported last year.

There is to be noted, as possibly a partial explanation of the lack of increase, the exodus of many people from the mining districts; for instance, in S. Andrew's, Cripple Creek, from which parish, in spite of the energy of the Rector, seventy-two communicants have been transferred to other parishes during the year, being over fifty per cent of the total last year reported.

Progress is to be noted in several directions. One mission, namely, Emmanuel, Denver, has been organized into a parish, and five new missions have been organized, chiefly through the energy of the Archdeacon. His pioneer work, and the growth of population particularly in our agricultural districts, have made necessary an increased supply of clergy. The Bishop has stated that at least three more clergymen could be used to advantage in the diocesan missionary field. The ordination of two deacons and one priest during the past year, and the admission of two candidates for holy orders, hardly indicate a supply of workers commensurate with the need. The self-consecration of more men to the ministry would help us more than any other thing to advance to the possession of our heritage, for the fields are ripe for the harvest.

Progress in parochial development has been particularly noticeable. The building of a new stone church in Canon City, ready now for consecration; the foundation laid for a new church in Boulder; the increase of the salaries of eight clergymen; the payment of parochial debts in full in four or five parishes and missions; and the material reduction of debts in several others; improvements in church buildings; the accumulation of funds in several places for parish houses and rectories—all these things indicate commendable zeal and harmony in the local centres of church life, largely due it is probable, to the increasing stability of the pastoral relation.

In spite of, or perhaps because of the vigor shown in these parochial matters we note an encouraging increase in offerings for diocesan missions. This year the offerings for this purpose from parishes and missions amount to $2,773.60; last year $2,007.83, an increase of $765.77, or thirty-eight per cent. This increase has gone parallel we are glad to say, with a corresponding increase, thus far, in gifts for the general missions of the Church.

The energy and zeal of the Woman's Auxiliary should have our hearty commendation. A tangible proof of this is the great increase in their offerings for diocesan missions, amounting this year to about $1,000.

The diocesan activities have been augmented further during the past year by the establishment of a diocesan branch of the Girls' Friendly Society. This great society, world wide in its extent, has shown characteristic energy in this diocese, and we may expect it to prove of untold benefit to many girls and young women of our state.

The great educational and philanthropic institutions of our Diocese are in a very encouraging condition. Wolfe Hall has materially reduced its indebtedness. The number of pupils, particularly boarders, has increased during the past year, and much credit should be given to the able management of Miss Kerr. We call the attention of the Clergy to the great benefit this school may work in the future, as it has worked in the past, in the education of many girls, both spiritually and mentally; and we suggest that they recommend the advantages of this institution to their parishioners.

S. Luke's Hospital has been greatly blessed in the past year. The debt of $17,000 has been entirely paid, through generous gifts here and from the East. A gracious and worthy memorial of Mrs. Hallett, whose interest in the institution was always marked, will be the Nurses' Home, which will constitute an important addition to the efficiency of the hospital; moreover, plans of the most approved character, for the addition of a new wing and for the renovation of the entire hospital have been accepted, and the work of construction is already in progress.

The Home, which has always been a blessing to many, has marked a still further advance during the past year, in the completion of the Adams Memorial Home, extending the benefits of this unique institution to a large number unable formerly to avail themselves of them. The spiritual influences of the Home, will be increased in the near future through the beautiful Chapel of Our Merciful Saviour now in process of construction. We should not only extend our congratulations to the Superintendent, who has so ably carried forward this great work, but should, so far as possible, co-operate with him in this beautiful philanthropy.

The sympathy of the Council has been expressed already for the Dean and congregation of S. John's Cathedral, in the destruction of that noble house of worship which has so long been a center of our diocesan life. The old-time energy which has carried on the great work here is not abated, and we may all hope for the speedy building of a still more glorious temple which shall symbolize and foster our common aspirations in a new era of our diocesan life.

Respectfully submitted,

BENJAMIN BREWSTER,
WM. B. HARRISON,
J. MONTGOMERY MCBRIDE,
N. G. BURNHAM,
J. F. HUMPHREY.

Appendix A.

Bishop's Address.

Dear Brethren of the Clergy and of the Laity:

We meet to-day under the shadow of a deep calamity, but I trust with perfect submission to our Heavenly Father's permissive will, and with sure confidence in His continued favour. If the burning of our beautiful Cathedral is so great a sorrow to me—the place of my consecration—what must it be to my beloved Dean, who had beheld it rise from the ground, and who had gradually and laboriously brought it to a state of rare attractiveness. If it is so great a grief to the whole Diocese, that looked to it as the place of Council meetings and festival services, and the centre of Diocesan activities, the Bishop's home and throne, and the very sanctuary of Diocesan life; what must it be to the great congregation that loved regularly to worship within its walls and to carry its image and its echoes in their hearts! Surely my heart is full of other people's tears and woes as I think of all this to-day; and the words are too weak to tell of my sympathy; but we are a young and lusty people and we shall not let this discourage us in any wise. The Dean and his congregation will stand side by side with the Bishop and the Diocese; and hundreds of friends, who have felt the refreshment of the Cathedral atmosphere, and the beauty of its music, and the tone of its windows, and the thrill of its solemn services, will come to our aid. We shall arise and build even a more glorious fane to the honour of our Divine Master.

It had been my purpose, God willing, to consecrate the Cathedral in the early autumn of next year, the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Dean's rectorship, feeling that it would be a suitable time for such a service, and that nothing could better crown a term of spiritual office so long and so fruitful than the solemn setting apart of the fair temple to the worship of the Triune God. God has permitted it to be otherwise. Next year we must indeed honour the Dean by a suitable commemoration, but we must wait, who can tell how long, for the joy of consecrating a vast and costly Cathedral Church in this Episcopal city. Still, indeed it may be we may not have to wait so very long. This sorrow will surely quicken us all with new life and energy. The phoenix of legend arose out of its ashes animated with youthful vigour. We shall all soon see a new Cathedral out of debt, I trust, and a new term of service for us all. May our Gracious Father in Heaven give us strength and courage and hope and consolation by His Holy Spirit!

One of the first things that passed through my mind on hearing of the loss we have sustained was that so much energy would now be expended on the building of a new Cathedral that it would weaken the Diocesan work, or at least, not increase it as I had hoped it would be increased. Let us hope that we shall do all that comes in our way to do, and that not only may a Cathedral rise in great dignity and beauty before our vision, but that our Hospital and School and Missionary work may lose nothing whatever by the building of it. We must all learn self-denial and self-sacrifice for the sake of one another; and Christian love and Christian sympathy shall be the arms with which we shall help one another and build together our future greatness.

It is a year and a month since God called me from a quite and serene abode to be a shepherd over many thousands in Israel. How kind you have been and how happy I have been during these months of a new and unaccustomed relation! Life to me would be worthless and dreary without the love of many friends. I believe I have found them, and I am glad to say that although I feared homesickness and a sense of strangeness on coming so far away from every ancient haunt, I have never had a moment of either feeling. I have been helped partly by my sense of being a pilgrim on this earth, which somehow was born in me, and partly by my belief that good people were to be found everywhere, and that men are much alike wherever you go, and partly by a feeling that I was coming where God surely called by many infallible proofs, but partly also by the way you have dealt with me from the very beginning. May God deepen in us more and more a great love for one another and bring heaven among us in all its holiness and peace, and cause our days to shine with His favour and our evening to be calm as the stars of immortal hope break out above us.

Before I proceed to speak of the work and hope of the Diocese, I must follow the custom of our Bishops in their Council addresses, and spread the diptychs of lamented names upon the altar of your memory; for as year goes by after year, God calls His servants home, and leaves us astonished at the void that evermore makes life less desirable, and the other world more rich and alluring.

A great prince among men was Frederick Temple, Archbishop of Canterbury, the greatest man of his time. His was a greatness not merely of intellect and of place, but of personality. He was a tower to the righteous. Men felt the majesty of goodness when they felt the pressure of His presence in what he said and did. Yet it was all to be analysed into childlike faith, manly honesty, godly motive. His was the most simple life, a life without affectation, without pride, without selfishness. It was good to see how deeply men have felt the impression of his gigantic moral stature, for it shows that men have a deep capacity for goodness. They could not so much admire what they could not understand, and they could not understand what they have no capacity to imitate. The new Archbishop, Dr. Davidson, is a man of rare beauty of character, and it is a cause of thankfulness that such a man is raised up at a critical time to steer the ship of the English Church. May God bless and keep the Church of England, our mother and our friend and make her present safe and her future hopeful, for her mission is an ever-widening one, revealing a purpose and a capacity we cannot measure. She is in the same very high sense, the hope of the world.

Bishop Whittle of Virginia was a man of that peculiar stamp of piety, which comes of a long life steeped in evangelical principles. It has a beauty all its own. It is humble, trustful, deeply reverent and devout. It is the piety of Leighton and Simeon; of Venn and Cecil. It walks by faith, not by sight; it looks for and hastens into the coming of the day of God.

Bishop Thompson of Mississippi was a man of mental grasp and very real excellence. He had the historic and churchly spirit, and withal a philosophic view of all he looked at. Given some qualities he did not possess and he would have been one of the greatest men of the world.

Bishop Bannwell of Alabama was a man "sweet as summer," a Southern gentleman, deeply imbued with evangelic piety, a kindly man, one that maintained the gracious dignity of the Episcopal office, which in him lost none of its prestige, a man everybody could trust, the kind of man that makes us hope for the Church and humanity and our own country.

Bishop Taylor of Quincy, one of my Presentors, a classmate of long ago, was a man of penetrating mind, self-denying spirit and, in certain lines, of more than usual learning. He had given much thought to matters of Canon law, and the ecclesiastical spirit was strong within him. He was definite and sincere in all his ideas, and logical and fearless in carrying them into effect. His early death is a great shock, and his work as a Bishop was only begun.

It was my sad privilege to be present and take part in, the burial of the Right Reverend Thomas Alfred Starkey, D. D., Bishop of Newark, who died on the eighteenth day of May. It was always a pleasure to meet him. Urbane, gracious, courtly, he gave dignity to any company he gladdened with his presence. As he lay in state, I could not help thinking of great names out of our venerable history, with which he, for the way in which he had borne his honours, might not unworthily be numbered.

In our own Diocese we have lost the Reverend William C. Wise and the Reverend John E. Carpenter, both blameless and worthy priests, who knew in whom they believed, and left no one behind to regret having known them. It is a comfort to feel that both were honoured and respected by all who knew them.

Colonel Wells of Canon City, many times a deputy to the Council of this Diocese, was a man of rugged and kindly wisdom, like a spur of the Rocky Mountains with sunset and mellow lights upon its head. He had the strength and the worth of a true pioneer touched with the grace of a gentle heart. It is sad to miss him here to-day, but we have good reason to cherish his memory.

For these and for all other His faithful servants, God's great name be praised, for their works follow them, and we are the better and the world is better for that they have lived upon its bosom. May we be found meet to dwell with them in the heavenly country when the Son of Man cometh in His Kingdom!

At the Council a year ago I gave some account of my work in the Diocese for the month of May in that year. The week of the Council was filled with many pleasant occurrences. At the closing exercises of Wolfe Hall, I presided, and gave their diplomas to eight young ladies. I recall the beautiful afternoon light in the Cathedral, and the large number present at the Commencement, and feel a deep regret that I shall never again stand within those walls.

Wolfe Hall has had a fair measure of success during the year, and has less indebtedness than it had then by more than ten thousand dollars; but I could greatly wish it a still more abundant success. I hope the Clergy will take the opportunity as it may open to tell their people about this Church School for girls. Our children of the Diocese may find in it a well-supervised and Christian home, with ample facilities for a rational and adequate womanly training. It aims at simplicity and the cultivation of moral worthiness, and it has a very admirable head in Miss Kerr, its present principal. Fifty-six boarders are a fair number, but we could wish a hundred.

At the opening service of the Woman's Auxiliary Annual Meeting I preached. I cannot sufficiently thank this organization for all that it is doing for our Diocesan work. Its promise to give one thousand dollars the past year for Missions in Colorado has been, I believe, fulfilled.

It was a noble promise and it must have meant a good deal of courage to make it. It was a promise to give as much again as it had ever given. The Diocese ought to know about it, and in some proper way express its appreciation of the liberality and zeal of our branch of the Auxiliary in this Diocese.

At the Council we had the pleasure of having with us the Bishop-Coadjutor of Southern Ohio, who preached a sermon in memory of the late Bishop of this Diocese, and also made a Missionary address. The Council was made delightful by the kind and brotherly spirit of its members, and ended with a delightful reception in the Cathedral Crypt.

At many points in the Diocese visible progress has been made this year, and nearly all have quite held their own. A new Church has been built at a cost of $22,000 at Canon City, which is to be formally opened on Trinity Sunday; and the foundations of a new Church in Boulder have been laid. Several Parishes and Missions have paid all their debts—S. Stephen's and Grace Churches in Colorado Springs and the Church of the Good Shepherd, Colorado City, being among the number. Eight have raised the Clerical stipend, and S. Mark's, Denver, is to be congratulated on the near approach of its freedom from a long-standing and wearisome indebtedness. It is hoped that within a year Churches will be built in Alamosa, Rocky Ford, Creede, and for the Ascension Parish, Pueblo. A rectory has been built for the Coloured Mission in Denver, on which, however, there is a debt; and one of the crying needs of the Diocese is a rectory for Emmanuel, Denver, for which not above $200 is so far in sight. Toward this enterprise I hope many both within and without that parish may speedily make contributions. A few services have been held in Fort Morgan and Sterling, which places doubtless will soon have stable missions, and for which together with other points on the Burlington route I hope a Missionary may be appointed this year.

A Church building and lots have been bought for Loveland for $600, which, however, are still wholly unpaid for, but for which, I believe the money is bound to come; and for Walsenburg, Rugby and Aguilar a resident Missionary for the first time has been appointed. The Church at Fort Collins has been repaired and beautified, and S. Stephen's, Longmont, has shown new and promising vigour. It is hoped a parish house may be built there this year. Trinity Memorial, Denver, is looking, not vaguely, but surely, to a new Church, which must come within a year or two more, and at Easter gathered a considerable amount toward its building fund, which now amounts to upwards of $3,000. S. Paul's, Denver, is fast improving under Mr. Wood's beloved ministry and a new Chapel is in course of erection at the Home. The Cathedral parish has had a year of unexampled prosperity, and has given most liberally to Diocesan Missions. S. Luke's Hospital mortgage debt of $17,500 has been paid and a home for nurses, durable, handsome, and to be placed on new lots contiguous to the Hospital which have been bought by the Trustees for the purpose, is to be built this summer by Judge Hallett in memory of his wife, who in her lifetime was the Hospital's truest and most liberal friend. A new wing is also begun at the Hospital, which with other improvements, will cost seventy-five or eighty thousand dollars. A portion of this amount has been secured as a loan and it remains for the friends of the institution to give the remainder this summer.

S. Stephen's, Denver, has paid its debt and has not much less than a thousand dollars in hand toward a parish house or rectory. It has also secured two lots adjoining its property, which will give room for a Church of dignified length in, I hope, a not far distant future. S. Luke's, Montclair, has paid $250 on its debt, and has many friends who will not see it suffer, and the Church of the Redeemer has paid the debt formerly owed the Church Building Fund. S. Peter's, Denver, is altogether free from debt and has had a year of real growth and prosperity.

The Home has again this year given about 1600 free days' care to patients, but notwithstanding its many gifts, it comes short about $1300 on current expenses for the year. One could wish to see an endowment of the Home of not less than a half million, in order that it might be free of debt at the end of each year and also extend its charity to scores, who have little ability to pay their way and yet who need the best of care. I doubt if the public altogether understands the scope and purpose of the Home. It is carried on quite as its founders and benefactors wish it to be. It is in one sense a charitable institution, in that it gives free and partly free care to a not inconsiderable number each year, and in another sense it is not a charitable institution, in that it depends largely on payments from those who come to it for care to carry on its work. The expense of giving the very best, cleanest and most scientific care to consumptives is enormous, and the Home should be liberally endowed. I hope Mr. Oakes may be able to secure at least enough endowment in a few years to keep the Home not less beautiful than it is kept, and to pay all its current expenses. At present he has to get together each year many thousands of dollars to supplement the payments of the sick, and so keep the Home from getting into a permanent state of debt.

Wolfe Hall has had a good year in all ways, with 56 boarding and 40 day pupils. By a sale of some city lots owned by the Chapter in trust for the school nearly $1200 of its indebtedness has been paid.

Two coloured missions have been established, one, the Epiphany at Colorado Springs, which at present worships in Grace Church, and the other, S. Mary's, in Pueblo, for which a property costing $250 has been bought and paid for. The presence of a resident Priest in Rocky Ford this year for the first time has awakened new interest, and I hope for a year of large increase there, and the work at Florence under Mr. Haupt's vigorous ministry is really telling on the community. There are places like Silver Cliff and Louisville, and Monte Vista, and Del Norte, where we cannot expect growth and may be glad if we can hold our own. Even Cripple Creek and Victor, where 23 were confirmed this year and where important material improvements have been and are to be made without incurring debt have greatly suffered by removals. What a splendid work Mr. Schofield is doing in the face of a loss of 80 communicants in one year! We need to build churches in mining towns, but not costly ones. Our hope is rather in the agricultural districts, where there is a more stable population and a more secure growth.

Mr. Sibbald has been appointed by the regents Chaplain of the State University. I am glad of this on many accounts. We have some lots in Boulder contiguous to the University, which the University is willing to buy. They were secured by my predecessor with a view to building a hall from which a Church influence might be exercised and where Church students might find a domicile. I believe such halls have been built in other universities, notably at Ann Arbor, with what results to the Church I do not know. I imagine however that a fund in the hands of the Chapter, used to provide lectures and sermons on Church topics and to pay for a chaplain of our faith when such a one is not maintained by the University, would bring larger results than a hall, unless the hall were well endowed. If therefore the University is prepared to buy the land at a proper value, I believe it would be right to sell it and use the interest money for Church work among the students.

Mr. Eastham has entered on his work at Buena Vista and Granite with much devotion and has carpeted the Church. He has been appointed Chaplain to the State Reformatory at the former place.

There are at present but three vacancies in the Diocese which I hope may be speedily filled.

During the year I have received five postulants for Holy Orders. I wish to send two or three men to our Theological Schools this autumn, for nothing can take the place of association with those who are studying in common for a great life-work. It is an injustice to place a young man in some remote community as a Lay Reader, and expect him to pursue his studies for the Priesthood alone and mostly unaided, and to have a kind of parochial responsibility besides. I regret that we cannot oftener place our candidates for orders in the best institutions, and our Deacons under the care of a Priest for at least one year, and I believe it would be well to make a rule that on no account should a Deacon be put in charge of a parish. While I am grateful to Lay Readers for their zeal and good works, I cannot but feel that the Clergy make a mistake when they call upon them to read service except in times of necessity. It is difficult in these days to inculcate upon the people's minds the necessity and sacredness of the priestly office and it is not well for the Clergy themselves to devolve on Laymen duties which the Church expects her Clergy to assume when there is no need of their doing so. I have been in Church where there were several Priests present and portions of the service were read by a Layman. This is an evasion of the spirit of the Church's law, and should not be remitted. If a Priest is ill, or overworked, or absent, let the Lay Reader take his place, so far as he may; and in vacant missions Lay-reading is of course a constant necessity, but the normal ideal of the offices of the Prayer Book is the Priestly intercession led by the ordained servant of the Most High.

The outlook for work and progress in the Diocese for another year is not without strong hopefulness, but we need to relax none of the efforts we have been making since our last Council. I am particularly desirous to have the Clergy better supported by their people. We have made a real advance so far, but with three or four exceptions the Clergy of this Diocese are insufficiently paid. We have to suffer all over the Diocese from constant removals. People come and go and the Clergy come and go, and the result is often almost disastrous. In some cases it is not prudent for the Bishop to promise a missionary anything beyond the stipend of the Mission Board. He can only say to the new incumbent, "Do your best, and the people will do something." He ought to be able to say, "Ye may rely upon it that the people will pledge and also give such and such a sum over and above the stipend allowed by the Board." Much, too, depends on the liking or disliking the people of a Parish or Mission may have for the Priest. If he have the grace of adaptableness, and consecrated common sense, he can usually get a living. If he have the inability to sympathize with, and understand, the people, there is no doctrine in their books sufficiently clear as to the laical obligation to sustain the office of Priesthood irrespective of the social qualities of the man who holds it to constrain them to give him a tithe of all that they possess. I hope that every Parish and Mission will learn, however, the great importance and the scriptural duty of supporting those who minister to them out of God's eternal wells of mercy. I long for the day to come when every ordained servant of our Lord shall be bountifully sustained by his own people, not only out of love to his person, but out of love to the Great Priest, whose agent he is.

The General Clergy Relief Fund of our American Church owns and administers now one million five hundred thousand dollars. It ought to be able to administer at least five millions. Sixty-eight out of seventy-nine Dioceses are receiving from the fund more than they give. This Diocese has been very generously treated by the fund. I propose that we keep up no separate Diocesan Fund for the Relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen and for the widows and orphans of deceased Clergymen, but that we give our offerings every year for these purposes to the General Clergy Relief; and I beg the Clergy for their brethren's sake to see that at least one annual offering be made in their Parishes or Missions for this Fund, or, if that is sometimes impracticable, to give a portion of their communion alms to it. I furthermore beg the Clergy to inform their flocks of the existence, purpose, history and wonderful work of the General Clergy Relief Fund, and to try to get individual gifts and bequests made to it by their friends.

Hardly second to the General Clergy Relief Fund in importance is the work of the Foreign and Domestic Missionary Society of our Church. Through our Board of Managers we are spending this year about eight hundred thousand dollars on our Missionary fields, outside of special gifts, which do not aid the Board in meeting its appropriations. One thousand dollars of this is expended in the Diocese of Colorado. In order to get this amount of $800,000, the Board has very wisely made an apportionment among all the dioceses, and the amount it asks of this Diocese this year is $3,300. So far this year, which ends September first, we have given $414.15, which is nearly two hundred dollars more than we gave last year up to this time. It is impossible, I may almost say, for us to give what is asked of us at present; but I am sure of the great value of the apportionment plan, and I believe we shall in a very few years reach the point where we can give all that is indicated as our share. We certainly can do this much now: — Every Parish and Mission, organized or unorganized, throughout the entire Diocese, can resolve to be represented this year by a gift however small, and if the Clergy and Wardens will see to it, there is no reason why between this and September first next coming, we may see no congregation's gift omitted from the list of receipts of the General Board. Only 17 Parishes and Missions have so far been credited with an offering for this purpose, and if these have given $414.15, what may not a hundred other Parishes and Missions do? This is a matter for the Clergy to preach about. It is often due to their culpable neglect of duty in not informing the people about this matter that we have year after year the shame of seeing hundreds and hundreds of congregations all over the land giving absolutely nothing for a work dear to the heart and commanded by the lips of our Saviour Christ. Dear Brethren—Let no congregation in the Diocese of Colorado which has not already sent, fail to send a gift before September first over and above what the Woman's Auxiliary and the Sunday School may give or may have given!

In this connection I wish to call your attention to the meeting of the Missionary Council in the City of Washington, October 27th to 29th. The programme committee is arranging for a practical and stimulating series of discussions and meetings. Following immediately upon the gathering of all the Bishops of the Western Hemisphere, it will have the advantage of the presence of many of these, and will certainly be the most important of all our Missionary Councils. We are to elect delegates from this Diocese and if possible we should elect such persons as can hope to attend the meeting.

No Missionary work comes home to our hearts with quite the urgency and appeal for sympathy and help as our Diocesan Missionary work does. We have had many noble gifts this year and have been able to enlarge our borders somewhat and to keep up some old Missions, which, so long as there are souls in them needing our help, ought not to be left destitute. But we should increase our missionary force this year by three men at least, and in order to do this we should have several hundred dollars more. I hope the Council will ask for a Committee on Apportionment, which can read the result of its deliberations before we part so that Parishes and Missions which can increase their gifts may pledge themselves accordingly, and that such as cannot come up to the denominated amounts may have an opportunity to say what they think they may be able to give.

The Girls' Friendly Society has been cordially recognized by the Bishop in this Diocese as a useful institution; whose motto, "Bear ye one another's burden," tells the meaning and purpose of the Society. It is especially valuable in cities, and where girls are employed in factories, and has proved its ability in the East and in England to protect and benefit defenseless children. I commend it to the Clergy, who, if they are not already familiar with its workings, will do well to study its principles and history.

I wish to call your attention also to the Eighteenth Annual Convention of the Brotherhood of S.

Andrew, which is D. V. to meet in Denver from October 7th to October 11th this year. It is the hope of our Diocesan Chapters to make it one of the most successful meetings the Brotherhood has ever had. Doubtless several of our Bishops and Bishops of our sister Church of Canada and many of the Clergy will be here, and hundreds of the Brotherhood members from all parts of the land. It ought to be an occasion of great helpfulness to our young men and a powerful agency for good in our city life. Few things are more inspiring than the sight of hundreds of men devoting themselves to a definite religious work, and worshipping together after the manner of their fathers. I trust and pray the Convention may leave many bright blessings behind it. I am sure its delegates must carry away a sense of renewed interest in our Western Church life, and of its possibilities and responsibilities.

At the last General Convention, which met in 1901, in San Francisco, a Joint Committee of both houses was appointed, consisting of five Bishops, five Presbyters and five Laymen, "to take the whole subject of a change of name of this Church into consideration, to ascertain as far as possible the mind of Church people in general concerning it, and to make report at the next General Convention with such suggestions as may commend themselves to their judgment."

That Committee subsequently met and made the following resolution: "That the Secretary be directed to communicate to the Secretary of each Diocese and Missionary District a copy of the resolution under which this Committee is acting, coupled with the statement, that in pursuance of the direction contained in said resolution to endeavor to ascertain as far as possible the mind of Church people in general concerning the subject of a proposed change of name—this Committee, before making any recommendation to the General Convention, asks that, at the next meeting of the Convention or Convention of each Diocese or Missionary District, said Convention or Convocation be requested to inform this Committee, whether it does or does not desire that the name of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America shall be changed at this time, and if it does so desire, what name it wishes to be substituted therefore, and further that each Diocesan or Convocation Secretary be requested to communicate to the Secretary of this Committee prior to October, 1903, any action of his Convention or Convocation upon the subject, together with a statement of the Clerical and Lay vote, separately, upon any definitive resolution, that may have come before said Convention or Convocation."

In accordance with this courteous request of the Joint Committee, which has no other certain method of getting at the mind of Church people in general, I shall ask this Council to vote at this time on these two questions. Does the Diocese of Colorado desire that the name of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America shall be changed at this time, and, if it does so desire, what name it wishes substituted therefor.

Doubtless you will wish for some expression of opinion on my part, which I am very willing to make, only with the hope that you will not be unduly influenced by what I am going to say. And in any discussion you may desire to have on the subject, I trust you will feel that it is not, or at least ought not to be considered, as a party question, but a question to be approached solely on its merits, without reference to the source from which such a proposed measure comes. Furthermore I could wish that it, like all questions that are of necessity more or less controversial in their bearings, could be treated in a spirit of humility and love. For if personal holiness is the great argument for our religion, love is the chief weapon in the hands of God's children. Few things in my life do I more regret than any unkind words I may ever have said against any of Christ's own. All that are called by His name—Christians—are our brethren, and in all of them God walks and dwells; and if we cannot see Him in them we may well fear that we cannot find Him within our own hearts. The things about which Christians of all sorts agree are of vastly more importance than those things about which they disagree; for the things about which they agree are chiefly of the nature of ends, while the things about which they disagree are chiefly of the nature of means. There is one great end before the Christian world, and that is to become like unto the Son of God continually, and all things else, our sacraments and our ceremonies, our Bible and our creeds and our very Episcopacy itself, holy and divinely ordered as this may be, are but means whereby we hope to be disciplined and led on until we see Him as He is. What the future is going to reveal about the fulfilment of our Lord's desire for an outward unity among Christians I do not for a moment feel able to predict. I am neither pessimistic nor sanguine. I know one thing and that is that a time is coming for us all when in heaven we shall all be one. This world is not an ideal world and therefore there seems to be in it no place for ideal actualities, and what we have to do is always to pray and not to faint, and still to struggle on amid gloom and disappointment and faithlessness to our bright and everlasting home beyond.

The Church which Christ founded, you at least will agree with me was intended to be one and to be planted everywhere in the world. Even from the outset it had its Sunderings and its schisms, but it maintained a substantial and organic unity for a thousand years. Then came the division of East and West, only to be followed in half another thousand years by the break between certain portions of the West. Certain portions or National ecclesiastical entities of the West that had come to find the Papal jurisdiction a heavy yoke, and as they believed, unknown for several ages after Christ, and therefore a developement, which had not commended itself to all men's consciences, made their famous appeal to scripture, as interpreted by apostolic tradition, and asserted their canonical freedom. Some of these retained the whole ancient framework of the Church, others by no fault of their own, lost certain very necessary features of Primitive Christianity. The Churches of England, Ireland and Scotland lost nothing that in the Cyprianic age or in the age of the Ecumenical Councils could have been deemed essential to the being of a true and legitimate branch or portion of the Church Catholic and Apostolic.

These Churches felt that as the Reformed on the Continent had lost the Apostolic succession of Bishops by no fault of their own they should keep fellowship with them. This however was a different thing from countenancing schisms at home where there were Bishops to ordain and a liturgy which the people could understand. A profound bond of sympathy held together the Churches of Britain and those of the Reformed in France and Switzerland and Germany, an almost unconscious memory of which may sometimes even now be found among old-fashioned Dutch and Swiss Christians, who look upon the Anglican Communion as nearer to them than any other. From the Church of Britain, in her reformed estate—a true and living branch of the organic and visible Church, Catholic and Apostolic in the world, our Church in these United States of America is derived. To that Church we owe our life, our liturgy, our law, our literature theologic, our spiritual inheritances, our ecclesiastical temper, our sober tone of piety and our Anglo-Saxon speech. But we are no longer the Church of England, or the English Church. We are logically what?—why just simply the Church of America, or the American Church.

Canonical writers, liturgiologists, ecclesiastical historians, fathers gathered in Councils General or Provincial never thought of calling branches of the Catholic Church, French Catholic, or Italian or Roman Catholic, or Spanish Catholic, or English Catholic. The very fact that these Churches were the ancient or historic Churches of the countries called France, or Italy, or Spain, or England, was the assurance of their Catholicity. They were simply the French or Gallican Church, or the Roman, or the Spanish, or the English Churches. That Church which is Catholic in England is the progenitor of that Church which is Catholic in America, and it is no more untrue to call our Church the American Church than it is to call the Church of England the English Church. It is said—we are not the American Church, because we do not have more than two millions among seventy. Then the Catholic Church all over the world is not Catholic, because she has but a minority after all of the human race owing allegiance to the faith of Christ. A name idealizes that which it denominates. It is full of possibility and hope. But from every Canonical and historical point of view that branch of the Apostolic Church which we canonically and historically are, in this country is the American Church; and to call it anything else is to make ourselves strange to our fathers. No fear of being thought arrogant, or exclusive should keep us from using our rightful title, and whether it is adopted by legislation in our time or not, it is fast becoming ours by the prescription of use. Professor Mosso, a great Italian economist, in his work on Democracy, has predicted that the religion of America in a century will be Catholic but not Roman. I would it might be so in some true way. The Roman Church in America conceivably may reform itself after the primitive model. Would to God it could and would! It is a great and wonderful institution, and who could measure its power for good if it were capable of a genuine reformation and a return to a government by an untrammelled Episcopacy. But I imagine that, if America is to become Catholic and not Roman, it must be through the growth and development of our truly American Church. If we can conciliate the great Christian forces of America and even find a Catholic basis for union for instance, with such noble and stable people as the Presbyterians; if we could present the Church in the fullness of her power, and raise the learning of our Clergy, and purify our family life, and cut off divorce, and maintain our conservative ideals while we pursue a line of true progress and adapt ourselves to the needs, social, intellectual and moral, of our time and country, we might dare to hope that God would make America Catholic through us.

But is it time to legislate in our General Convention for a change of name? I confess I have difficulty to answer the question. If it is true that multitudes of our people would be deeply grieved and many possibly alienated by such action, then, as we cannot make ourselves either more or less than what we are, and always have been, by a change of name, let us not urge the matter. I believe firmly that our own people are drawing nearer together, not only in sympathy, but also in opinion; and, moreover, that there is growing up in our Church here at home and in all the Anglican Churches in communion with us, a sound, conservative feeling which deplores partisanship, and wishes to insist on the main principles which have distinguished Anglo-Saxon and Anglo-Catholic Christianity for centuries. The Church is greater and wiser than any school of thought within her bosom. The Church is sound at the heart, and is unperturbed by what frightens novices and strangers. All things are working for our Church's good. If we are true to our inherited moderation and our real destiny, we have everything to hope for in the next generations. Let us listen to the wishes of good men in this matter, who cannot yet see the advantage of a name which is logically ours, and let us seek peace and ensue it. God grant to all Christians a deeper sympathy with one another and speed the day when we shall all understand one another! While it is day let us labour! And when God calls us hence, may it be to be forever with the Lord our blessed Jesus, Lover and Saviour of our souls!

Appendix E.

Report of the "Home" and the Charles L. Adams Memorial Home, 1903.

Rt. Rev. Father in God and Members of the Council:

Thro' God's good grace it is my privilege again to make a report to the Bishop and Chapter of this Diocese, concerning the affairs at these Homes—whose management has been given to me—for which I am grateful to God.

First let me speak of the material affairs in general; Last year the Abby Sherwood Jesup Cottage was announced. It was finished and occupied August 1st, by a family from Chicago, who for seven months paid $20.00 a month. It was of untold value to them—giving the privileges of a home in Denver, for a sufficient length of time to prove whether Colorado would benefit—or otherwise—in this case it did not do its work, but the blessing to the family was inestimable. Another cottage is now being erected, to be known as the Chas. Jesup Memorial Cottage, the means for this being furnished by his son, Morris K. Jesup of New York.

The Mrs. Chas. L. Adams Memorial Home was opened October 20th, being fifty days later than the Contractors and Architect guaranteed—which occasioned a financial loss to the Home, very considerable. It was consecrated later, when Bishop Olmsted returned from the East. Mr. Adams was present, and was very greatly pleased. The Adams Memorial Home was quickly filled, with those who could afford to pay only $25.00 a month—two letters being required from responsible people at the home of the person in question. That Home has been filled until May 1st—with a waiting list, and during the time it has been open, eighty-four different people have lived there, at a cost not exceeding 83 cents per day. We have had only three deaths, and a most happy result in general. Eight hundred and fifty one days of charity has been done, and $64.35 in special charity. The total amount of charity has been $771 75, or the interest on $32,000, at 5 per cent. This Home is simple, but just as sanitary and harmonious as can be planned. Mrs. Sara Webb, a trained nurse, is Matron, whose services have been well and acceptably rendered, and has endeared herself to all with whom she has come in contact. The States represented here, and the number from each State are from

New York.....	17	Pennsylvania.....	9
Illinois.....	5	Indiana.....	5
New Jersey.....	5	Maryland.....	4
Oklahoma.....	4	Massachusetts.....	3
Iowa.....	3	Colorado.....	3
Alabama.....	2

Tennessee, Minnesota, Michigan, Utah, Missouri, Canada and England, two each; Maine, Wisconsin, Virginia, Nebraska, Kentucky, California, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Australia, and Turkey, one each.

Prayers have been said here 'daily at eight-thirty o'clock in the morning. On Sundays prayers are said and a short sermon at five-thirty p. m. All of these services have been very well attended.

The Home proper has required its usual amount of repairs and renovation, but so far as I can see, looks in as good a condition as when first opened. The kitchens were entirely renovated and re-supplied during last summer. A sun parlor built in front of Hearts-ease, for the very ill, protected from the cold by glass, and from the heat by screens, new china, rugs, painting, etc, have kept up a constant demand, and this year painting is required on the exterior and roofs. A severe hail storm last October did great damage to the roofs. Then over $40,000 of Insurance must be replaced this year. Thus the demand goes on, and so far as we can, we have met it. The expenses greatly exceed the income, but thus far, through God's goodness, we have been able to go on. The general charity work of The Home alone has exceeded $13,000 and less than $1,000 has come from Colorado, and while many seem to think that we can do almost anything, I do not see the justice of it, nor see why Colorado can complain, when she does not do more. She has certainly been relieved of this large sum of charity work. We have done in special charities the sum of $1481.95 or 988 days. I always dislike to speak of these things, for it seems so vulgar to speak of what one has done thus, 'tis God's greatest blessing to enable us to serve, but it is just as impossible for The Home to give when it has not it to give, as it is for you. The Home has not only done all it could do, but much more than it should have done. It was expected that the building of the Adams Memorial would diminish the amount of direct charity work required of The Home, but it is not so, it has increased it, and then gifts that have hitherto been given direct to The Home, have, to the sum of $1012.65 been given to care for the poor in the Adams, so diminishing the income here to that extent.

There has been 327 different people at The Home during the year, from States as follows:

Nebraska, Maine, Texas, Hawaii, England, Scotland, Japan, and Turkey, one each.

The number of Doctors in attendance upon the sick, twenty-five.

The number of deaths during the year have been twenty-eight.

This when compared to the reports of the Sanitoria all over the world is extremely large, but I must repeat what I said last year, the reason is, we have never denied one admission even tho' they were dying. The last week in April, three different people applied to me for a place to bring their sick in order that they might have a place "to die in," stating that every hospital in the City had declined them, and although there are sanitoria now in Colorado, and two projected in Denver, the express purpose of these, so stated is "only for those strictly in the first stages." While it would be a great deal pleasanter to care for only those who are quite well, what is to become of those desperately sick? and what is to become of those who cannot care for themselves? This we have sought to do and in no case shut the door on such, and in no case has a person ever been sent away from The Home because they had no means. I want to acknowledge with gratitude, the assistance I have received in carrying out the work in some of the charitable efforts. Walley & Rollins have defrayed the entire expenses of two funerals, furnishing caskets, carriages, and the most careful service. Daniels & Fishers, The Park Floral Co., and D. S. Grimes & Son have been most generous, from time to time, in giving flowers, which minister so largely to the sick room.

There have been cures, those who have improved to a marked degree, so they could resume their places in life, ten.

The salaries for the past year show a considerable increase over the year before, this is accounted for—the greater number of sick persons in Heartsease demands a larger number of nurses, so that the salaries paid the nurses this year, over last, amounts to $1564.21. This has been partly due to the fact that the very sick from the Adams Memorial were cared for here, who were not able to pay for extra services. I have never through the winter been without from one to four who were costing from $20.00 to $25.00 a week each, being obliged to care for them free.

The condition of The Home is such that one would never believe it to be eight years old. I have sought to protect it, and to care for every department carefully, and as long as this can be done, so long will The Home prove of itself inestimable value and blessing, but without this care it would become anything but a blessing.

This Church Home has needed for years the stamp of the Church Home, or the central place of worship, consecrated to Him, a Chapel. This great need has been met, and there is now in process of erection a beautiful Chapel, of the Sir Christopher Wren type, to be known as "The Chapel of Our Merciful Saviour." The Chapel is the gift of one friend whose name will not appear. The Choir is to contain a beautiful memorial window in memory of our late Bishop. The organ is to be from a legacy from the late Mrs. Wm. McLellan, and a window is to be placed in the Baptistry by her husband, in her memory. These two gifts will bear the names of both. The Sanctuary is the gift of Mrs. Edward Eddy, and will be known as the Amelia Eddy Gift. The picture given some years ago by Mrs. Isaac Bell will be placed over the Altar as a memorial to her, who has died since the gift was made. The Sanctuary will also contain four carvings done by the peasants of Oberammergau. The finishing of the interior will correspond, each part with the other—the walls being of brick and terra cotta, the floors of mosaic tile, the ceiling and finish of all being of English brown oak.

The entire cost of the chapel is in hand, and it is hoped it will be ready for dedication the first week in September, and we do earnestly pray that this house which is being built to His glory may ever stand as a blessing to mankind—speaking of God's love to His children.

This great Church work should always be a sermon to everyone of what things God is willing and able to do for His children.

Regarding the spiritual work I can no more speak of that than any other clergyman—for we cannot measure the good God has permitted us to do. I can only say prayers have been said publicly twice every day, the Holy Communion celebrated the first and third Sundays of each month, and two sermons preached each Sunday. I have tried to do my best and to meet each duty and need, so far as I have known how, and with the means I have had at my disposal. God grant it may be acceptable to Him.

Respectfully submitted,

FREDERICK W. OAKES,
Superintendent.

Report of Board of Managers of S. Luke's Hospital.

Denver, Colo., June 1, 1903.

To the Annual Council, Diocese of Colorado:

We have the honor to make the following report of the work done in S. Luke's Hospital for the present year ending Sept. 30th, 1902.

Patients remaining in Hospital, Oct. 1st, 1901.....	68
Patients received during the year.....	927
Total.....	995
Patients discharged during the year.....	859
Patients died.....	82
Patients remaining Sept. 30th, 1902.....	54
Total.....	995
Total Operations.....	545
Total days of work.....	18,606
Churchmen.....	48
Denominations and unclassified.....	949
Male patients.....	500
Female patients.....	495
Full paying patients.....	732
Part paying patients.....	238
Free patients.....	25

The Board of Managers have recently approved plans for the addition of a new wing to, and remodelling all old buildings of the Hospital.

The best accepted methods of modern construction and the most practical arrangements have been carefully considered, and we think will be embodied in this work.

The cost for the improvements complete, as stated in responsible bids received is $77,000.00.

Contracts have been let for, and work is now progressing on the new wing, its connections, and the changes in Administration Building, at a cost of $53,920.00.

This portion of the whole plan, and the cost of it, is provided for by a loan of $50,000.00, secured on favorable terms, on the whole property, and $3,920.00 from the sale of lots belonging to the Hospital.

It was thought prudent to undertake just so much of the whole plan, as could be financially arranged for at this time, but it is hoped that the additional $23,080.00 can be raised by the time the new wing is finished, and that all other changes, conveniences and facilities may be carried to completion, as a whole, at an early date.

A very important annex also under construction is to be added to the Hospital, through the munificent gift of Judge Moses Hallett, who erects and furnishes at his own expense, a beautiful and useful structure for a Nurses' Home — "The Katharine Hallett Home for Nurses."

Its influence upon, and assistance in, all the work of the Hospital, cannot be forgotten through years to come.

Signed,

W. B. TEBBERTS,
Secretary.

Appendix L.

The Archdeacon's Report.

Right Reverend Father in God:

I herewith beg to report my work for the eleven months last past. Upon entering on my duties as Archdeacon, I noticed the apparent inequality of the geographical distribution of our Church work, especially in the north and eastern parts of the Diocese, and that there was no part of our regular work done within 200 miles of the Kansas line. Sedgwick, Phillips, Yuma, Logan, Washington and Morgan Counties, with a population of 14,500 people, living in the rapidly growing towns, which were located mostly on the South Platte River, with a population varying from 500 to 1300 souls each, had no regular work being done in them. Vigorous missions have now been established and organized in Sterling, the County Seat of Logan County, with a population of 1300, and in Fort Morgan, County Seat of Morgan County, with a population of 1100. It seems important that we should have regular Church work established in these rich agricultural towns for the good of the people and of the Church and to set off the fluctuations which are unavoidable in the many parishes and missions which are located in purely mining localities. It is certain that the work in this thriving and rapidly growing territory will soon result in bringing many souls into the Church, and in being a source of strength to the Diocese of Colorado. At present, services are held regularly at Fort Morgan and Sterling on Sunday morning and Sunday evening respectively, once a month, with weekday services in the other County Towns. The six Northeastern Counties therefore are under the regular ministrations of this Church. I have organized missions at Walsenburg and Rugby and attached them to Aguilar; the population is 3,050, mostly coal miners. This mission is now self-supporting and placed under the charge of the Reverend George Symington. I have organized a vigorous mission at Loveland, population 3,000. The old Roman Catholic Church there has been acquired and partly paid for, and services are regularly held. A class of eight persons is now ready and will be confirmed by the Bishop on the 9th of June. I have established a mission at Arvada, which has been attached to Golden, under the Rectorship of the Reverend John A. Howell. Rocky Ford and Manzanola have been reorganized and placed under the ministrations of the Reverend

J. M. McBride of Rocky Ford, leaving the East Arkansas Valley in charge of the Reverend Frederick Welham, of La Junta. At Creede the people have raised $200.00 in cash and in promises $300.00 more, for their new Church. The plans and specifications of this Church were drawn by Mr. T. McLaren, Architect, of Colorado Springs, who kindly donated his services for the benefit of the Church at Creede.

I have visited or officiated at the following places:

2625 East 1st St.
Los Angeles, California
June 3rd, 1903

To the Right Rev. C. S. Olmsted, D. D.

My Dear Bishop:

During the past year I have suffered a good deal from my old complaint, but last summer I was able to supply the Church of the Ascension, Los Angeles, while the Rector was absent, with Sunday services for six weeks, morning and night, and to administer the Holy Communion three times.

Yours sincerely in Christ,
S. H. S. GALLAUDET.

Brooklyn, June 2nd, 1903.

Right Reverend and Dear Sir:

In accordance with the requirements of the Canon I hereby beg to present to you the following report:

During the past year I have officiated, preached and celebrated Holy Communion in several places, and had charge during the summer of 1902 of St. James' Church, Caldwell, N. Y. in the absence of the Rector.

Faithfully yours,
SAMUEL H. BISHOP.

Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary.

No Diocese or Parish can hope to be successful that does not take some interest in Missions.

Be it ever so small it enlarges the sympathies and arouses greater activity in all Christian work and quickens the spiritual life of those taking part. Jesus Christ said, "If any man will be my disciple, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me." Every baptised woman is a member of the Woman's Auxiliary, yet how very small a proportion take part in its work. We pray that all may be aroused to the privilege offered them.

In Denver we have the Diocesan Branch; and there has been a meeting in each Parish Church during the year and an average attendance of 60. Papers have been written for nearly every meeting on subjects assigned at the beginning of the year.

S. Mark's, Denver has a Parish Branch which meets the first Tuesday in every month. Pueblo also has a Parish Branch lately organized. Every Guild should have a Missionary Department and Committee.

Nearly every Parish in the Diocese does some work for S. Luke's Hospital. Let me urge them to renewed energy for the coming year. Help it all you can, by gifts of money for the improvements or work to help in the furnishing and equipment.

On May 7th, Mrs. Spalding and Mrs. Olmsted visited West Plum Creek, Sedalia, and organized a Guild, which will do Missionary work in Advent and Lent. A Junior Auxiliary was also formed. The Clergyman from Littleton goes there and to Castle Rock.

Words fail to express the sorrow we feel at the burning of S. John's Cathedral. Dear to every heart, it has been the home of many who now belong to other parishes; and to those who have never known any other place of worship we extend our heartfelt sympathy, and our earnest prayers are offered that every one may give "as the Lord hath prospered him" for the speedy rebuilding of a beautiful and worthy structure.

After a weary and painful illness Mrs. Katherine Hallett entered into rest in the summer of 1902. Never weary in well-doing, her life was a benediction to all who knew her. "Of blessed memory."

The opening service of the Nineteenth Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary was held at S. Mark's Church, June 5th, 1903 at 10 a. m. Holy Communion was administered by the Bishop assisted by Rev. Messrs. Crowe and Davies. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Canon E. L. Eustis of the Cathedral Parish, Denver. The Bishop addressed the Auxiliary at the close of the service followed by five minute talks by Rev. Messrs. Andras, Victor; Eastham, Buena Vista; Hobbs of Emmanuel, Denver; Penley, Trinidad; Heal, Colorado City; O'Malley, S. Stephen's, Denver.

Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock at Wolfe Hall.

The business meeting was opened at 2 p. m. by Rev. Mr. Houghton with prayers.

Minutes of the Annual Meeting of 1902 were read and approved. Reports followed from Corresponding Secretary, Treasurer, Junior Auxiliary, Babies' Branch, United Offering, Altar Department and Girls' Friendly Society and Church Periodical Club. As there is some deficiency in the pledges to the Bishop it was moved, seconded and carried, that an offering be made at this meeting.

The Archdeacon made his report for the year.

As S. Peter's Church, Denver, has a new Altar, the old one is to be given away. The Director of the Altar Department reports $30.00 on hand, therefore a resolution was passed that the Bishop make such disposition of this money as he thinks best. A committee on hospitality consisting of one person from each Parish in Denver, was appointed to arrange for entertaining members of the Auxiliary from the outside Parishes in the Diocese during the next Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary. It was moved by Mrs. McCrillis and seconded by Miss Brent that a register be provided for the names of the delegates. This was carried.

The following list is the Hospitality Committee:

Mrs. Thos. Macon, Cathedral	Mrs. E. W. Robinson, Epiphany
Mrs. Geo. Chessman, S. Mark's	Mrs. Henry Youngs, S. Peter's
Mrs. Chas. Reuter, S. Barnabas	Mrs. E. S. Bixby, Emmanuel

Mrs. J. W. Penrose, S. Stephen's	Mrs. F. Huxtable, S. Luke's

Mrs. Macon is Chairman of the above Committee.

A letter was read from Father Byrne by Mrs. Smith enclosing $5.00 for the Woman's Auxiliary. Mrs. Smith wished to write the letter of thanks to him, herself.

A letter of thanks was ordered sent to Miss Kerr for the use of Wolfe Hall.

A Missionary Council will be held in Washington, D. C., the last of October. Mrs. Charles S. Olmsted and Mrs. Milo A. Smith were appointed delegates to the same.

Report of Corresponding Secretary.

During the past year nine boxes have been contributed by nine branches of the Auxiliary, the total value being $382.78; three have been sent outside the Diocese, valued at $296.53; and six within the Diocese, valued at $86.25. The sum of $55.60 in cash has been sent to schools and missionaries, etc.

The value of the boxes is not as large as usual, but the increased amount pledged by the Auxiliary to the Bishop will more than make up the difference. Many branches report parochial and local charity work which cannot be reported in the general report of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Report of Secretary Junior Auxiliary.

The Junior work for the past year began in October last with a meeting at the home of the Secretary, to which each Denver Parish was asked to send a representative. The following responded: S. Mark's, S. Barnabas', Emmanuel, Epiphany, Trinity Memorial, and All Saints'. Of these, two have no Junior Branch. The work for the coming year was discussed, and it was decided that all the Denver Branches together with Grace Church, Colorado Springs should unite in sending a Christmas box to the Rev. M. J. Hersey, Leland, Utah, who has 150 Indian children under his care. The box was packed at S. Mark's on Dec. 6th, a delegation from nearly every branch being present. Through the efforts of Mr. Houghton it was sent free of charge to Price, the nearest railroad station. The stage charges which amounted to $2.00 were defrayed by S. Agnes' Guild, S. Christine's Guild, S. John's Cathedral, and a member of Trinity Memorial.

On the afternoon of January 18th a United Missionary Meeting was held at S. Mark's Church. Branches present were: S. Mark's, S. Barnabas', S. Peter's, Emmanuel and Epiphany. Talks on Missions were given by the Rev. J. H. Houghton and the Rev. Douglas I. Hobbs. The collection, which amounted to $8.40, was given to Missions.

REPORT OF THE REGISTRAR.

The Registrar begs leave to make the following report:

The Journals and Bishops' Addresses and numerous pamphlets received from the Dioceses and jurisdictions of the Church have been filed in the Diocesan Library at Matthew's Hall. This Library contains complete, or almost complete, files of the Journals of all Dioceses from 1875 to date, and some from their organization. During this year all these thousands of volumes have been overhauled, dusted, arranged in order, and 850 duplicates culled out and put apart by themselves; so that now the Journals are far more accessible than they have ever been before. Note has been made of the dates lacking in the file of each Diocese, and requests will be made for the missing numbers of the various Secretaries. When the new Chapter House is completed, it is understood that there will be safe accommodation for these documents. No special duties were prescribed by the Council of last year.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWARD L. EUSTIS.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The last words of our Lord before His Ascension were: "Ye shall be witnesses to me unto the uttermost parts of the earth." Undoubtedly therefore, the chief work given to His followers is the enlargement of the borders of His Kingdom by making Him known to all mankind. We therefore recommend the appointment of a committee by the Bishop for the purpose of stirring up increased interest in the work of Domestic and Foreign Missions throughout the Diocese.

While the tellers were out the Rev. E. W. Sibbald read the following

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE PERMISSIVE USE OF THE REVISED VERSION OF THE BIBLE.

Your Committee appointed to consider and report on the notice of Petition to the General Convention, by the Diocese of California requesting permissive use of the Revised Version of the Holy Scripture in the service of the Church, beg to report:

That they have respectfully considered the above notice of Petition, and desire to state that they cannot wholly endorse its sentiments or adopt its intent. Many reasons might be adduced in support of our position, but the whole subject has been before the Church for so long that everyone is conversant with it, and it is unnecessary to reiterate the arguments.

Contrary to the statements "that there is a growing sentiment throughout the Church in favour of the Revised Version in public worship," we believe that upon maturer thought the Church at large is more and more decided to conserve the use of the Authorized Version.

Nevertheless, while not opposing the permissive use of the Revised Version, and recognizing the standing and scholarship of the men desiring its permissive use, your Committee do not deem it advisable to petition the General Convention at this time.

E. W. SIBBALD,
H. MARTYN HART,
V. OWEN PENLEY,
FREDERICK F. KRAMER,
ARTHUR N. TAFT,
A. D. PARKER.

On motion this report was adopted.

Resolved, That this Diocese views with great satisfaction the kindness and generous manner in which the American Church Building Fund Commission has helped the building of churches by grants.

donations and loans to Parishes and Missions in Colorado. The Diocese expresses a hope that Parishes and Missions will show an appreciation by taking up a yearly collection for the Commission.

Mr. A. D. Parker moved that Article IX, Sec. 1 be amended as follows:

In accordance with Article XX of the Constitution that Article IX, Sec. 1, be amended by striking out the last sentence, viz: "He shall be ex-officio a member of the Council, but shall have no vote;" so that the Article IX, Sec. 1, as amended shall read:

It shall be his duty to receive all moneys collected under the authority of the Council and disburse them under its direction except in such cases as may be otherwise specially provided for. The Rev. W. O. Cone then read the

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Your Committee has examined the reports of the Parishes and Missions and finds therein several items which indicate substantial progress, and some which give occasion for apprehension and call for improvement.

It is not necessary to recapitulate the general work of the Diocese which has been reviewed in the Bishop's Address and in the various financial reports.

In all departments of our activities the progress in financial affairs has been sure and steady. The payment of debts and the planning for new buildings continue marked features of the reports.

First, we wish to record our gratification at the report of the Secretary for Diocesan Missions. While a few Parishes are behind their appropriations, it is remarkable that the amount of money raised this year is $1,100 in excess of any former year. The steady increase of this fund is an index of the success of the Diocese.

We wish also to put on record the satisfaction felt by the Council in the magnificent new works and buildings of "The Home," and the additions to St. Luke's Hospital, notably the Hallett Home for Nurses, which is the first memorial institution ever built by a member of this Diocese.

The statistics of spiritual work accomplished are generally indicative of similar progress. The Bishop reports 465 confirmations which is about the same as last year and represents a good showing for the work of the Clergy. Last year this Committee called your attention solemnly to the marked falling off in the number of baptisms. This condition has, for various reasons become notable throughout the country, and has attracted the attention and aroused the fears of all churchmen. We are glad to note that while the number is still far below what it should be, the figures of this year show a tendency toward the normal. In 1902, 599 persons were baptised in this Diocese; in 1903 the number had fallen off over nine per cent, there being only 548 baptisms reported. This year the number is still smaller, though the proportion of loss is only one-tenth of the per cent. It is to be hoped that the tide has turned permanently. We ask the Clergy to emphasize this most essential matter in their teaching this year.

The optimistic tone of the Bishop's Address may well be the key note of the year. It is but one of the many voices calling to the workers of the Church: "Lift up your hearts." Let us lift them up unto the Lord.

C. H. MARSHALL,

N. E. BARKALOW,
LYMAN ROBISON,
ARNOLD A. BOWHAY.

The Rev. C. H. Marshall nominated the following gentlemen to serve as alternate lay deputies to the General Convention: Messrs. Charles Ruter, S. D. Trimble, G. F. Shelby and A. A. Bowhay.

The Rev. J. W. Ohl moved that nominations be closed and that the rules be suspended and the Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for them. Carried.

The Rev. E. W. Sibbald reported for the Committee appointed to consider that portion of the Bishop's Address on reverence for the Bible.

Your Committee to consider that part of the Bishop's Address relating to the loss of the sense of the sacredness of the Holy Scriptures, evinced by a few individuals; and this, in some instances, contrary to their avowed profession of faith, desires to call attention to the statements made by the Right Reverend, the Bishop in this connection.

We desire to express our high appreciation of the Bishop's strong rebuke to those so offending. While deploring the necessity for such rebuke we hope that it will have a salutary effect upon those deserving it; and that it will counteract the love of popularity by assuming the roll of scholarship and learning in criticising the inspiration of God's Word.

Respectfully submitted,

E. W. SIBBALD,

V. OWEN PENLEY,
A. D. PARKER.

The report on motion was adopted.

On motion the Council adjourned for lunch.

WOLFE HALL,
THURSDAY, 2:00 p. m. }

The Bishop called Council to order.

The Committee on the observance of the Rev. C. H. Marshall's anniversary reported progress through the Rev. F. W. Oakes.

Dr. Kramer presented the

REPORT OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE.

The Committee on Finance begs leave to report as follows:

The reports of the various Treasurers show that the finances of the Diocese are carried on according to sound business principles.

It is highly gratifying to know that more money than ever before was received and disbursed by the Treasurer of Diocesan Missions. The report of the Treasurer of the Episcopate Fund shows that there was a substantial surplus over all expenses during the past year. The report of the Home shows that this institution has had an excellent year, financially as well as otherwise; but it is very evident that larger endowments are needed to carry out fully the plan of the Home. It would be a source of great satisfaction if the debt on Wolfe Hall were removed. The co-operation of all church people is earnestly solicited in order to place this school on a safe financial basis.

There is a call for such a school in the midst of our excellent national system of education. It supplies a form of education which cannot be secured in any other manner; and it leaves an impression on the life and character of our young girls which cannot be overestimated.

We note that its financial affairs are excellently administered, which must be of great assistance to its future progress and usefulness. We gratefully recognize that we have a lady as principal whose ability for such a place is prominent.

We therefore earnestly appeal to the Clergy and laymen of the Church for unanimous and enthusiastic co-operation. We should realize that its interests should be supported by everyone as of great value to the Church, as well as to the individual life of the student.

Appendix A.

Bishop's Address.

Dear Brethren of the Clergy and of the Laity:—

It is with no little pleasure that I meet with you in this fair city in our Diocesan Council. If it is a joy to see you in your own homes, it is equally a joy to see you in mine. We meet after a year of many labors. The Diocese has prospered and much has been done both in the way of strengthening old places and of establishing new ones. We have met with no heavy disaster, such as the destruction of S. John's Cathedral was a year ago—but on the contrary we have made a long step toward the upbuilding of a Cathedral plan, which to those who live to see it completed will appear one of the fairest in Christendom. The Chapter House is nearly finished. It will serve many useful purposes in our Diocesan life, and will be a beautiful part of the Cathedral plan. It must not be judged as it stands by itself, although strong, lofty and rugged in its outlines—only when the great Choir looms by the side of it and the vast tower casts its evening shadows over it, and it puts on its outer garment of white stone and flings out its proper adornments of architectural beauty, can its merits be properly gauged, and next year, please God, we shall open our Council within its walls. Sometime ere long we shall with due solemnity, and surrounded, I trust, by some of our neighboring Bishops, and the corona of our Diocesan Presbyters and many of our faithful Laity, place the cornerstone of the great Cathedral, which through future ages is to witness to the majesty of Our Invisible

King, and to the faith of His servants. While we are waiting for the psychological moment to begin our great fane, I want the people of this Diocese to work out what schemes they can to raise such sums of money towards the building as shall be reasonable and right. We have our vast missionary field to cover. We must in several instances increase the livings of our Clergy. We must pay our Wolfe Hall and S. Luke's Hospital debts. We must increase our gifts to the General Missionary work of the Church. We must not turn away young men seeking Holy Orders for want of funds to educate them, but as he can do the most work who has the most to do, so they can give most who have the most to give. Our state is soon to revive from its dull day of business inertness induced by depressing conditions; prosperity is going to light upon our banners, and then the Church must feel the incoming of wealth. The Church of Colorado is going to give far more than it has ever given. Already in the past year its Board of Missions has received and disbursed more than it has ever had in any year. Already at least a dozen clerical salaries have been increased in two years. A state that has not a chime of bells is to have three chimes all at once—one in S. John's Cathedral, one in S. John's Church in Boulder, and one in the Chapel of Our Merciful Savior at the Home. The hospital is enriched by a munificent benefaction of many thousands. The Home has a net increase in the value of its property of $120,000 in the past year. If in a year of much financial difficulty we have such progress to record, what shall we not be able to tell you in other brighter years to come! I want the whole Diocese to have a hand in the Cathedral building. I want every man, woman and child to give something to this dear object. We must soon begin an endowment, so that the music and the salary of one resident Canon at least can be provided for, besides enough to keep the fabric in repair and the grounds always beautiful. I trust that a great enthusiasm for our Cathedral may arise in all hearts, and I cannot but believe that it will be so. Year after year as we assemble here we shall, I trust, see new additions and new adornments to testify to the affection of a whole Diocese to the Bishop's Church.

It has probably not escaped your minds that the Dean of our Cathedral took up his work here at Michaelmas twenty-five years ago. Only one of our Clergy in active service, the Rev. Canon Marshall, has been in the Diocese for a longer period—Canon Marshall rounds out thirty years of service in the Diocese this year, during which he has labored exclusively for its good. Next to the Dean comes the Rev. Canon Ohl, with whom in June last I kept his fifteenth anniversary of his Rectorship of Salida; and who has served the Diocese continuously for eighteen years. It is a mark of stability and patience when men remain at their post for so many years, and we owe them our love and esteem. I have suggested to the Cathedral people that the year must not pass by without some suitable recognition of the Dean's pastorate, and I know that you, my brethren, will at this Council properly note the long labors of our beloved friends who have staid with us till we feel that they are a part of our very selves. The good Father Byrne, who heads the list of our Presbyters, removed into the Diocese in 1867, and has recently entered upon his ninety-eighth year.

Two or three of the Clergy of the Diocese have recently told me that they should stay with me unto the end. I am sure it tends to make the Diocese strong when we can keep good men steadily at their posts. The Church gains an influence which cannot be had in any other way, and it gives a Bishop a feeling of strength and hopefulness when he knows whom to rely upon and whom at all times to trust.

The death of Bishop Clark, of Bishop Leonard and of Bishop Dudley leaves the American Church under a heavy weight of mourning. Bishop Clark, of Rhode Island, was a man of singular probity, culture, sanity, eloquence, fidelity. He had a most tender heart, a most sprightly wit, a most winning personality. One who knew him well, the Rev. Mr.

Ayres, has written for the "Shepherd's Crook" a beautiful tribute to his memory. His departure takes away a link with a long vanished past. Although upwards of ninety, and in his old age devoted with a fresh zeal to the Evangelical principles of his youth, he was essentially a man of his time, whose pulses beat with its heart and who did not grow old within. Was there ever a sweeter swan song than that little poem with which he welcomed death! In this Diocese Bishop Leonard, of Salt Lake, was intimately known. He confirmed a number of our people, and was one of my Consecrators. I am glad I was present at his fifteenth anniversary, and could take a share in the solemn service of his burial. We seldom know what treasures we have until they are taken away—and it seemed to me that Bishop Leonard often labored without due recognition. But whether that were so or not, we know he has his bright reward in a world where all are measured by their true worth.

Bishop Dudley, of Kentucky, was a great figure. He had many qualities of rare excellence—and was one of the few men who never stop growing. He was not afraid to modify his tastes and opinions on many not unimportant points as life went on, when he found good reason to do so. He was a man of true kindness—gracious with an unstudied dignity which was the natural atmosphere of his life. Abroad he so represented our American Church and Episcopate as to shed glory upon both, and at home he especially showed his apostolic spirit by his devotion to the cause of religion among the colored race. In this Diocese we have lost three of the Clergy by death—the Rev. Arthur Rooney, the Rev. Thos. L. Smith and the Rev. Geo. Leslie. All had borne patiently their long and tedious illness, and to the Bishop of Olympia we owe much for his very tender and sympathetic helpfulness toward Mr. Leslie, whom he cared for and buried.

As God calls his servants home, it should awaken in us all a fresh sense of our mortality and a new zeal to do all we can in Our Master's service while it is day.

The Council of the Diocese met last year on the 3rd and 4th days of June, and was well attended both by the Clergy and the Laity. On the preceding evening I presented their diplomas to the young ladies who graduated from Wolfe Hall, and made an address on "The Culture of the Imagination." This record of work for the year would be quite incomplete by itself. We need to remember that the Walsenburg Church, just finished, and begun since the last Council, is ready for consecration, and represents a cost of at least seventeen hundred dollars; that a new church in Berkeley will be ready for occupancy in less than a month's time; that the lots in Arvada have been paid for; that the Chapel of Our Merciful Saviour at the Home has been added to our treasures; that the Hallett Home for Nurses has been given us by the Hon. Moses Hallett in memory of his wife, and is one of the most complete and spacious buildings of the kind to be found in America; that a new wing has been added to S. Luke's Hospital at a great cost, making the institution almost as useful again as it was before; that the Parishes in Denver have had a year of real increase and prosperity; that S. Paul's, Denver, has materially reduced its debt and increased its Rector's salary; that S. Stephen's has again added to its Rector's salary, has added two lots to its valuable property and has begun a new Rectory to cost thirty-eight hundred dollars; that S. Mark's, Denver, has again reduced its indebtedness; that the Church of The Redeemer has become a Cathedral Mission and is personally and constantly aided by the Dean; that the Epiphany has spent something like eight hundred dollars in improvements and has added a hundred dollars to its incumbent's salary; that a new work has been begun in Arlington, where a tent has been erected and a Sunday School gathered; that S. Philip's House, under the Rev. Mr. Mills, has done much vigorous work; that the new field, of which Fort Morgan is the center, has its own minister in residence; that Park County for the first time has its own resident Missionary; that Custer County will next Sunday welcome its new Missionary, who is to have his own horse and visit the entire countryside; that S. John's new church, Boulder, will be completed in the late autumn, with its chime and tower, the latter built by the citizens of that place, irrespective of their connection with the Church; that the money is all in hand and the plans decided on for the new church in Manitou, so that the building will be ready for consecration before Christmas; that several new points have been reached with the Church's services; that a great work is doing among the teachers and students of the Golden School of Mines, and that the Rector's salary has been largely increased; that Georgetown is wideawake and liberally supporting the services, and Nevadaville has all the energy of a new work; that a vigorous work is doing in the Arkansas Valley, and Antonito, in the San Luis Valley, is feeling the necessity of having a church; that the number of confirmations have exceeded those of any previous year, and that there are seven postulants and three candidates for Priest's orders.

We have three or four vacancies which I hope may be soon filled. It is often difficult to fill a vacancy at once. It is sometimes wiser to let a point remain vacant awhile in order to get the right man than to hasten to fill it with any one of the numerous applicants, not known except by name to the Bishop. Several of our Missions in the mining region have suffered incalculably during the year, but we can afford to wait for the better times we trust are coming to Colorado. If the Church can demonstrate to the world that she is the Church of all the people, and not of a party or of a class, rich or poor, she will do much to hold a place as an imperceptible arbiter in the age-long dispute between capital and labor. The state has suffered beyond words from our recent strikes, and all kinds of enterprises are for the moment affected. But good sense on all sides must prevail. The common welfare must be our ultimate motto. The people, when given time for reflection, are not fools—and time is a great agent in helping all to see aright.

We need money to carry on our multifarious work. We would teach the people that it is a duty they owe to God—to themselves—to the Church of Christ and to their country to give righteously, systematically, regularly. Is it not time when the heads of the Church should unite in condemning the spirit of undue luxury, greed, money-loving and illegitimate methods of gaining wealth which has become, after a spirit of unfaith, the chief curse of our time and country? I rejoice that a member of another Communion has just given a million and a half of money toward building a Cathedral for his Church in an American city. It is a bright example of one of the right uses of vast wealth. Religion wants its shrines as well as Education and Commerce. Without worship and a morality that springs out of a religious faith, we must lose our stability as a people, and at last our place among the great nations of the earth. We must live and get gain and give under the sense of our duty to a Master who has made us for Himself and has never abdicated His ownership.

I wish again this year to commend to the Diocese the General Clergy Relief Fund, with the hope that at least one offering in every Parish and Mission may be set aside for its use. I wish also to note the meeting of the S. Andrew's Brotherhood Convention in the City of Philadelphia on September 29-30 and October 1 and 2, which if as strong and timely as the last one, which was held here in Denver, must be of much helpfulness to the Brotherhood.

In January last the First Conference of the Sixth Missionary District was held in Kansas City. It was the first Missionary Conference that I ever attended in all its sessions and the second that I ever attended at all. It did much to convert me from my old opinion that too much time was commonly wasted in Conventions and Conferences. I am not yet sure that my old opinion is not partly true—but certainly everyone gained much who attended at Kansas City. There was not a tame speech made—and a deep religious feeling ran through the whole session. I am therefore going to recommend to all who can get away next January to go to Omaha to attend the Second Conference of the Sixth District. This Conference will consist of the Bishops of the district and of five clerical and five lay delegates to be chosen by each Diocese or Missionary District. It was urged by the Conference that in the election of delegates each Diocese and Missionary District elect such delegates as may reasonably expect to attend. The Bishop is empowered to fill vacancies as they may occur.

I wish heartily to commend to the Clergy and Parishes the Girls' Friendly Society. It is a help to many a church and has an excellent constitution and purpose.

I am grateful for the growth of interest in the Diocese in our Foreign and Domestic Missionary work. We have already given far more than we gave in all the last fiscal year, and we still have three months in which to send offerings to the Church Missions House in New York. I shall feel unsatisfied, however, until every Parish and Mission gives something and until the Diocese gives all it is expected by the General Board to give.

Our Diocesan Missions will always be our greatest object of interest. We must do a good deal of almost purely Missionary work in thinly settled agricultural districts and in the decaying mining towns. I am not unmindful of our duty to the weak places in Denver and Pueblo, nor to new communities, when I say we must minister to the scattered flock far away among the mountains and along the sun-scorched prairies—and I am vastly encouraged by what your generosity the last year has enabled me to do. The Cathedral has risen to the height of its responsibility as the Chief Church in the Diocese by giving a thousand dollars to this object, and even small Missions have in some cases given more than was suggested to them to give. If there are any Parishes or Missions which have not given anything to this necessary work, I trust they may be ashamed of themselves and never let it happen again.

I trust that the Clergy are deeply interested in the welfare and growth of Wolfe Hall. The school meets a great need in the Diocese and should have the cordial co-operation of all our people. It could not have a more capable principal, and its finances are managed with the strictest care.

S. Luke's Hospital has been greatly blessed this year—and now we have in the next few years to face a heavy debt. We shall win through all right, but we need endowments. What is really requisite is not endowments of rooms or beds, or endowments that limit the discretion of the managers, but simply general endowments, the income of which can be applied as exigency demands. We ought to have this very day one hundred thousand dollars, so that we might do charity work without running behind in our expenses. As it is we are expected to make bricks without straw. I pray that Denver and Colorado will not long see us left to struggle with the perpetual question how to help the needy sick and at the same time how to pay our monthly bills.

The Home is the astonishment of the West. It will continue to do much free work, but like the hospital must depend on endowment, if it is to do all that is in our hearts to do. With increasing endowments we may look forward to a long future of extensive usefulness on its part. The Chapel of Our Merciful Saviour is a crown of beauty to the institution, which stamps it, as nothing else would, with a Churchly and religious character. It is as gratifying as it is surprising to be able to record the extraordinary increase in the net value of the Home property, since the last Council. We have these great institutions—the Cathedral, the Hospital, the Diocesan School for Girls, the Home. Let us be loyal to our own and helpful toward our own and commend our own by every honest and legitimate effort, and may God give His richest blessings to our Diocese and all that it comprises!

I shall not detain you long with any further remarks. The work of the Diocese is so vast and so varied that it takes time to speak of it; but I am moved to say a few solemn words to my Clergy and people about the duty of reverence towards the Divine Scriptures. We have come to a point in our religious history of many centuries—for the first time—when the ridicule and disparagement of GOD'S word, which heathens and infidels were used to employ have been freely exercised by persons vowed to defend and venerate it. We have lived to hear from the lips of some ministers of the Word such expressions as puerile, disgusting, revolting, blasphemous, applied to portions of Holy Writ, and we have waited to see what the Church has to say to such persons. I have no word to say against legitimate criticism nor against an honest investigation of the books of Holy Scripture. I am not a blind advocate of one theory of inspiration as against another; but we have to remember that there is a fact and a doctrine of Inspiration—which Scripture itself affirms and which the Church has always taught. Whatever method people outside of the Church may adopt in approaching the Holy Scriptures must be left to them, but a member of the Church can approach them only from the side of a belief in the fact of their inspiration. As Christ Our Lord is Divine, before He becomes Human, so His Sacred Word is eternally true before it clothes itself with a human language—and the Divine is vaster and deeper and more important than the human.

The Author of Scripture, the Son of GOD teaching by His Spirit, is more august than His prophets and apostles, who speak the thing which he reveals. It is irreverent therefore to approach the Scriptures merely on the human side. It is to court blindness in their interpretation. It is to find oneself walking in a dark place without a lamp, and stumbling on the stones without a staff. I doubt if anyone fails greatly in discovering the true light which Holy Scripture has to reveal who makes it a point to read it in a spirit of devotion. Indeed I believe that the devotional study of the Bible is a sure antidote to a loss of faith in veritable inspiration. Side by side with our study of language and our comparison of documents and our investigation of sources must be our reverent use of its glorious lessons. Holy Scriptures are worthy to be read on our knees—how fearful then must it be to cast scorn and derision upon them! To a mind like Bishop Christopher Wordworth's or Bishop Ellicott's or Bishop Westcott's, their less interesting and more prosaic portions glow with Divine brightness and pulsate with Divine significance, and in their psalms and gospel pages are heard the melody of heaven. Let us not be led away by an irreverent method of dealing with our wondrous inheritance. Let us cherish the unmutated message of Our Lord to His people—and as we fare forward on our pilgrim path to meet Him at His appearing and His Kingdom, let us meditate upon His Holy teachings day and night. For the Word of the Lord endureth forever, and this is the Word which by the Gospel is preached unto you.

THE HOME

To the Right Reverend Bishop and Members of the Council:

The year that has just passed has been one of quiet and helpful growth. The majority of cases treated at The Home have responded in a very encouraging way. The general routine work has been much as usual, only something of an improvement on any past year. The character of the work and of the people coming to The Home, have been of such an order as to be better able to appreciate—both the purpose and the home life. Too often do people seem to feel that because a hospital, sanitarium or home, is an institution of the Church or State—that anything will do to give it that is not wanted by anyone or anything else, and when it is lifted out of that line, it certainly is out of the ordinary, and, therefore, quite misunderstood, especially by those who never do anything for others unless they are themselves benefitted or given some prominence by so doing, and who never give to others anything they want for themselves—who are too often like the children who give away their broken-headed dolls—never their best. Now, this is just where the donors of The Home and its supporters have been quite out of the ordinary benefactors. Mr. Jesup, in making a memorial to his father and mother, wished for their sakes and for the sake of those to receive the benefits from these cottages, to give the best, and the donor of the Chapel, desired it to be most complete and harmonious, and I think the most conservative would say that The Chapel of Our Merciful Saviour is a credit in every respect to The Home, the Church and the Diocese, and yet it is not gaudy or showy, but simply religious in its every respect.

The work of The Home has often been misunderstood, because there is no other work like it, and because it has gone on doing its work quietly and attended to its own affairs; because it has had a positive work to do.

The Bishop will likely call attention to those points which he may feel of importance, and The Home is always at your service—you will always be most cordially received and shown every attention during the days of this Council—or at any other time.

I would like to call your attention to a few of the most important points from the standpoint of its needs. The Adams Memorial Home, as perhaps you will remember, was built as a memorial to the wife of one Mr. Chas. L. Adams of Chicago, who gave $50,000. The building was built as he wished in every respect; that is, he fully sanctioned it all. He knew that every building given to any institution should be endowed by its donor, and that no one else should be expected to give for the maintaining of his wife's memorial, he therefore, proposed to endow the building with an amount sufficient to keep the building in repair and to meet certain emergencies, he promised to do so last summer, but before the summer was passed or he had fulfilled his promise, he was dead, having died suddenly. His only heir was a daughter; she, being a Christian Scientist, and not in sympathy with institutions for the sick, did not care to meet his wishes and purposes, so the Adams Memorial Home is without endowment for its maintenance, except in a very small way. Ever since The Adams was built, The Home proper has furnished, free gratis, its light, water and heat; which, were it obliged to furnish itself, would cost at least $500 a month. Since January 1st, a charge of $250 a month has been made by The Home against The Adams, but as yet nothing has been paid. Of course The Home cannot be expected to donate this always. The Adams Memorial Home, therefore, cannot meet the expenses necessary to maintain it on the price charged. This portion of The Home is always filled and cares for forty-three people, the maximum charge being $25 a month. Besides this, it has done in personal charity, 540 days free, at the usual rate charged. The institution has failed to pay the cost of maintaining to the amount of $5,000. Therefore, the great need is for an endowment. To be sure we are not in debt, because The Home has borne the burden, but The Home cannot continue to do it, the demand is too much. In this building—being all under one roof—there is a greater tendency to a more familiar life which is dangerous, and the charge being so low there are often persons of a lower order of principles who will get in, and they do so to the detriment of good order—sometimes. Two letters are required “from reliable home people,” as to the character and worthiness of each individual admitted, but these letters do not always tell the truth, but we cannot go back of them. The Adams Home, has, however, been to the majority of occupants, a blessing indescribable, and many of the men and women who really have had the opportunity of judging, have without reserve, expressed their wonder at the ability to maintain the place on any such amount as is charged. The cost per capita of maintaining the place is surely one-half more than each individual pays, so for each person there is a cost to the management of at least $15 to $20 per month above what the person pays. So here is one of the very great needs of The Home. Sixteen persons have been cared for by the personal care above mentioned. In all 142 persons have been received during the year, and nine persons have died.

The Home proper has received 314 persons as guests during the year. There have been 38 deaths, and here it must be borne in mind that we receive persons in all stages of the disease, which can be said of no other institution for consumptives in America. There have been ten apparent cures. Twenty-six physicians have had patients here. The Home has done in personal charity for the individuals needing $2,350, or something over 1,500 days, at the rate of $1.50 a day.

It was hoped that The Adams would make the burden a little lighter, but it has not, owing to the fact that the endowment promised and planned for was not received.

The number of States and Counties represented are as follows:

New York.....45	Michigan.....10	Kansas.....3
Pennsylvania.....51	Massachusetts.....14	Florida.....3

One from a number of other States, and from Russia, Austria, Japan, England, Ireland, Scotland, Hawaii, and Turkey.

The cottages have been of great benefit, one having been added as a memorial to Mr. Jesup's father, Mr. Charles Jesup. They are rented, furnished in every detail to those coming with their families, and they are a blessing indeed.

The Chapel of Our Merciful Saviour has been described in the Church papers, and is quite familiar to most of you. Services are said daily. On Sunday two sermons are preached, and attractive services rendered. The Holy Communion is celebrated twice each month, and on feast days. The number in attendance at the Chapel has been very gratifying. The friend who gave the money for the Chapel prefers to remain unknown, but is, however, much interested in all its work. A Guild has been formed among the guests at The Home, and is called S. Mary's Guild, composed of men and women. I am anxious that there should be a S. Andrew's Brotherhood

Chapter formed soon, so that we may feel the organic life of the work.

I cannot tell the happiness and satisfaction this Chapel has been to me personally; perhaps you, some of you, have had the experience that may teach you, but to once more have the blessed privilege of performing the duties of a clergyman before the Altar, to feel my rightful privileges restored again, which I gave up for the time only, in answer to what was to me the call of God, to be able to begin each day, and close the same in His Church, has given me a happiness indeed, and not to me only, but to all who love Him and His Church.

The property increase, and the conditions are set forth in the statements attached to this report.

Very truly,

FREDERICK W. OAKES,

Superintendent.

The Archdeacon's Report.

Right Reverend Father in God:

I herewith submit my report for the past year. In the commencement of last year's report I drew attention to the inequality of the distribution of the missionary work of the Diocese. Today I feel grateful to be able to point out a wonderful improvement. The rapidly growing agricultural towns in Morgan and Logan counties now have the regular ministrations of a Priest of our Church. The Rev. Dr. Maclean, who will gradually take in Washington county, of which Akron is the county seat. At present his ministrations are chiefly confined to Morgan and Logan counties, of which Fort Morgan and Sterling are the county seats, with his headquarters at Fort Morgan.

I have devoted more time since to Sedgwick, Phillips and Yuma counties. I have organized a Mission at Julesburg, and visit Phillips and Yuma counties regularly, thus pushing our organized work to the limits of the Diocese on the Northeast side. A promising mission has been organized at Hugo, the county seat of Lincoln county, with some of the best and oldest business men and officials of the county as members of the Bishop's Committee. At Byers, in Arapahoe county, I have organized a new mission. At Byers there is no church edifice of any kind, but the farmers around and the business men of the town are rallying to the aid of the few communicants we have there, so that we shall have a church edifice of our own before the end of this conciliar year. At Brighton, the county seat of Adams county, and at Fort Lupton, seven miles north, I have organized missions, which are already bearing fruit. A class of ten is waiting confirmation, and the Bishop's visitation will be on Sunday next.

On the border of New Mexico, at Antonito and Conejos, capitals of Conejos county, on the Feast of the Epiphany this year, I organized the Mission of the Epiphany. There are there a strong Committee of men, a large Guild of women, and a Chorus choir of twelve voices already at work, and a class for confirmation will be ready for the Bishop's next visit. I beg to thank the Bishop, the Clergy, and many of the Laity for timely suggestions for the names of people and places, which have been helpful to me, and am especially grateful to the Clergy of the Diocese for the encouragement which their kind expressions of satisfaction with my efforts have given me. At the present time, besides the vacant parishes, there are forty-two missions and missionary points which demand my services:

I collected for the Diocese and Board of Missions in the Diocese	$153.00
I collected outside the Diocese	357.00
Total	$510.00

I wrote 384 letters, sent 18 columns of Colorado church news to the Churchman of New York; 19 columns to The Living Church, and about 22 columns to The Shepherd's Crook.

Through the courtesy of Mr. James Pott, Treasurer of the New York Bible and Prayer Book Society, I was enabled to distribute in Parishes and Missions 385 Prayer books, 47 Bibles, 348 Hymnals, and 48 Hymnals with music. I selected organs and helped pay for them for Arvada, Fort Morgan, Julesberg, Louisville, Loveland and Walsenberg.

On condition that we build new churches thereon, Dr. Hungerford will donate four lots at Julesberg, Mr. C. B. Sampson will donate three lots at Antonito, Mr. Scott will donate two lots at Sterling and Mr. T. F. Codding's offer, although made last year, still stands good for three lots, opposite the park at Rocky Ford. The lots at Arvada have been paid for by the Mission, and have increased in value 33 per cent. since we bought them last year. Our lots in Loveland have enhanced in about the same ratio. I have recommended S. Luke's Hospital in several cases, and sent out after inquiry prospectuses of Wolfe Hall, and, having no boy's school of our own church, I have warmly commended S. John's Military School of Salina, in Bishop Griswold's Diocese. I traveled in the prosecution of my duties in Colorado 29,610 miles.

Respectfully submitted,

June 2, 1904.

MAURICE J. BYWATER.

Clergymen's Reports.

Los Angeles, Cala.,
May 28, 1904.

To the Right Rev. C. S. Olmsted, D.D., Bishop of Colorado.

My Dear Bishop:

Owing to continued ill health I have not been able for any active work during the past year, and can only report having officiated at one marriage in that time.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

S. H. S. GALLAUDET.

Personal Report of the Rev. Z. T. Savage to the Right Rev. Charles S. Olmsted, D.D., Bishop of Colorado.

When the Council of 1903 closed I was in temporary charge of S. James' Mission, Bessemer. Early in July the Priest in charge returned and resumed his work. Commencing with July 28th, I served Georgetown and Empire for three months. At the former place I solemnized one marriage. At the Bishop's request I went to Alamosa temporarily and worked three months.

By invitation of the vestry of Holy Trinity, Pueblo, I served the parish until April 17th, when the Rector took charge; I baptized one adult during Lent.

Respectfully submitted,

Z. T. SAVAGE,
Priest.

There is pressing need of a Parish house for the purpose of providing rooms in which to hold Guild meetings and Sunday School classes, the present Church building being too small for such purposes. The sum of $2,034.48 in money, and pledges of $900 worth of building material having been accumulated as a building fund, the Parish decided in open meeting to build a Parish house, the cost of which was afterwards limited in a vestry meeting to come within $3,700. Plans have now been prepared for such a building, and contractors' estimates have been asked for.

Remarks: The strike muddle of 1903, took away nearly half the population, and the congregation dwindled to less than one half. There came a slight revival in Autumn, and money in the bank appearing sufficient, a new organ was ordered at $280, and the Rector undertook enlargements necessary on the church and a new vestry. Just as this was completed and the organ had arrived the bank closed its doors and put us in an awkward predicament, from which we have not yet recovered. The Rector had to forego stipend to the amount of $150, and was himself a loser in the bank of several hundred dollars, and had to defray from his own slender resources the cost of alterations."

Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions.

"How can we extend our Missionary work and increase the interest in it," is the thought uppermost in the minds of all true hearted missionaries, and their daily prayer is: "O Lord may the time come when all the world shall know Thee." It is not only to make those already interested in missionary work do more, but also to get more people interested.

One of the most thoughtless remarks that we hear is, "Oh, I do not care for Missions and Foreign Missions in particular." What should we have done had there been no missionaries. The spirit of selfishness will grow in our hearts unless we think of our neighbors and do some mission work. A parish is like a family, each should have interests outside of its own boundaries.

The apportionment plan has done much to increase the amount of money raised for missions, and the number of people and parishes interested. It seems to be a great success. With a little more determined and concerted effort a still larger gain may be expected in another year.

In Denver we have had eleven united meetings this year with an average attendance of forty-six, and for each meeting thoughtful and interesting papers have been prepared and read by some lady of the parish in which the meeting was held, notably on Church Missionary Society, Associate Missions, Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, and other subjects, or else the Bishop or some minister has given an interesting address on the same or other subjects.

Every parish has worked for S. Luke's Hospital, and a number of rooms in the new wing have been furnished by individuals or Guilds.

The County Hospital has been visited regularly, and contributions of money, fruit, flowers, cake, etc. have been given.

A tenth of each offering at each united missionary meeting has been given for general missions. The Junior Auxiliary and Altar department make an excellent showing. We hope the Church Periodical Club and Babies' branch will do a wide spread work next year.

The united offering has been made from most of the churches, and I am glad to say comes up well.

Mrs. Spalding and Mrs. Olmsted (with a dozen other ladies) made a pleasant visit to Golden in December to assist in a missionary meeting there, and Miss Kerr went in January and read a paper.

A monthly missionary meeting has been held at Cripple Creek during the year, also a monthly missionary tea given by the Cathedral parish, and a monthly missionary meeting at S. Mark's the last Monday of each month, and the Auxiliary business meeting the first Tuesday of each month. Colorado Springs, Grace Church and Holy Trinity, Pueblo, have a branch of the Auxiliary, as has also Idaho Springs. Calvary, recently formed; and nearly every parish in the Diocese has a Missionary committee.

Let us hope and pray that the religious census taken in Denver may result in a large increase in attendance and interest in all the churches, as there were several hundred Episcopalians found who rarely attend church.

Let Colorado follow the example of New Hampshire, and make arrangements to make house to house visitation through the Diocese, and thus enlarge and increase the interest in missions.

"May the Holy Spirit direct and rule our hearts."

The Twentieth Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary held its opening service in the Chapel of Wolfe Hall, Tuesday, May 31, 1904, at 10:30 a. m.

The sermon was preached by Rev. J. A. Howell of Calvary Church, Golden, from S. Luke, 10:42, was most instructive and encouraging. The Holy Communion was administered by the Bishop, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Howell.

At 11:30 a. m., the members of the Woman's Auxiliary assembled in the school room to listen to reports from the parishes outside of Denver,—Canon City, Grace Church, Colorado Springs, Cripple Creek, Longmont, S. Stephen's, Colorado Springs and West Plum Creek—all told of earnest work done, and each one had paid the pledge.

After a most excellent luncheon served in the dining room, the business meeting was called to order at 2 p. m.

The Bishop addressed the meeting with much earnestness.

Reports of Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, Treasurer, Junior Auxiliary, and Babies' Branch were read and accepted.

At this point it was moved by Mrs. Smith, and seconded by Mrs. Johnson, that $13.50 from the Babies' Branch, used for Diocesan Missions, be applied to make up the deficit on the thousand dollars pledged last year to the Bishop, all that was lacking except this amount having been raised by the Bishop's lecture for the Woman's Auxiliary, April 28, 1904—Carried.

Report was made of the United Offering. A good suggestion was made by the President that a birthday offering might be made each year for the United Offering.

Reports were read of the Altar Department, Church Periodical Club, Girls' Friendly Society and County Hospital, representing city missions, and a report was read of missionary work done by the pupils at Wolfe Hall.

A letter was read from Miss Emery, General Secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Regrets expressed by the President and Vice-President at the retirement of the Treasurer, Mrs. Smith, Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. McCrillis, and Secretary of Junior Auxiliary, Miss Brent, who had served long and faithfully.

OFFERTORY—At United Missionary service at S. Mark's Feb. 7th, given to Diocese Missions.....	6 82

There are now twelve branches of the Junior Auxiliary, and during the year past most of these have contributed towards the child's bed in S. Luke's Hospital, to be known as the "Junior Auxiliary Bed."

Two Guilds report having given towards the United Offering; one to Diocesan and Foreign Missions; one Sunday School to Domestic Missions, and all have devoted much time, energy and money for Parish purposes, which of course is a most necessary and beautiful work, one which cannot be reported here.

On Sunday, February 7th, a united missionary service was held at S. Mark's Church at 3:45 p. m., for members of the Junior Auxiliary and those interested in Sunday Schools. A large number were present. Missionary hymns were sung and stirring talks on Missions were also given by Rev. J. H. Houghton, Rev. E. L. Eustis, and Rev. Percival Wood. The last address on "Light and Light Givers," was illustrated by a very beautiful and unique chart made by Mr. Wood himself. The whole service was most inspiring, and should have been a great incentive towards more earnest work for missions. The offertory, amounting to $6.82, was given to the Bishop for Diocesan Missions.

The Secretary has written in the year just ended, and has sent out eight-five letters, seventeen postals, forty-four leaflets, and twenty-six copies of the Junior Auxiliary Prayer.

Report of the County Hospital Visiting Committee.

The County Hospital Visiting Committee is composed of the following officers:

President—Mrs. Susan Wheeler.

Vice-President—Mrs. Henry Read.

Treasurer—Mrs. Vervalin.

Secretary—Mrs. W. O. Temple

with the following active members: Rev. E. L. Eustis; Sister Hannah, Miss Martin; "The Girls' Friendly Club" of S. Mark's Church, Miss Brent, Mrs. Eugene Knight, Mrs. D. H. Ednie, Miss Higginson, Mrs. Helen Chamberlain, Mrs. R. R. Williams, Mrs. Charles Brooks, Mrs. William Prime, and several associate members.

The Rector of Emmanuel Church (who is also Chaplain for the committee) visits the hospital and holds services regularly, the second Friday morning in the month, the services being appreciated by the patients who attend. During the past year several patients have been baptized at the hospital. The Rector is assisted in his work by the following ladies from the five different churches, who take part in the hospital work:

- (1) Mrs. Prime, Mrs. Chamberlain, Mrs. Ednie, from Emmanuel.
- (2) Sister Hannah, Mrs. Vervalin, Mrs. Knight, from S. Mark's.
- (3) Miss Martin, Mrs. Staples, from S. John's.
- (4) Mrs. Williams, from S. Stephen's.
- (5) Miss Brent, Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Temple, from S. Barnabas'.

These five churches also contribute money towards paying the Chaplain.

The committee visit the hospital regularly, taking a month at a time, and hand in a report each month of the work done and of special patients to be looked after. Fruit, flowers, jellies, reading matter and clothing, have been distributed by the several committees each week during the past year, the patients showing much pleasure and appreciation in receiving the same.

On Easter afternoon quite a treat was provided for the patients, consisting of oranges, apples, bananas, jellies, cake and flowers, and was distributed by the committees from the churches, enough being provided to supply all the patients (about 300) including those in the insane wards. This was donated by the committee associate members and friends. Rev. D. I. Hobbs was much interested in the hospital work while chaplain during the past year, as was also Rev. C. I. Mills, both of whom accomplished a great deal.

Mr. Hobbs was also instrumental in getting a donation of about fifty Bibles for the hospital, some of which have been distributed among the patients by request of the same.

It would be impossible in the time allotted for this report to give an adequate idea of the work undertaken and accomplished by the committee during the year, as it reaches out to the families of the needy patients, sends to their homes many who are unable to provide transportation themselves; in fact, extends to the numberless kindness and attention necessary to the comfort of the stranger, homeless, friendless, and sick.

Respectfully submitted,

B. G. TEMPLE,

Secretary.

This Council recognizes the fact that the Cathedral church of the Diocese should be the center of Church life, work, and zeal in the Diocese. It looks to the Cathedral as a pattern for all other churches, in missionary enterprise, in works of charity, in Christian education, in frequency of services and in the illustration of the principles upon which they should be rendered, and in keeping an open church free to all worshipers.

SEC. 2. Every conveyance of land to the Chapter, whether in fee or by way of mortgage, made for a particular purpose, shall be therein expressed to be in trust for such purpose; and the proceeds thereof shall not be diverted therefrom, either permanently or temporarily; which fact shall be ascertained and declared by the Chapter at a regular meeting, and shall be entered in the Journal.

Conveyance of land by the Chapter shall be by deed, sealed with its corporate seal, and signed with its name by the Bishop and the Chancellor, and attested by the Chapter Clerk. No deed shall be made until authorized by the vote of the Chapter, and the fact of the making thereof shall be reported to the Chapter by the head thereof, at the first meeting thereafter, and a minute of the fact be entered on the Journal. The Chapter shall not mortgage any real property held in trust for any specified purpose; provided, that this shall not prohibit the effecting of a loan from a Church Building Society for the completion of a Church or Rectory.

SEC. 13. No debt exceeding one hundred dollars shall be contracted, nor any obligation for the payment of a sum exceeding that amount assumed, unless the means for the prompt and full discharge thereof at maturity shall be first provided.

Of the Court of Appeals.

SECTION 1. There is hereby established for this Diocese a Court of Appeals, to consist of three Presbyters canonically resident and three lay communicants of the Diocese.

SEC. 2. This Court shall be elected and constituted in the same manner as the Ecclesiastical Court, and shall have the same organization and privileges; and vacancies occurring in it shall be filled in the same way.

CANON XXV.

Of the Presentation and Trial of a Clergyman, not a Bishop.

SECTION 1. An accusation may be made against a Clergyman for a violation of any Canon of the General Convention or of the Diocese, or for any offence specified in such Canon, by any three communicants of this Church, in writing over their respective signatures. If the Bishop shall think the charge demands investigation, he shall appoint two Presbyters, not members of either of said Courts, to investigate said accusation and report to him in writing the results, in detail, of such investigation.

Should this report be such as in the judgment of the Bishop to render a trial advisable, he shall place before the Standing Committee a certified copy thereof. The Standing Committee shall thereupon carefully examine said report and, if satisfied of the desirability of a trial, shall present the accused to the Bishop for trial, stating distinctly in the presentment the charges and specifications with which he is thus presented, with reasonable certainty as to time, place, and circumstances; which presentment must be signed by not less than two-thirds of the Committee.

The Bishop shall thereupon order the Ecclesiastical Court to convene at a time and place to be specified, for the trial of the accused; to whom written notice thereof shall be given not less than thirty days before the time appointed, which notice shall be accompanied with a certified copy of the presentment and with a list of the names of the witnesses for the prosecution, so far as then known.

SEC. 2. At the time of issuing the above order, and as a part thereof, the Bishop shall appoint some learned and judicious Presbyter Church Advocate, whose duty it shall be to conduct the trial on the part of the Diocese; and the accused Clergyman may also employ as counsel any communicant of the Church.

SEC. 3. At any time before the day so named for trial the accused may peremptorily challenge all the lay, and, for cause, any of the clerical judges, giving notice thereof to the Bishop, and in the latter case stating his reasons in full. A challenge for cause shall be decided by the Court itself. Should the Court be left without a sufficient number of Judges, the Cathedral Chapter shall appoint others to assist in the trial, and these shall be subject to all the conditions applying to the members of the Court. No Judge shall take part in the trial of any person to whom he is of kin, and every Judge, before proceeding to trial, shall state explicitly, that he is not incapacitated by any cause known to himself for a just and fair consideration of the case. Any three of the Judges shall be sufficient for the trial; provided, that if no more take part in the trial a unanimous decision shall be necessary. When more than three Judges try a case a majority shall be competent to render judgment and award penalty.

SEC. 4. The Court, after it is recognized, upon its motion may, and upon the application of the accused or of the Church Advocate shall appoint, from the profession of the law, an Assessor, who may be present at all the sessions and deliberations of the Court. It shall be his duty to give the Court an opinion upon any legal question which may arise in the course of the trial, upon which the Court, or any member thereof, or the accused, or the Church Advocate, may request it; but he shall have no vote in the decision of any question.

SEC. 5. The law of evidence in the state of Colorado at the time of such trial shall be the law of evidence of this Diocese and of its Courts.

SEC. 6. If within ten days before the time appointed for the meeting of the Court the accused shall make to the Bishop, in writing over his own signature, a confession of the crime or offence with which he is charged, the Bishop shall recall the order for the meeting of the Court and, with the concurrence of two-thirds of the Clerical members of the Standing Committee, shall proceed to impose such punishment as he shall deem just and proper.

SEC. 7. In case the accused shall fail to appear before the Court at the time and place appointed, and give no reason for the same satisfactory to the Court, it may proceed at once to the trial, or at its discretion adjourn to a day certain for such proceeding.

SEC. 8. The trial of any case before said Court having been concluded, the Court shall proceed to pass upon the guilt or innocence of the accused, and, if he be found guilty, award the punishment to be imposed.

A true copy of the record of proceedings and findings of said Court, embodying a statement of the evidence submitted in the case, shall be promptly forwarded to the Bishop by the Court, and he shall give the accused due notice thereof. In case no appeal be taken, as hereinafter provided, the Bishop shall proceed to carry the sentence into execution.

SEC. 9. The accused, within sixty days after notice to him of the decision of the Court, may, by giving notice in writing to the Bishop and to the Church Advocate of his election so to do, appeal the case to the Court of Appeals.

Upon receiving such notice the Bishop shall file with the Secretary of the Court of Appeals a copy of the record of proceedings aforesaid, so certified to him, and shall issue his order convening said Court of Appeals at a time and place by him named therefor, and give the accused and the Church Advocate notice thereof not less than thirty days before the day thus named.

SEC. 10. The defendant may peremptorily challenge all the lay Judges, and in that event the clerical Judges shall constitute the Court for hearing of the appeal; provided, that the conditions required, in Sec. 3 of this Canon, of Judges of the Ecclesiastical Court, shall be of force in the Court of Appeals. The same rule as to supplying a deficiency in the number of Judges and as to the number of Judges concurring in a decision shall also apply in this Court.

SEC. 11. At the time and place appointed the Court of Appeals shall assemble and proceed to an examination and review of the case thus presented. The Court shall have power to affirm the proceedings and award of the Court below; to set aside or modify the proceedings and award in whole or in part; if in part, to determine the punishment to be inflicted; and if set aside and reversed in its entirety, then to dismiss the whole proceedings and discharge the accused, or remand the case to the Court below for a new trial.

SEC. 12. When the Court of Appeals shall remand a case to the Court below for a new trial this Court will resume jurisdiction of the case, and proceed to a re-trial thereof at a time and place to be named therefor by the Bishop; not less than thirty days' notice thereof to be given to the accused and the Church Advocate.

SEC. 13. The expenses accruing in the trial of a clergyman, except his own when convicted, shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Diocese, upon the order of the Bishop.

CANON XXVI.

Of the Amendment and Enactment of Canons.

Additions to the Canons or alterations to them may be made at any annual Council, by a majority of both orders voting separately; provided that the same have been proposed one day previous to action and reported on by the Committee on Legislation or by a special Committee. But in any case the Council may make such changes and additions without one day's notice or the report of a Committee, provided, that a majority of two-thirds of each order favor the same.

CANON XXVII.

Of the Time these Canons take Effect.

These Canons shall take effect from and after their passage on this 17th day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

Statutes and Rules Governing the Chapter

The Bishop.

Recognizing the Episcopate as the primary authority in the Church, we hereby declare that the Bishop of the Diocese is the head of the Cathedral and of the Chapter. As such he shall have his chair within the rails of the chancel, on the right of the altar, and when present, shall have charge of, and direct all the services of Divine worship, and name the clergy by whom respectively the several parts thereof shall be performed, and he may, by general directions, order the ritual of the Cathedral. He shall, when present, preside at all the meetings of the Chapter, and his assent shall be necessary to the final validity of all its acts.

If present at the passage of an act, he shall at the time express his assent or dissent, or a desire for time to consider the same, and such his declaration shall be immediately entered on the Journal. Should he not, at the meeting at which an act is passed, express his assent or dissent, or desire for time to consider, a minute of the fact shall be entered on the Journal, and his assent shall be presumed. If he desire time to consider, he shall, within thirty days thereafter, communicate in writing his assent or dissent to the Dean and Clerk, and the same shall be entered at length on the Journal. If he do not so communicate with said officers, a minute of the fact shall be entered in the Journal, and his assent shall be presumed. Until his assent be given as aforesaid, or until the expiration of said thirty days, the act shall be suspended.

When the Bishop is not present at the passage of an act, if it in no wise affect the Episcopal prerogative, and if, in the opinion of the Chapter, it be matter of urgency to be declared on the Journal, the same may go into effect until the action of the Bishop can be had. It shall be immediately communicated to him, and within thirty days from receiving a certified copy of the record of the proceedings in that behalf of the Chapter, he shall notify the Dean and Clerk in writing that he assents or dissents from, or suspends the operation of the act, and such his notice shall, immediately on its receipt, be entered on the Journal. If he do not so communicate his will in respect of the act within said time, the fact shall be noted on the Journal and his assent shall be presumed. If he suspend the operation of the act, he shall state in the notice thereof the period of such suspension, and before the expiration thereof shall assent or dissent therefrom as in other cases, or his assent shall be presumed, due entry of the facts being made on the Journal.

The Dean.

In case of the vacancy of the Episcopate or permanent disability of the Bishop, the Dean shall be the head of the Chapter, and in either of the cases above mentioned, or of absence of the Bishop, the Dean, if present, shall preside at all meetings. His stall shall be within the rails of the chancel, on the left of the altar; he shall take rank next after the Bishop, and bear the title of the Very Reverend the Dean of the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist, Denver, Colorado. When acting as the presiding officer of the Chapter, he shall, subject to the general directions of the Bishop in that behalf, have charge of all the services of the Cathedral, and name the clergy by whom, respectively, the several parts thereof shall be performed.

The Canons.

The duties of the Canons, so far as the same are not directly connected with the Parish of the Cathedral, and of the Honorary Canons, shall be prescribed from time to time by the Chapter. The duties of Canons, serving the Parish as such, are left to the Bishop, Dean and Vestry. In case of the Vacancies of both the Episcopate and the Deanship, or the permanent disability of the Bishop and Dean, the Senior Canon shall serve as acting Dean, and shall preside at all meetings when neither the Dean nor the Bishop is present. The Canons shall have their stalls in the chancel, and take rank after the Dean, according to the seniority of service in the Cathedral. Each Honorary Canon shall have his stall in the chancel of the Cathedral, and they shall take rank according to seniority of appointment.

The Treasurer.

Payments from the Treasury shall be made only upon general or special appropriations, for the object to which they shall be applied. They shall be made upon the written order of the Clerk upon the Treasurer, and such order shall be countersigned by the Bishop and shall be the Treasurer's voucher therefor.

The Treasurer shall give bonds faithfully to account for all moneys coming to his hands, with sureties, and in such penal sum as the Chapter may from time to time require. He shall, at the meeting next before the annual Council, present a full report of all transactions of the Treasury.

The Treasurer shall, with the assistance of the Chapter Clerk, keep exact and separate accounts of every fund which is set apart for a particular purpose, and at stated meetings of the Chapter he shall present all of his accounts with the orders for payments, which accounts shall be read at length and be subject to examination and discussion by the Chapter. They shall then be referred to the Finance Committee, together with the orders and vouchers, and at the first succeeding regular meeting the said committee shall report in writing, in respect thereto, which report shall be recorded at length in the Journal. The Treasurer shall have the custody and care of all securities, funds and money of the Chapter, and shall keep the same in the bank to be designated by the Chapter, and the account of the Treasurer with the bank of the Chapter shall at all times be subject to the inspection of the members of the said committee. The Treasurer of the Episcopate Fund shall pay the Bishop's salary monthly, his cheque to the Bishop being his voucher for the same.

At the meeting of the Chapter next before the sitting of the annual Council, the Treasurer shall produce to the said Finance Committee all the securities of the Chapter, which shall be carefully examined by the members thereof; and it shall be the duty of the committee to report in writing to the Chapter the condition of each of the securities, the nature, amount, date and maturity thereof, what has during the previous year been collected thereon, and how the sums so collected have been applied; which report shall be recorded at length in the Journal. An abstract of all the transactions of the Treasury shall be included in the annual report of the Chapter to the Council.

Chancellor.

The Chancellor, as the general adviser of the Chapter, shall, whenever requested as hereinafter provided, give to the Chapter his opinion upon all questions of Canon and civil law. Such request shall be communicated to him in writing over the hand of the head of the Chapter at the time, or of its presiding officer, setting forth the circumstances of the matter in respect of which the opinion is desired, and the precise question to be answered; and the opinion shall be given in writing, and on receipt be read at length to the Chapter at its first meeting after its receipt. The Chancellor shall provide a book to be called "The Chancellor's Opinions," in which he shall record at length all requests for his opinions and his answers thereto.

Chapter Clerk.

The office of Chapter Clerk is hereby established. He shall be elected by the Chapter annually at the first meeting after the Diocesan Council, and may be a member of the Chapter. He shall be the recording officer of the Chapter, and shall discharge such duties as, by the statutes or by the Chapter, may be from time to time imposed upon him. He shall, under the directions of the head or presiding officer of the Chapter, make the drafts of all requests for the Chancellor's opinions.

Meetings.

The regular meetings of the Chapter shall be held on the first Wednesday of every month, and the Chapter shall also hold quarterly meetings for Diocesan business, or as the Board of Missions, to-wit: on the Festivals of St. Luke, St. Paul, St. Mark, and St. James. But if the head of the Chapter shall believe attendance at a quarterly meeting on the day of any of said Festivals shall be inconvenient by reason of it being on or near Sunday, he may direct that it be held on some other day as near thereto as possible. Notice of such change shall be given in the summons to the Chapter.

Special meetings may be summoned by the Bishop, or, in case of his disability to act or absence from the Diocese, by the Dean or Acting Dean, upon a written request of three other members.

Each member shall be summoned to each meeting, as well quarterly or monthly as special, by a written or printed notice, addressed to him by the Clerk, stating distinctly the time and place of the meeting, and in case of special meeting, the business to be done thereat. Such notice shall be served upon each member personally, or mailed to him with postage prepaid, at least five days before the meeting; provided, that two days' notice shall be sufficient for meetings for business pertaining to the See city.

The Honorary Canons shall preach at the quarterly meetings, in the order of their seniority, as fixed by the Council.

The expenses of all members who are not resident in the Cathedral city, while coming up to, and going from, the attendance upon the meetings, may be defrayed from the funds of the Chapter. Five members, of whom the Bishop shall be one, or five members, who shall include the Dean and a Canon, or any seven members, shall constitute a quorum to do business.

Reports.

The head of the Chapter shall cause to be prepared a full report of all acts and proceedings of the Chapter, to be presented to a regular or special meeting, to be held shortly before the meeting of the annual Council; which, after being adopted by the Chapter, shall be laid before the Council.

Standing Committees.

The Standing Committees of the Chapter shall be as follows:

1. Missions:—Composed of the Bishop, Dean of the Cathedral, and Canons, and four Lay members of the Chapter, to be appointed by the Bishop.

2. Finance:—Composed of the Bishop, Chancellor, Treasurer of the Diocese, Treasurer of the Chapter, and one clerical member of the Chapter, to be appointed by the Bishop.

3. Diocesan Schools:—Composed of the Bishop and three clerical and three Lay members of the Chapter, to be appointed by the Bishop. These may be divided into two committees.

4. Charitable Institutions and Work:—Composed of the Bishop and three Clerical and three Lay members of the Chapter, to be appointed by the Bishop.

The Bishop shall be the chairman of each committee, which shall also appoint a secretary, who shall keep full minutes of all its meetings, doings and transactions, and report the same in writing to the Chapter at each regular meeting. A majority of the members of each committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; but the Secretary shall summon all the members thereof to a meeting. It shall be the duty of each committee carefully to prepare for the consideration of the Chapter, at each meeting thereof, all business which is within its jurisdiction. And at each meeting the presiding officer shall call upon the Secretaries for their reports in the order in which the committees are mentioned above.

The Committee on Privilege reported through the Rev. C. H. Marshall as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PRIVILEGE.

Your Committee on Privilege beg to report: That the credentials from Parishes and Missions as submitted to the Council and on file are correct.

CHARLES HUGHES MARSHALL,
BENJAMIN BREWSTER,
WILBUR F. STONE.

The Registrar then read his report:

The Registrar begs leave to report that the Journals and Pamphlets of the Dioceses and Missionary Districts and the Journals of the General Convention have been received and filed in the library of S. Matthew's Hall, and that most of the meetings of the Cathedral Chapter have been attended. Such papers also as have been entrusted to his care by the Bishop have been arranged and cared for.

Respectfully submitted,

E. L. EUSTIS.

The Committee on Legislation reported as follows:

The Committee on Legislation respectfully report: That with regard to the communication to this Council from the Secretary of the General Convention which was referred to it, namely, that Sec. 6, Art. I, of the Constitution be amended by adding the words: "and one Clerical and one Lay Deputy chosen by the Convocation of the American Churches in Europe."

Your Committee offer the following resolution: That the deputies to the next General Convention are instructed to vote for this amendment on its final consideration.

Your Committee further recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved: That Section 6 of Canon XV be amended by adding after the words "May first" the words "do thereby forfeit, and", so that the sentence shall read: "Parishes failing to pay that assessment before May first do thereby forfeit, and shall be deprived of representation in the Council unless excused by the Board of Equalization."

Respectfully submitted,

E. L. EUSTIS.

The Rev. E. L. Eustis moved the adoption of the 1st Resolution included. This was carried.

The Rev. E. L. Eustis moved the adoption of the second Resolution. This failed of concurrence, 14 Clergy voting Aye and 4 No; the Parishes tying on 3 votes each.

On motion the Board of Equalization was requested to withdraw and report on the delinquencies to the Episcopate Fund.

The Rev. H. R. O'Malley reported for the

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Your committee beg leave to report that the interest in the work of the Domestic and Foreign Missions of our church throughout the Diocese is not so great as we believe it should be. Missions are the true work of the Church; the first and foremost claim upon her energies. We believe that the parish that does its duty to outside claims will receive a tenfold blessing for itself. Of the sixty-four parishes and missions in the Diocese, only twelve have sent anything to the D. and F. M. S. during the seven months of the fiscal year, viz., up to April 1st. Two Parishes—S. Stephen's Colorado Springs, and S. Stephen's, Denver—having paid their full apportionment. It is the intention, however, of the Diocesan Board of Missions, that one offering a year from each of the Missions, ministered to by the Archdeacons, be sent to New York, and the work of the D. and F. M. S. be brought before those Missions. Of the $3,600, apportioned our Diocese only $323.42 had been acknowledged by Mr. Thomas up to April 1st. A column of Missionary Notes has been edited in the Shepherd's Crook by the chairman of your committee. Your committee would recommend the following:

"The insertion in the Annual Council Journal of a statement of the contributions to the D. and F. M. S., from all the Parishes and Missions, indicating separately the amounts paid by the Sunday Schools, the Woman's Auxiliary, and the direct contributions toward the apportionment."

Respectfully submitted,

H. R. O'MALLEY, Chairman.
BENJAMIN BREWSTER,
W. C. STURGIS.

The report was adopted.

The Rev. Mr. O'Malley reported for the committee appointed to consider that portion of the Bishop's address relating to the Missionary Conference to be held in Denver, in October, as follows:

Report of the Committee appointed to consider that part of the Bishop's address regarding the meeting of the 6th Missionary District in Denver in October.

Your Committee met and beg leave to report as follows:

We desire to express our gratitude to Bishop Olmsted for arranging that the next Conference of the Missionary District be held in our Diocese. The benefits that have come to the Dioceses and cities where former Conferences have been held it would be hard to over estimate. The meeting together of the several Bishops, and the many Delegates, clerical and lay, from the Dioceses comprising the District has produced a sympathy of spirit, a social acquaintanceship, a renewed consecration and a deepened enthusiasm for the work for which the Church exists. The influence of the Conference upon the missionary spirit of Omaha and the Diocese of Nebraska was and is something for which to be profoundly thankful, as indicated by the formation of the Layman's Forward Missionary Movement. The program of the Conference was very broad, concerning itself with the deepest needs of humanity, sociological as well as moral and spiritual matters. We look forward to similar benefits and blessings from our coming together in October. What an effect the coming Conference must have upon our missionary spirit. How it will stir us up to the claim of our own Diocesan Missions and their adequate support as we interchange ideas with others as to ways and means which they have found to work well. We promise the hospitality not only of Denver, but of the whole Diocese, to those who will honor us with their presence amongst us, being confident we will receive from them spiritual benefit which will abide with us through life.

Respectfully submitted,

H. R. O'MALLEY,
M. J. BYWATER,
A. N. TAFT,
OTIS JOHNSON,
J. F. HUMPHREY,
A. A. BOWHAY.

The Rev. E. W. Sibbald reported for the committee on the State of the Church.

On motion this report was adopted.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Your Committee are unable to report as fully as they should, in that they have not had the Parish Reports before them for a sufficient time to make a comparative and statistical report.

We must note that there is a falling off in the contributions of the Diocese to the Mission Fund and toward some other funds, and we hope that immediate steps shall be taken to enforce the requirement of payment of our assessments and appropriations.

There were some remarks concerning the discontinuance of the assessment for the Episcopate Fund, and a misapprehension may have arisen on this account. We trust that all will realize the need that this assessment is in force and should be promptly met.

We rejoice to report the substantial progress of the institutions of the Church: The Home, S. Luke's Hospital and Wolfe Hall. It is gratifying to find that a number of beautiful and costly new edifices have been recently erected; and this, in individual instances, may account for the loss to some of our funds.

We earnestly trust that our Churchmen as well as our Clergy will seriously endeavor to counteract the growing indifference that has arisen in reference to the Sacrament of Holy Baptism. Let all lay to heart our solemn responsibility in this matter, as appealed to by the Right Reverend, the Bishop.

May we all (clergy and people) pray for more and more of that power which is promised as the gift of God the Holy Ghost to His Church.

Respectfully submitted,

E. W. SIBBALD,
JAS. MACLAUGHLIN.
W. C. STURGIS,
C. D. COBB,

N. G. BURNHAM.

Achdeacon Bywater then read his report. (Appendix I.)

Mr. W. C. Sturgis offered the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved: That this Council desires to express emphatically its warm appreciation of the arduous and unremitting labor of Archdeacons Bywater and Schofield of this Diocese and to this end directs that this resolution be recorded in the Journal.

W. C. STURGIS.

The Board of Equalization then brought in its Supplementary report:

That the Board of Equalization begs leave to report that it has considered the delinquencies in the payment of the Bishop's salary and Council expenses in connection with the several Canons relating to the subject, in accordance of the resolutions offered by Mr. Eustis. The Board does not recommend that these delinquencies be excused but that the penalty for non-payment of such assessments be not exacted, by this Council.

The Board further recommends that the Secretary send out with the bills submitted to the Treasurers of the several Parishes a copy of Sections 6, 8 and 9 of Canon 15.

JOHN WALLIS OHL,
WILBUR F. STONE,
C. D. COBB.

This report was adopted.

The Rev. J. W. Ohl read the following:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DECEASED MEMBERS.

Your committee beg leave to report that within the year just passed the Senior Presbyter of the Diocese, Francis Byrne, is the only priest called to the rest of Paradise, and considering his long residence in, and his valuable services rendered in missionary work, we suggest a page of this Journal be set apart in his memory.

We have also to report the translation to Paradise of one of the most valued laymen in the Diocese, Mr. S. D. Hunter, at the time of his death Senior Warden of S. Barnabas Church, Denver. Mr. Hunter was for a long term of years the personal friend and advisor of both Bishops Randall and Spalding, and was a most enthusiastic worker in parochial affairs at Greeley; and also was greatly instrumental in the Cathedral Chapter of which he was a member, and the general upbuilding of the institutions of the Diocese. May light perpetual shine upon them.

JOHN WALLIS OHL,
CHARLES HUGHES MARSHALL.

Twelve o'clock having arrived the Rev. Mr. Brewster, at the request of the Bishop, read the prayers for Missions:

The Council then proceeded to the elections as the order of the day.

The Rev. J. W. Ohl nominated by name the former members of the Standing Committee for re-election. On motion the nominations were closed. The rules were suspended and the Secretary instructed to cast the ballot for

On motion the nominations were closed, and the Secretary instructed to cast the ballot for these gentlemen.

The Council then elected as members at large of the Board of Missions, Dr. Wm. C. Sturgis, and the Rev. Benjamin Brewster.

The Finance Committee reported as follows:

THE FINANCE COMMITTEE

begs leave to report as follows:

That it is cause for congratulation that the finances of the Diocese are in the hands of such competent business men, a fact which their reports clearly indicate.

It is to be regretted that offerings for Diocesan Missions from Parishes and Missions have fallen off during the year. For never was there greater need for funds to enable the Bishop not only to sustain the work already existing, but to open up new fields. It may be said, however, that the offerings for Missions last year were larger than ever before, and that, therefore, the small falling off noted above, does not indicate any lack of interest in the Missionary work of the Diocese. At the same time your committee would urge upon the clergy the importance of doing what they can to interest their people in this behalf.

The financial condition of Wolfe Hall shows marked improvement during the year, and the Church people of the Diocese should support this most excellent institution. The liberal gift recently made to the school by one of our laymen, sets an example which it would be well if others would follow.

The report of the Home is also gratifying, especially that part of it which refers to the building of a home for nurses.

The report of the finances of S. Luke's Hospital is particularly gratifying and encouraging to all friends of church institutions in the Diocese,

It is a matter of regret that the receipts of the Treasurer of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund are so small. While we should do all in our power to extend the Church's work, we should not forget to provide for those who have grown old in the church's service. We recommend to the Clergy to give timely notice of the Canonical offering for this purpose, in order that these offerings may be greatly increased.

JOHN W. HEAL,
J. MONTGOMERY MCBRIDE,
FRANK A. ELLIS,
WM. P. BENEDICT.

The committee on the Revision of the Canons reported by Mr. A. D. Parker, the chairman.

The Committee appointed by resolution at the last Council to report the Constitution and Canons as they now stand, beg leave to state that the Constitution and Canons have been printed, and ask that the Committee be continued to report to the next Council any revision that may be deemed necessary.

A. D. PARKER, Chairman.

E. L. EUSTIS,

W. O. CONE.

W. H. WHITEHEAD.

This report was adopted.

The Bishop re-appointed the Rev. E. W. Sibbald, as Dean of the Northern Convocation, and the Rev. J. W. Ohl, as Dean of the Southern Convocation, their terms to expire in 1907.

On motion of Archdeacon Bywater it was Resolved: That this Diocese views with great satisfaction the kind and generous manner in which the American Church Building Fund Commission has helped the building of Churches by grants, donations and loans to Parishes and Missions in Colorado. The Diocese expresses a hope that Parishes and Missions will show an appreciation by taking up offerings for the Commission.

This resolution was adopted.

The Rev. Canon Marshall reported Judge Gunter as the nominee from the Northern Deanery to the Cathedral Chapter.

Mr. Otis Johnson was reported as the nominee of the Southern Deanery to the Chapter. On motion the Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot for these gentlemen.

The Rev. Dr. Kramer nominated for the Ecclesiastical Court (1908) the Rev. W. W. Ayres and Mr. Arthur Ponsford.

For the Court of Appeals the Rev. E. W. Sibbald and Mr. Thos. Ward were nominated to fill the vacancies caused by the expiration of their terms.

For the Committee on Education Mr. Chas. Ruter was nominated in place of Dr. G. E. Browne who had removed from the Diocese.

The Rev. Dr. Kramer nominated Mr. Wm. M. Spalding as Treasurer of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund. On motion the rules were suspended and the Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot for these gentlemen, and they were duly elected.

The Rev. J. W. Ohl begged leave to file with the Secretary the report of the Committees on the celebration of the Dean's and Canon Marshall's anniversaries. This was granted. (Appendices M-N)

On motion the Council took a recess until 2 o'clock.

The report of the Committee appointed to consider the Condition of the Mission Fund was then read:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CONDITION OF THE MISSION FUND.

Your Committee begs leave to report that they regret to find a considerable decrease in the contributions of the Diocese toward the Mission Fund for this year. We have tried to discover the cause, and cannot assign any adequate reason for such; except it be the loss of interest in the work of Missions.

There is a great degree of material prosperity in the Diocese, and we naturally look for a corresponding increase in the liberality of our people.

It is true that a great sum has been contributed to the erection of new Churches and this may account for some decrease in the Mission Fund. But even this does not justify the curtailment of our contributions to outside work.

As was stated by the Report of the Missiary Conference "we fail to realize that the Parish which does the most for outside Mission work is the one most blessed in its own life and Parish activities." This cannot be questioned, as it is the manifestation of the carrying out of our Lord's Commission to the Church.

1. We must beware of the dangers of parochialism, which is a direct contradiction of Our Lord's Command, and a virtual denial of His Commission to His Church. The Church is Catholic and not Congregational. We fear that here is one source of the loss in our contribution to the Mission Fund. Our failure to realize that the Church is a Missionary Church, and every Parish must have for its chief object the extension of the Kingdom and not the mere enjoyment of its own privileges. Parochialism ever results in a loss of interest in the Church as such.

2. To suggest some means of overcoming parochialism, and some remedy for loss of interest has been the earnest endeavour of your Committee. We deprecate the multiplying of Diocesan organizations without the ability of accomplishing their purpose. We fear that we organize the Annual Council, with its constant change of personnel, and forget the need of organizing our Parishes as Missionary Societies in the Church. The lack of interest in Missionary work is not in the Council but in our Parishes. Can we not, with the guidance of the Holy Spirit, devise some means of arousing and organizing our Parishes to forward the work of extending the Church? We beg to recommend to the Clergy and Laity one more organization—the organization of every Parish and Mission into a Missionary Society. The Clergy have more duties than they can attend to properly. Can we not organize our people, especially men, and place upon them the responsibility of urging the Parish on in this laudable and essential work. Others have their Missionary Society in Convention with every congregation, meeting monthly; reading Missionary intelligence, stating their suggestions for further efforts and praying for power to go forth into all the world. Can we not gain some hints from those not so favored as ourselves? Can we not ask some of our Diocesan Missionary organizations to undertake to assist the Rectors in organizing every one of our Parishes. There is a danger that we organize our Diocese and still allow our Parishes to languish except to the extent of the interest of the incumbent and two or three faithful ones. Is there not a danger that we attempt to build from the top instead from the bottom. We recommend that the already existing Diocesan Board of Missions take it upon themselves to inform the Parishes as to the status and needs of the Missionary work.

Respectfully submitted,

E. W. SIBBALD,
F. F. KRAMER,
BENJ. BREWSTER,
J. T. CROWE.

Mr. C. D. Cobb moved that 800 copies of the Journal be ordered printed. This motion was carried.

Judge Whitehead moved the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted.

That the thanks of the Council be tendered to the ladies of the various parishes of Denver, who furnished luncheons to the delegates and visitors in attendance upon the Council, and to the various residents of Denver whose kind hospitality was extended to visiting delegates.

Dr. Kramer moved that the reading of the minutes be dispensed with and approved by the President, and it was so ordered.

On motion it was resolved that $5 be paid to the janitor of the Cathedral.

On motion the Council adjourned sine die, after prayers by the Bishop.

CHARLES S. OLMSTED,

President.

Attest:

EDWARD L. EUSTIS,

Secretary.

Appendix A

Bishop's Address

Dear Brethren of the Clergy and of the Laity:

The year past has been marked by the death of three of our American Bishops. Of only one can I speak from any personal knowledge. McLaren and Watson were names held in high honour and I regret that it was not my good fortune to have met and known them. Bishop Huntington was one of those finer spirits that only now and then brighten for a little while across our horizon, superior to the vast majority, and only to be truly understood when altogether removed to another world. All that was intellectual, spiritual, valid and veracious in the blood of New England descended to him, and gave him a saintly repose. "His soul was like a star and dwelt apart," as Wordsworth said of Milton. There was in him a singular reality of purpose which made him impatient of much that catches the public applause. Only by the profoundest conviction could he enter the Church after half a lifetime spent in Unitarianism, and it may have seemed to some that he never followed out all his premises to a possible conclusion. Intellectually no man could be more truly a churchman; it was only in some outward expression or other that he was cold and unimpassioned; and surely no man was ever a more sympathetic Shepherd of Souls and a more tenderhearted Bishop. He could not enjoy gatherings of the Clergy and so was often absent from General Conventions, and never was present at a Lambeth Conference; but it was not from any despising of good men. He simply felt the uselessness of much routine, and the idleness of much talk. He is best seen in his devout meetings and in his editing of "Hymns of Holy Refreshment," where he evinces the exquisite harmony of his taste and the true beauty of his withdrawn and inaccessible spirit. The Church may look the world over and scarcely find a man quite like him, a man to be revered and honored, and loved only with a reverential and almost trembling love.

The oldest among our Diocesan Clergy, the Reverend Francis Byrne was taken out of this world in June last. To many here he was well known and I need not say from my imperfect knowledge, what they know from an acquaintance of years. Life with him seemed to flow along like a placid stream and to enter almost imperceptibly into the great deep beyond. I was sorry that absence in a distant part of the Diocese made it impossible for me to have a part in his burial. A memorial altar is to be placed by the Cathedral women in the old church in Nevadaville, where he first served in this Diocese.

Our other losses among the Clergy have been by removal—not by death—but they have been very serious. In some cases men have both come and gone within the year; like the Children of Israel before the Sons of Anak, have been frightened at what they saw; but, I fear, unlike the Children of Israel have not borne away even a cluster of grapes as a token of their valour.

It is a question how to maintain and retain good men in our isolated and difficult fields. The resident people cannot in some cases secure a half of their Clergy's support, and pledges are not always to be relied upon in an ever-changing population. We have simply to do the best we may under the conditions and increase from outside whenever possible the scanty income. Until comfortable rectories and a more adequate support can be afforded, the work must often languish. It is easy to say that the Clergy should be more self-denying, and that they should live on what can be found in the field—but the Clergy must live, and the cost of living in many remote missions is almost as much again as it is in an Eastern city. Men can be found who will brave loneliness and intellectual dearth if they can be assured of a living, but few can be discovered who will add to that loneliness and that intellectual dearth a pittance to starve on.

The General Convention in Boston last October was one of the most notable ever gathered in our history. The place of meeting, the missionary zeal displayed, the work accomplished, the conservative temper in several cases manifested, and above all the presence of His Excellency, the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury and two of his Bishops of the Church of England and two Bishops of the Church of England in Canada, gave it a peculiar interest. The able speeches in favor of the permissive use of the Revised Version of 1881 could not overcome the deep feeling of a majority that we should hold to the old version, much to the contentment of many of us, who are pained by the useless pedantry and constant want of harmonious diction in the Revised Version.

A long step forward in legislation on the matter of the remarriage of divorced persons was taken, and the present canon minimizes the use of our service in such cases to a very considerable degree.

It is gratifying to observe the quickening, not of the Church conscience only, but of the public conscience as well in the matter of divorce and the remarriage of divorced persons. Views called rigorous are not uncommonly discovered in very unlikely places. One could wish that S. Paul's statement of the case of the indissolubility of marriage except by death in the Epistle to the Romans were more attended to, being a dogmatic interpretation of the matter and what may safely be accepted as elucidating the language of our Blessed Lord. Are we surer interpreters of the confessedly difficult renderings of the Lord's teachings in the Gospels than S. Paul, the inspired Apostle?

The work of the Diocese has gone on quietly during the year with some tokens of God's blessing upon us. The Hospital has been running ahead of its expenses at the rate of six hundred dollars a month since August last and Wolfe Hall at the end of the school year can, out of its earnings, pay the interest on its debt and spend a thousand dollars on repairs. The Chapter House is completed, except for the outer covering of stone, and will be a most satisfactory building for the use of the Diocese for generations to come. The Home has been given means for the building of a Nurses' Home and a chime of bells has been added to the chapel. In Boulder, the new S. John's is nearing completion and on Easter Day I blessed its beautiful chime of nine bells. S. Peter's Church in Walsenburg has been consecrated and the new churches at Berkeley and Arvada have been solemnly opened. New and commodious parish-houses have been opened in S. Stephen's Parish, Denver, Grace Parish, Colorado Springs and Emmanuel Mission, Denver. The new church in Manitou will be ready for consecration in August and the fifteen bells for the cathedral will be ready for use in the Autumn. Emmanuel, Denver, increases its stipend this year by two-hundred dollars, a long step ahead in the right direction, and the Church of the Redeemer, Denver, has paid over eight hundred dollars indebtedness. Lots have been secured for churches in Castle Rock, Fort Morgan and Fort Lupton, and for a rectory at La Junta..

Holy Trinity, Pueblo, paid all its debts and mortgage at Easter, and St. Luke's, Montclair, has begun the reduction of its long standing debt. The church at Victor has been greatly beautified, and a new organ added to St. Peter's, Denver. The Cathedral has again given a thousand dollars to Diocesan Missions, a fact that should be known and appreciated by the whole Diocese.

Six postulants and six candidates for Holy Orders are on our list, three of whom are in Faribault, two in Newanee, one in Cambridge, and the others at present studying at home.

The anniversaries of the Reverend Charles H. Marshall and the Very Reverend Dean H. Martyn Hart were duly observed and were the occasion of much rejoicing and good will. One could only bless God that there was so happy a feeling displayed on every hand.

I have been asked by the Chicago Local Assembly of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew to announce the meeting of the next Annual Convention of the Brotherhood in Chicago on September 21 to 24. This I cheerfully do, and hope a good delegation may go from the Brotherhood in this Diocese. I should like also to commend the Girls' Friendly Society which is doing a quiet and effective work in the Diocese, and especially do I desire to encourage and commend the Women's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions. The work it has through God's blessing been able to accomplish in a few years has been enormous. Its special gift of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars for Missions last Autumn, indicates its helpfulness to the Board and I hope the women of this Diocese may more and more be interested in it and aid its undertakings. It is one agency through which may be stirred up in our congregations a practical interest in Missions, now so greatly lacking among us. I know the difficulty of giving for foreign and domestic missions when we can scarcely live at home, but it has always proved true that by giving abroad we get larger gifts and blessings at home, and we can be no exception to the rule. It is the duty of every parish priest and every congregation to give at least one offering a year to Foreign and Domestic Missions and the apportionment of the Board for this Diocese, equitably divided among the congregations, indicates what is desired and what might reasonably in many cases be expected of us. Last year we gave a third of what was apportioned. This was better, by far, than we had ever done. This year I was hoping we should largely increase our gift, but so far we are much behind what we were a year ago, and I am fearful that in three months remaining of the Board's fiscal year we can hardly hope to catch up. The Laity are largely apathetic about this question, partly because they are not well instructed, but it quite confounds one to find any of the Clergy careless about the work. I am constrained to ask the Clergy to take a more real interest in bringing the subject before their people and giving them opportunities to give. In October of this year we are to welcome to Denver the Third Annual Conference of the Sixth Missionary Department, and I trust by its presence and influence a greater interest in our Missionary work may be promoted. Instead of having one Conference for the whole country meeting once a year in some Eastern city, we now have seven departments, each having its yearly Conference. In the Sixth Department, consisting of Dioceses from Minnesota to Colorado, ten in number, we have had two conferences, one in Omaha and one in Kansas City—both very helpful—and now we are to have the privilege of having the third one in this city. It is a very useful change and must bring about a better understanding of our work and its needs and of our many opportunities to do Christ's work as His Church and Kingdom. I shall be glad to see the Bishops and Delegates from other Dioceses, but especially to see as many of our own Clergy and people as can come to hear and take part in the Conference.

A missionary priest, living in the Diocese, writes to me: "I have baptised 41 persons since January, 27 of them being adults." This gentleman gathers his entire support from the three Missions he serves and calls on the Mission treasury for nothing. One sometimes is troubled by the question, are people, and especially children, looked after and baptised as they should be. The parish priest cannot expect an open door in every house and it is often unwise to obtrude the subject of Baptism on persons alienated in sympathy from him and his teachings—but baptisms are so few in comparison with what they ought to be that the Clergy ought to feel it incumbent upon their consciences to find out ways of bringing the subject before the people. The necessity of this Sacrament to salvation, where it may be had, which is the clear teaching of the book of Common Prayer, is not truly felt and believed among us as it ought to be. It will be a gloomy day for the Church when her Clergy cease to feel the inevitable value and need of this Sacrament. It is to be feared that it is not sufficiently opened and taught in catechisings and sermons, otherwise how can it be possible that there is an adult population unbaptised, and so, from a Church point of view, unchristianized. Sponsors are persons supposed to be aware of their singular privilege as in a measure guardians of the Faith and practice of their God-children, and the Clergy are bound to aid parents in choosing suitable sponsors for the infant whom they baptise. I know the difficulty sometimes of securing any sponsors at all. Often the few persons who are willing to take the position, stand for child after child, whose names they never enter in a book, scarcely of memory even, the date of whose entrance into the kingdom they do not recall, and for whom it may safely be said, they seldom pray. Sponsors should be as a rule communicants of the Church, otherwise how can they cordially promise to see that the children are brought up in the Church. They ought, whenever practicable, to be other than the parents of the baptised, and they should be specially instructed and helped by the parish priest in knowing and fulfilling their duty to their God-children.

The number of persons confirmed in the Diocese from May 1st, 1904 to May 1st, 1905, is 458, as follows:

The gain in Resources during the past year is shown to be $230.64. We have however had to pay the sum of $1,217.44 for Sidewalk, Curbing and other Special Improvement Taxes, which has been added to the value of Real Estate.

If the Special Improvement Taxes had been charged to Expense account it would have shown a Loss for the year of $986.80 in Income account.

THE HOME AND ITS VARIOUS PARTS.

Right Reverend Bishop and Gentlemen of the Council:

Although the growth of The Home in all its interests has been commensurate with any previous year, if not greater—still it has been justifiable I think—by the demands and constant applications for admission. Nearly the entire year every room has been taken and often large numbers have been on the waiting list, and the cottages have been occupied continuously. "Heartsease" has not at any time been able to accomodate the numbers desiring admission. The Home proper has been thoroughly changed in the front—adding a cover to the upper balcony, and by the addition of a large main entrance, made necessary from architectural reasons. A fifty foot balcony has been added to the East end of Heartsease, carrying out the same style of architecture. Two small balconies of iron have been added to the third story of Heartsease, cutting the windows down to give light and air to these rooms, making them among the most desirable, and as means shall be forthcoming, it is hoped to be able to treat all the third story rooms in the same way, and thus we can add to our present capacity eight more rooms. The storerooms have been supplied with bins and made over to meet the growing needs, and the butler's pantry is also being refitted with coffee urns, cup warmers, etc. All of these expenses have been met by the generosity of a single friend. The usual and constant repairs, refurnishings and sanitary needs have been met, and thus we have been able to retain the hard earned reputation The Home has won, of being a clean and well kept place. Each year has brought its demands, and as you know, they are never ending in any of our work.

The Adam's Memorial Home has cared for forty-three people constantly for the sum of $25.00 per month, and a considerable number of these people are unable to pay even this sum, and the receipts are not nearly sufficient to maintain this department, but by constant effort we have been enabled to meet the actual daily expenses, excepting the lighting, heating and water; this part of the expense The Home has borne and never received any pay for it, as yet. It would not be possible to supply these necessities, were the building separated from The Home, for less than $500.00 per month; as it is, we make a charge of only $250.00 but nothing has ever been paid. Were I to attempt to describe the cases of need, and the great help rendered in this Adams' Memorial Home, to the most absolutely needy, I should seem to be greatly overdrawing the picture. We have here not only responded to the very great needs, but have endeavored to encourage such to help themselves, by saying "Anyone who will make anything, and make it well, I will find a market for their products," and thus we have been enabled to encourage self-help, and discourage, to some degree that awful willingness to become paupers, that seems to claim so many of this class of invalids. I hope this may grow into the establishment of an "Arts and Crafts" shop, where light work can be done by all who are in any degree dependent. This is done to some degree at Saranac, and to a very large degree in many German and English institutions.

The maintenance Fund has grown considerably; lots have been purchased about The Home, to protect the surroundings from small tenement houses; and four beautiful cottages have been built East of The Home and are called "Chapel Place." These are both artistic and practical houses; all are rented, yielding a good income. These were built from the Sarah Schermerhorn bequest.

The chime of nine bells placed in the tower of the Chapel was also purchased from this bequest and is a memorial to that good woman. They are beautiful in the tower and give great comfort to many who are too ill to attend the services, and are enjoyed by all. The chime was placed here at the wish of the aged mother of Miss Schermerhorn. The chime has the distinction of being the first chime brought to Colorado. A peal of three bells has for years been heard from St. Elizabeth's Church, Denver, but no chimes before, so far as I have been able to learn.

There have been 325 persons living at The Home during the past year, and of this number sixteen people have received special charities who were unable to pay the regular charges, to the sum of $2,431.12, and fifteen people have been assisted at The Adams' Memorial, to the sum of $919.92; making $3,351.04 done in direct response to those unable to do for themselves, or 1,630 days of charity at $1.50 per day in The Home, and 1,146 days at 80 cents per day, in The Adams' Memorial. One hundred and thirty people have lived there. There have been very few here who have been here at other than at a sacrifice. There have been thirty-seven deaths, and no one has been refused because they were too sick, or because they were so unfortunate as to have to die. An unusually large per cent have been so far benefitted as to be consistently counted as cures.

The following States and Counties have been represented and the number from each:

New York	25	Illinois	21	Tennessee	13
Pennsylvania	12	Alabama	13	Ohio	11
Michigan	10	Massachusetts	10	Indiana	9
Minnesota	9	Nebraska	4	Kentucky	6

Maine, Maryland, Virginia, Wisconsin, 4 each; Iowa, Georgia, Missouri, California, South Dakota, Connecticut, 2 each; and almost every other State at least 1. Have had 4 from Hawaiian Islands; 18 from Canada; 3 from Scotland; and 2 from China.

The Chapel has proven a blessing to a great degree; it has indeed been a place of retirement and consecration, such as the donors prayed it might be. Many memorials have been bestowed and tokens of appreciation given, both of great beauty and value.

The Font done by our already celebrated sculptress, Miss Elsie Ward, will be in place about June 15th. This is given by Mrs. R. T. Auchmuty, in memory of a brother who died several years ago.

A beautiful pair of Bronze Gates were hung at Christmas before the baptistry, by a young man in memory of his mother, Mrs. Sarah Stewart Brooks, of Paterson, N. J.

S. Mary's Guild, in connection with the Chapel, has worked gladly for the poor, and has done a great amount to supply comforts to the needy ones, beside having assisted toward the general expenses of maintaining the Chapel and giving a considerable sum to Missions. The Missionary offering from the Chapel will, I believe, be counted as not among the least.

And now, if you will allow me, I will set forth to you something for the new department of usefulness being added to The Home work. There has grown a need to do something for the comfort and encouragement for that class of noble helpers—the nurses. They are now constantly associated with the sick. They nurse them, sleep in the same building, and eat in the same dining room. They, therefore, have little recreation that is not wholly associated with the sick, and a privacy and homelife of their own is a necessity, felt to be such by all who know the peculiar strenuousness of this class of workers. To meet this need, in connection with this Church Home, Mr. Wm. D. Sloane, for many years a dear personal friend and helper of the work, has given $20,000 with which to build a Nurses' Home, which is now in process of erection upon a suitable property given directly east of the Chapel. It will have twenty-seven rooms, beside kitchen, dining room, parlors, etc., and will be finished and furnished in such a manner as to give comforts, retirement, home-likeness, and a refined home to these women who have chosen a great self-sacrificing life work.

During the past year I had the misfortune to lose by death my superintending nurse, Miss Agnes Fletcher, who has been here for six years. She was indeed one of God's noble women, whose simple, helpful and noble life left its mark upon whatever she touched; a life about which no great eulogy will ever be written, but of whom it must always be felt by those who knew her that she was noble and true. She can be placed along beside that other one of whom our blessed Lord said, "She has done what she could."

Beside being thus able to be of real help and benefit to these nurses, it is the purpose to train here a number of pupil nurses whom we can send out into the city to nurse the distressingly poor consumptive as found in the rooming-houses and poorer tenements; where by careful direction and ministration, we hope to alleviate suffering, and protect innocent lives from infection. Many a poor mother is sowing the germ of tuberculosis in the life of her dear ones, because she neither has the strength or knowledge to protect her own; and many a poor man and woman is dying in our rooming houses, alone, neglected, feared by all, and left alone to suffer, both from their disease and from the lack of simple things which can be supplied if they can only be reached. These in brief are some of the things we hope to do in this new work now being inaugurated. It will need patience, sympathy, co-operation, hard work, and your earnest prayers.

FREDERICK W. OAKES.

Appendix I.

Archdeacon Bywater's Report.

Right Reverend Father in God:

I herewith submit my third annual report. At the commencement of the present conciliar year we began to realize results from systematic work at several points. Fort Lupton came first with twelve new members by confirmation, one being received by the Bishop from the Church of Rome. Since then, with the Bishop's assistance and approval, two fine lots 50 x 150 feet have been purchased for a site for a Church edifice. With two of the communicants I drove around the community and succeeded in raising by subscriptions $350.00. Dr. S. Hubbell then took up the matter and agreed to collect again the sums of money which had been promised for this purpose eight years ago from several parties, one of whom raised his former pledge from $50.00 to $100.00 so that a new Church for Fort Lupton is almost assured.

The work at Loveland assumed such encouraging proportions that it called for a permanent pastor to take charge of it and at the Bishop's appointment the Rev. Irenæus Trout accepted the charge at Advent. The work under his leadership is growing vigorously.

At Arvada, the rapid growing suburb of Denver, with generous assistance from the Bishop and active and energetic work on the part of the Ladies' Guild, three lots for a church edifice and rectory were bought in 1903 and gradually paid for. Since then they have greatly enhanced in value. Interest in the work and the congregation increased so that on Nov. 16, 1904, at the Bishop's request, I laid the corner stone of the new church, which is called St. Matthew's, the Very Rev. Dean Hart, the Rev. J. H. Houghton making the addresses and the Rev. Dr. Hazlett, minister in charge, assisting at the ceremony, and several of the city Clergy being present. The church was finished on Ash-Wednesday and dedicated by the Bishop on the first Sunday in Lent this year. The church is built of Golden pressed brick with buttresses and finished on the inside in oiled hard wood. The bell tower is an exact copy of St. Paul's church, Denver, and adds much to the beauty of the building. Dr. Hazlett reports a Sunday School of sixty and a large Chapter of the Girls' Friendly. Sixteen communicated at the Holy Communion on the 5th Sunday in Lent when I was the celebrant.

In the fall of 1903 I organized the work at Fort Morgan and Sterling, the County Seats of Morgan and Logan Counties, which have a population of 14,000 scattered in villages and hamlets along the banks of the Platte River. At the Bishop's invitation in 1904 the work appeared so promising that the Bishop placed this territory under the charge of a Missionary Priest who did faithful work at one point but was unable to care for the others and the work at Sterling was suspended. At the present time the foundations for a large sugar plant are being laid here and the population is increasing rapidly. With an abundant supply of water from reservoirs and an immense acreage planted to beets and cereals Sterling and Fort Morgan are bound to become important as large agricultural towns controlling the business of the six north-eastern counties of the State. At the first of the year the Bishop placed those points again in my care, and on Feb. 4th two lots were selected with the Bishop's approval at Fort Morgan and on Feb. 15th they were paid for and the deeds made out to the Bishop and Chapter, etc., thus acquiring for the Church her first property in the north-eastern part of the Diocese.

After carefully going over the matter with the Bishop and the Committee, and having secured nearly $600.00 in pledges for the new church edifice at Fort Morgan, at the Bishop's request I laid the foundation stone on May 11th of the new church, to be called S. Paul's. Senator Hill, Judge Heiskell and other members of the Bishop's Committee, several of the County Officials and members of the Ladies' Guild were present on the platform. The Choir in their new vestments, used for the first time, rendered the music for the occasion. The new church edifice will be 46 feet long by 24 feet wide. It will be built of rock faced cement blocks, with bell tower. The building will seat 200 people when completed, and will cost about $1,600.00 besides the cost of the lots. Our communicants there are very enthusiastic and look forward to the completion of the church with much hopefulness.

A class of ten candidates (since confirmed) awaits the Bishop's visit at Hugo on Sunday next, and a small class at Byers will be confirmed the same day. Fort Morgan and Fort Lupton have classes ready for the Bishop's next visitation.

According to Professor West, head of the U. S. Census Bureau, the population of the whole State of Colorado for this year is 602,925. The 19 Western Counties of the State have a population of 86,705, leaving to the Diocese of Colorado a population of 516,220.

The canvassing experts give Denver a population of 168,000 which is about one-third of the population of the whole Diocese outside of Denver. The Parishes and Missions in last years Diocesan Journal claim (not including the Cathedral) 110,000, thus leaving about 58,000 without parochial bounds, and there is great need for more Missionary work in the city of Denver.

*Appendix M.Report of Committee on Anniversary of the Rev. Charles H. Marshall.

Denver, June 20, 1905.

During the annual Council in June, 1904, Bishop Olmsted appointed a committee of three--Rev. A. N. Taft, Rev. F. W. Oakes, and Mr. A. A. Bowhay, to arrange for an appropriate service and testimonial on the occasion of the 30th anniversary of the Rev. Charles H. Marshall.

This Committee in connection with the Vestry of S. Barnabas' perfected the arrangements for the service and reception, which was held December 15, 1904.

At 11 a. m. an appropriate service was held in S. Barnabas' Church, with a sermon by the Right Rev. Charles S. Olmsted, followed by a celebration of the Holy Communion, the Bishop being Celebrant assisted by Dean Hart and Mr. Marshall. A large congregation was present to do honor to Mr. Marshall, and to show their appreciation of his long and faithful service in this Diocese.

Among those present was the Right Rev. Bishop of Iowa. After the service the Bishops and Clergy were entertained at luncheon by Mr. Marshall.

In the evening a large reception was held in the Guild room, at which time the Rev. Mr. Oakes, in a pleasing address, presented to Mr. Marshall, as a substantial testimonial from his many friends, a check for $1,600, and also a handsome Silver Pitcher.

Mrs. Marshall was also presented with a handsome Silver Toilet Set. Mr. Marshall responded to the good wishes of his friends with much feeling, followed by a short address by Bishop Olmsted.

FRANK A. ELLIS, JR., Secretary.

Appendix N.

Report of Committee on Anniversary of the Very Rev. H. Martyn Hart, D. D.

In the absence of the Chairman of the Committee on the Observance of the 25th anniversary of Dean Hart's connection with the Diocese, the Rev. J. Wallis Ohl asked for a continuance with leave to file their report which was granted, and the report was subsequently filed as follows:

Your Committee charged with the arrangements for the proper observance of the 25th anniversary of Dean Hart's connection with the Diocese, respectfully report:

That a special service in celebration of the event was held in the Chapter House on Friday morning December 2, 1904, at which the Right Reverend, the Bishop of the Diocese, administered the Holy Communion, and preached a felicitous sermon which fittingly signalized the Dean's long and important services to the Diocese, and especially to the city of Denver and Cathedral congregation.

In the evening a reception was held in the Crypt, largely attended by the Church people of the city, and many of the Dean's Christian friends among the denominations. Refreshments were served by the ladies of the Cathedral parish; congratulatory addresses were made by Mr. S. F. Rathvon, Senior Warden, and others, and the Dean was presented a much appreciated automobile, an elegant gold watch, some beautiful silver, and a magnificent loving cup.

The Dean's response was such a commingling of wit and pathos as one seldom hears, even on such an occasion, and readily appealed to those familiar with the close relations long existing between pastor and people.

After this the Loving Cup was sent round to the familiar strains of "Auld Lang Syne" happily closing a function which everybody voted a complete success.

IN MEMORIAM

The Reverend Francis Byrne

Priest

Born in Carlow, Ireland, May 4, 1807.

An officer in the British Army in Ireland and in Jamaica.

Appointed Principal of the Normal Institute in Jamaica for the training of missionaries for the service of the Western African Civilization Society in 1842.

Ordained Priest S. Mark's Day, April 24, 1850, by Lord Spencer. Bishop of Jamaica.

Came to America in 1854; officiated in Boston until 1867.

Came across the plains to Colorado in 1867 with Bishop Randall, and officiated for some years in Nevadaville and Central City.

Made House Father of Jarvis Hall at Golden; also ministering in Longmont, Greeley, Boulder, Bergen Park, Ft. Collins, Central City, Laramie and Cheyenne.

Later he served Rosita, Silver Cliff, Wet Mountain Valley and Ft. Garland.

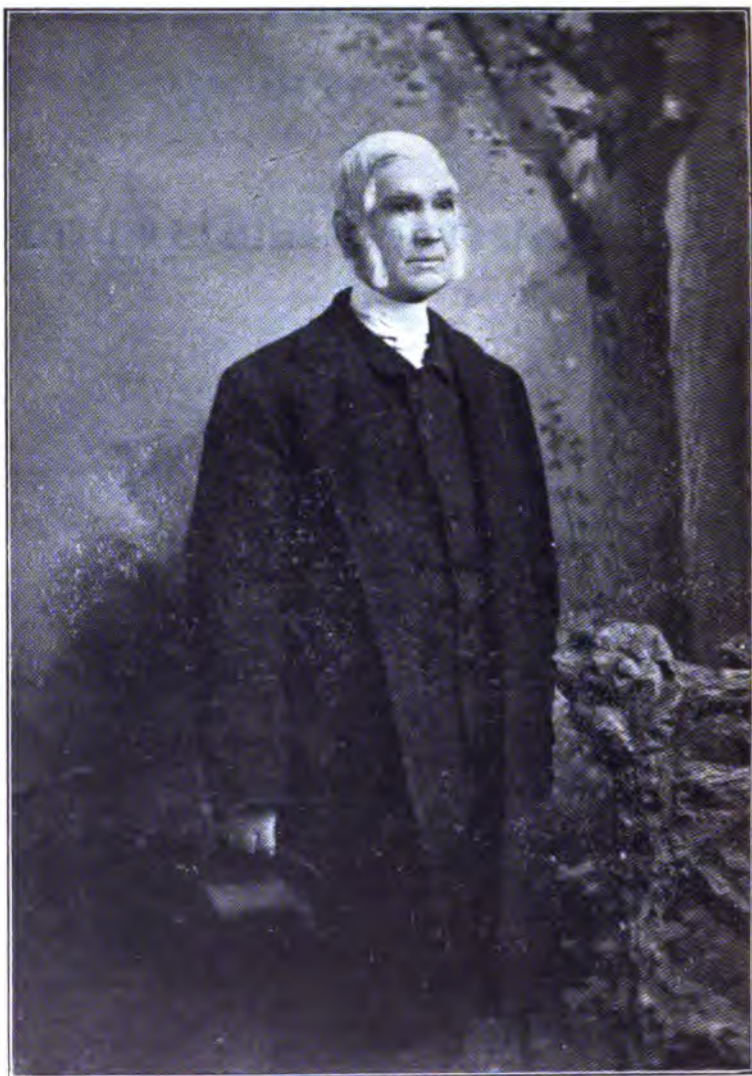

In 1889 he was settled over Littleton, serving also at Ft. Logan, Castle Rock and Plum Creek.

Appointed a Resident Canon of S. John's Cathedral by the Rt. Rev. J. F. Spalding, June 1, 1892.

Retired from active work to live in Littleton about five years before his death.

Died at Littleton, June 25, 1904, in the ninety-eighth year of his age.

His long and faithful service in this Diocese won many to the Saviour whom he loved. His radiant face, his kindly heart, his serene faith, and simple, earnest life exemplified many of the ideals of the Christian Priesthood to a generation who will not only love and revere the memory of "Father Byrne", but will "look unto the Rock whence" He was "hewn."

GENERAL CONVENTION STATISTICS

The Secretary takes the liberty to point out as a guide to the compilation of statistics for the General Convention of 1907 the following facts: Two Parishes (2), and seven Missions (7) failed to make a report. Two other Parish reports are incomplete. The vital statistics, therefore, are very incomplete. Parishes which last year reported and do not this year, account for the loss of 1,854 and Missions for 318 in the number of Communicants. If these had reported only the same number this year the number given below would be increased by 2169, making 6158 Communicants, or an increase of 321 over the 5837 of last year. The baptisms show an increase of only 5, although the actual number must be larger; the number of baptized persons is less by 3624; and the Marriages, Burials and Sunday School statistics also suffer.

Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions.

In our Christian life we should never stand still. "Daily increasing more and more in thy Holy Spirit until she come unto thy everlasting kingdom," is the prayer the Bishop says when he lays his hands on us in Confirmation. So not only our lives but our deeds should grow, and our work and influence should spread out; our zeal increase by constant prayer and reading of the sacrifices made by those who give up their whole lives to Missions. We at home can only lend a helping hand.

How many are there who read the Spirit of Missions? It should be in every Christian household, but how few there are who ever see it.

I feel as if I could report that the work and interest of the Woman's Auxiliary is increasing. We have had twelve meetings in Denver during the year, and our average attendance has increased from forty-six last year to fifty-four this year. Our knowledge and interest has increased by listening to well written addresses and papers at each meeting, and by united and systematic giving our offering will grow. We have given a tenth of each offerings to general Missions, and our pledges have been paid.

Our work this year has been on much the same lines as last, and every Church has done work for S. Luke's Hospital.

S. Peter's, Denver, has formed a branch of the Auxiliary during the year, and also one has been started at Castle Rock and one at Loveland.

Two of our oldest members—Mrs. L. A. Rathvon and Mrs. M. H. Chamberlain—have been called to the "life eternal." None were more devoted to the work or constant at its meetings when health would allow, and their faces will be missed from our midst. We can truly say, "they have done what they could."

The Twenty-first annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary held its opening service in the Chapter House, Tuesday, May 23, 1905, at 10 a.m. The sermon was preached by Bishop Olmsted from S. John, 6:28-29, and was very inspiring. The Holy Communion was administered by the Bishop, assisted by Chaplain Pruden.

After the service addresses were made by the Bishop, Dr. Hazlett, Rev. Mr. Crowe of Fort Collins, and Rev. Mr. Whitehouse of Cripple Creek, and Chaplain Pruden of Fort Logan. Archdeacon Bywater read his annual report.

The meeting adjourned for lunch in the Crypt, served by the ladies of S. Mark's, S. Paul's, Epiphany and Church of the Redeemer.

The business meeting was opened at 2 p.m., by the Rev. Mr. Eustis, with prayer.

Reports of Corresponding Secretary, Treasurer, Secretary of Babies' Branch, Church Periodical Club, Altar Department, Girls' Friendly Society, and United Offering were read and accepted.

Mrs. Spalding made a most interesting report, and plea for S. Luke's Hospital, and Miss Kerr, of Missionary work at Wolfe Hall.

Letter from Miss Emery was read by Mrs. Wolfe.

Announcement was made of receptions for Tuesday and Thursday evenings at the Bishop's residence; also of Missionary lecture on Wednesday evening by Rev. H. R. O'Malley.

Report of the Secretary from the County Hospital Visiting Committee for the Year Ending May, 1905.

The monthly meetings of the County Hospital Visiting Committee have not been held regularly during the past year, but the usual work has been done by the several churches taking part in it, and by the Rev. Mr. Eustis, Hospital Chaplain. My report does not cover the entire work done during the whole year, as the reports from October, November, December and January have not been received from those in charge.

The churches taking part in the work are the following—represented by from three to six from each church, who make at least four visits to the Hospital during the month assigned them—S. Mark's, S. John's, Emmanuel, S. Stephen's and S. Barnabas.

The ladies distributed fruit, jellies, sandwiches, etc., to the value of $20.25; besides hundreds of magazines, papers and books, and visited 1000 patients. S. Mark's sends such a good report of work done in February, March and April, that I copy a part of it.

"Ten letters were written for patients; six errands performed in the city; employment secured for two, and the Bible read to several; clothing given for two patients and assisted in Communion service each month."

The guilds of S. John's and S. Barnabas' donated sufficient money to purchase the Communion set, needed for use at the Hospital.

Respectfully submitted,

BLANCHE G. TEMPLE,

Sec'y County Hospital Visiting Committee.

Denver, May, 1905.
